Cured His Piles

Now 88 Years Old But Works At Trade of Blacksmith and Feels Younger Since Piles Are Gone.

The oldest active blacksmith in Michigan is still pounding his anvil in the town of Homer—thanks to my internal method for treating piles.

Mr. Jacob Lyon, Homer, Mich.

I wish that you could hear him tell of his many experiences with ointments, salves, dilators, etc., before he tried my method. Here is a letter just received from him:

Dear Sir: I want you to know what your treatment has done for me. I had suffered with piles for many years and used suppositories and all kinds of treatment, but never got relief until I tried yours. I am 88 years old, and the oldest active blacksmith in Michigan. I feel years younger since the piles have left me. I will surely recommend it to all I know who suffer this way. You can use my letter any way you wish and I hope it will lead others to try this wonderful remedy.

Yours truly, J. L. LYON.

There are thousands of afflicted people suffering with piles who have never yet had the one sensible way of treating them.

Don't be cut. Don't waste money on foolish salves, ointments, dilators, etc., but send today for a Free Trial of my internal method for the healing of Piles.

No matter whether your case is of long standing or recent development—whether it is occasional or permanent—you should send for this free trial treatment.

No matter what your age or occupation—if you are troubled with piles, my method will relieve you promptly.

Gagetown

Gagetown, Jan. 14.—The annual Sunday School and Christmas tree for the children of St. John's Sunday School was held on Saturday afternoon and evening, when about sixty children were guests of the teachers and ladies of the congregation who assisted.

A beautiful supper was provided for the children to which the two long tables of young people did full justice. After the tables had been cleared, and the games were over, the great event of the evening was the Christmas tree, which, when the curtains went up, appeared in all its gay decorations, bright candles and promising array of presents. Santa Claus quickly appeared on the scene to distribute them, and was assisted by Miss Pearl Peters and Miss Molly Otty, teachers.

When Santa Claus had finished his pleasant task and had disappeared, Rev. H. T. Buckland briefly addressed the pupils, and presented the prizes won during the year, as follows:

Senior Boys, attendance, Fred Hubbard; Prize for Best Scripture Lessons, Walter Fisher; Senior Girls, attendance, Rhoda Hector; Junior Girls, attendance, Gladys Vall, Edna Cooper; Primary Boys, attendance, Cecil Corey; Primary Girls, Elva and Grace Adamson; Prize for Best Catechism, Hazel McKay. The prizes were donated by the teachers and by Mrs. R. R. Reid and Miss Eva Fisher. Among those assisting with the tea were Mrs. R. Harvey Weston, Mrs. R. R. Reid, Mrs. J. S. Sutherland, Mrs. Wm. C. Belys, Miss Annie Dickie, Mrs. G. P. Rigby and Miss Frances Caswell. It was much regretted that the superintendent, Miss L. M. Peters could not be present on account of illness. The evening closed with roasting cheers for the teachers, and helpers, and to Santa Claus, who had driven so far to be present.

The Women's Institute met last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Donald A. Adamson, when a very enjoyable evening was spent by the large number present. The meeting took the form of a social evening, and while everyone worked busily, each member was called upon to contribute an anecdote or joke to the evening's entertainment. It was decided to continue the fortnightly fund-raising for the Memorial Hall Fund, which last year proved a helpful source of revenue. At the close of the evening dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Adamson, assisted by Mrs. William C. Delve.

On Thursday evening, Miss Mary Du V. Scovill entertained at a pleasant little bridge of four tables at her home in Meadowlands, when Miss Pearl Peters and H. W. S. Allingham were the prize winners. Music was enjoyed through the evening and refreshments served. Those present were Rev. H. T. and Mrs. Buckland, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Rigby, Miss Pearl Peters, Miss Anna Jackson, Miss Lucile Nevins, Miss Molly Otty, H. W. S. Allingham, F. M. Crocker, J. D. Caswell as well as Mrs. E. R. Scovill, M. Scovill, M. A. Scovill and R. P. Scovill.

The W. A. of St. John's Church held their first meeting for the year, on Wednesday evening, at the home of the president, Mrs. N. H. Otty, when, after a devotional meeting, plans were made for the work of the coming months, including an outfit for an Indian girl in the Union Lake School, and a gift of money to the Labrador Inland Mission. Reports were read by the treasurer, Mrs. R. R. Reid and by the corresponding secretary, Mrs. John R. Dunn.

Following the meeting of the W. A. a short meeting of the Women's Aid was held, with Mrs. R. R. Reid presiding. The secretary, Miss Molly Otty, read a letter from Mrs. J. A. Caswell, resigning her position as president, in which she served during the past year with much success. Her resignation was regretfully accepted. Mrs. R. R. Reid was elected president for the ensuing year, and Mrs. James Barndorff first vice-president. The secretary also read the financial report of the treasurer, Miss L. M. Peters, who was unable to be present. The proceeds of the Christmas sale this year were $215.50, the largest amount in the history of the aid. Before leaving for their homes, a cup of tea was enjoyed by the members, Miss Annie Dickie and Miss Molly Otty assisting Mrs. Otty in serving.

Miss Mary Scovill returned on Tuesday to St. John, where she will spend the winter.

P. H. Vernet, who is lumbering at Upper Hampstead, cut his foot very badly last Tuesday, while at work in the woods, and as a result of this unfortunate occurrence will be laid up for two or three weeks.

Miss Junetta Bulyea, who has remained here, during the past week, owing to the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. P. Bulyea, returned to Sackville on Monday to continue her course at Mt. Allison.

Friends of Mrs. Amos Corey will be glad to know that she is now steadily recovering from her recent severe attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. R. C. Richard spent Sunday at her home here.

Miss Irene McAulay, who teaches at Galloway spent the week-end with friends in Rexton.

Miss Beatrice Richard, teacher at Richibucto Village, spent Sunday at her home here.

Edward Hamay has purchased from John McInerney his property on Bratt street, including land lately vacated by the shipbuilders and house occupied by Alfred Beattie.

Mrs. William Roach of Main River, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Connel Wood.

The funeral of the late Mrs. James Conway took place on Friday from her late residence to the Roman Catholic Church, Rexton, where the funeral service and high mass were sung by Rev. John Gaudet. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

Mrs. William J. Ross and daughter, Miss Florence Ross of Lynn, Mass., have returned to their home after a few days' visit with relatives and friends in Rexton and vicinity.

Mrs. William Masterton and little son of Munderville, visited friends in Rexton on Tuesday.

When She Started Taking

"Liv-rite" — Now Feels

Better.

Friends of "Liv-rite Tonic" still continue to increase. It is becoming a practice now to have a box of "Liv-rite" in the home as a preventative, in order to keep the body constantly in shape to combat the forces which assail it. Another of the rapidly increasing patrons who have found "Liv-rite" to be a valuable friend, is Mrs. M. Blizard, of 73 Edin street. She writes to the Maritime Drug Co., 108 Prince William street, as to how this splendid medicine made an improvement in her health.

Mrs. Blizard says: "I was very much run-down in health when I started taking 'Liv-rite.' I used to have headaches, I was without much energy, and could not rest comfortably. I could not eat anything. After having taken your tonic I now feel so much better that I feel I must tell you about it for the sake of others. It has made a wonderful improvement in my health. In fact I feel that it has cured me completely."

You can get "Liv-rite Tonic" from most druggists, but if your druggist cannot supply you, send his name to the Maritime Drug Co., 108 Prince William street. Or if you send one dollar they will forward it to you direct.—Advt.
