A Musical Muddle—The Officers and the Band.

The Band of the 62nd are engaged to go to Washademoak with New Dominion Lodge to-morrow, and Col. MacShane and his officers desire them to parade with the Battalion. The bandsmen swear by the Big Bass Drum that they will go on the excursion, and the Colonel swears by the Jumping Elephant that they shall parade. Telegrams have been sent to Fredericton, and an attempt will be made to arrest the men. The bandsmen say they will go in plain clothes and resist any attempt at arrest. There promises to be a big row.

Dropped Dead.

A little after 12 o'clock this afternoon, Mr. J. W. Hartt, principal of the Girls' High School, dropped dead of heart disease, at his boarding house, Mrs. Joseph Reed's Leinster street. When he closed the school at noon he seemed quite well and in excellent spirits although he has for some days past been complaining of a pain and suffocating feeling across the chest. On Friday the City Superintendent, Dr. Bennett, requested the deceased to take a rest for a few days, as he was then not feeling well. but he expressed the wish that he should continue, as he would be all right by Monday. Mrs. Hartt is in Nova Scotia, and two of his daughters left town this morning for a short vacation in the country. The sad intelligence was communicated to the young lady pupils, who were anxiously awaiting their teacher in the school-rooms, King street, at 2 o'clock, when a scene ensued which it is beyond our powers to describe. Dr. Bennett, W. H. H. Keans, Esq., and the Secretary were speedily summoned, but all their powers of persuasion could not quell the tumult of grief. Mr. Hartt was nearly seventy.

City Police Court.

His Honor Judge Gilbert is ill, and was unable to attend at the Court this morning. Justice McAvity occupied his place and had drunks to fine to the number of eleven. There was the usual number of spectators present to see justice dealt out, and the prisoners, who were all males, were of various ages. The youngest was about twelve years of age, while the eldest had his head well sprinkled with gray hairs. The fines were all the same, the invariable custom of $8 on Monday being followed to the letter.

James Clark was arrested in an alley off Duke street, Peter Sweeney was arrested on Princess street, Patrick O'Brien in an alley in Brussels street; Samuel Wortman was found on King's Square; fined $8 each.

John McCarthy, and Timothy Donovan, two young boys were in the dock to answer a charge of drunkenness. They both pleaded guilty, and were treated as the rest of the prisoners. Youth was no excuse for them. The mother of Donovan paid his fine, and gave the policeman who arrested him a blessing, "for taking up an innocent boy."

Sheffield street as usual contributed its quota. John Toole was accused with being drunk and assaulting another party in the street. He was fined for being drunk and the other charge was not pressed.

Thomas Rolston, Daniel O'Grady and John McMullin were also arrested in the same street and fined.

John Gregory was drunk in Mill street and given in charge for annoying his neighbors, and he will pay $8 or spend some time in gaol.

Portland Police Court.

For Monday morning business was rather quiet there being two drunken people to dispose of.

William McCarron was arrested on the Straight Shore Road, and was fined $4.

Sarah Ann Lewis was arrested on Main street on Sunday, and was fined $8.

Isaac McKenzie was summoned on information of his wife to answer a charge of assaulting and beating her. The assault took place at their home in Lancaster and the evidence fully sustained the charge and McKenzie was fined $20 and $2 costs, which will no doubt teach him a lesson.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD, nothing has ever been offered which can compare with this Extract of Sarsaparilla. It is found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the humors that rankle in the system at this season of the year. Many complaints have their origin in the spring, and in the causes above mentioned, for which no better remedy has ever been devised. By its use multitudes can spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system strives to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass.
