

55 and 57 King Street.

31

to the Grit scheme that now awaits the approval of the Senate of the United very little, even though it should be ac-Acadamy of Musicis that the criminality was confessed to Beecher's Case. The clouds thicken around the chief actors in the Tilton-Beecher drama. Mr. Beecher around the chief others to obtain credence for the state-Cod Ollment. Mr. Beecher creates the im- Split Herrings -Tilton declares that both Beecher and Elizabeth confessed their criminal inti-macy to him, Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton says Mrs. Tilton confessed it to her, and it is stated that Tilton signed a document within a few days withdraw-ing all his charges, for the purpose of endeavoring to stop the investigation. Tilton has stated everything by turns, Mrs. Tilton has acted rather strangely,

Here is a specimen of the manner in which Tilton's chief charges—the im-proper caress and the bedroom scene— were picked to pieces in his cross ex-amination: Q.—There was nobody there but yon three? You were looking at engravings? A Vor and buildings along the Railway and your wife were in was a room com-municating with another room with slid-ing doors? $A = V^{e_3}$

Beecher was in? A.—A bedroom. Q.—Was there a bed in it? A.—Yes, from St. John to Sussex. The local

m	St.	John	Ju	ıly 28,	1874.
m wo ic- iot		an terante Al 14 a	-	LOC	ALS	•
00						1117	_

very little, even though it should be ac-cepted as the truth. Tilton's entire case Burke's Tableaux of Erin— J V Fanar J S. Turner

Masters & Patterson

Tilton has stated everything of discovered and what evidence the state of the state

Disastrous Fire. Last evening, about 8 o'clock, a ag doors? A.-Yes. Q.-What was that room for that Mr. of dollars have been expended in lands It has many situations that appeal fire broke out in the rear of Messrs. R. & ence, cultivated or not, and contains street. It was first discovered by a

The Academy of Music Theatre.

Justice McAvity had but two prisoners most strenuous efforts of the firemen to keep it confined to the two houses men-to look after this morning. James Clark was charged with drunk- tioned. One of the buildings had a flat enness in Prince William street. He gravel and tar roof, and it was impossible confessed the charge, but wanted to be to do more than keep a supply of water let off, as it was some months since he and prevent the adjoining building from had appeared in the dock. He forgot to burning. At one time Horton's building say that a part of the time of his absence was in great danger, but it was fortuhe had been rusticating at the Dominion nately saved. The rear of these buildings Retreat across the flats. His character was one of the most dangerous places in was known to be so bad that his peti- the town, in case of fire. There was tion could not be entertained, and a fine nothing but a lot of wooden sheds and rookeries that seemed specially prepared of $6 or two months was imposed. Hugh Galt promised to leave the city for a bonfire. Messrs. Finlay's workshop, within an hour if forgiven for his drunk- which runs back a long distance, was enness. He said he was en route to Fre- only about four feet from Mr. McGill's dericton to accept employment with Go- house and several other tenement houses.

vernor Tilley. A fine of $4 was imposed, Mr. McGill's house caught fire, and all reconcile with his partial explanations. Here is a specimen of the manner in Here is a specimen of the manner in

