SAINT JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 21, 1875. VOL IV No. 128 NO FAILURE! LONDON HOUSE NOTES AND NEWS. milles. This city is overrun by workmen, seeking employment where none is to be had."

ANCHOR LINE. 300 PIECES The busts of John G. Whittier and the "Sit down and rest your cheek," is the way they now put it.

"Paper coffins only cost four dollars apiece," says an exchange. This is almost enough to tempt one to go.

Husband—"What's the use of going out this muddy weather?" Wife—
"What's the use of having striped stockings?"

The busts of John G. Whittier and the late Professor Agassiz, by Preston Powers on exhibition in Boston. They were modeled by Mr. Powers during his visit to that city last November and taken to Florence, where they were cut in Carrara marble of spotless white-mess. As portraits they are said to be faithful and characteristic, while in their mechanical execution they are remarkable for elaborate and delicate finish. LIGHT GROUND SAILING FROM Wholesale Warehouse, Glasgow and Liverpool HALIFAX, N. S., AND SAINT JOHN, N. B. CAMBRICS! Market Square. SOLD AT 18 AND 20 CENTS, The Fast and Full-Powered Anchor Line SIDONIAN," Now Reduced to APRIL 27TH, 1875. DAVID EDWARDS, Commander, will be despected was suddenly struck with his idea of the origin of man.

"Sinful sectarianism" is what a Unitarian theological student called it, because a Methodist girl refused to let him hugher in a camp-meeting tent!

In these green days reviving sickness lifts her languid head, and gazing out upon the fresh young spring, feels life begin afresh, or words to that effect.

The billiard-players Cyrille and Joseph Dion have gone to France in the steamship Amerique. They intend to return in the fall of the year in company with Vignaux and his brother.
