Chief Randall of Guelph Resigns

Services Will Be Retained by Commissioners in Light Capacity: A Faithful Servant

GUELPH, June 1.—After serving the city faithfully for the past 38 years Chief of Police F.W. Randall is about to relinquish his duties as head of the Guelph police department. This decision was reached at a recent meeting of the police commissioners after the chief had been fully consulted and his wishes in the matter obtained and to-day the police commission is advertising for a new chief of police.

The services of the chief will be retained by the police commissioners however, but his duties will be exceedingly light and he will not have anything more to do with the regular police force after his successor is appointed. He will be given light duty and will be paid an annual salary of $1,200. During his
