

immoveable property of the annual value of one thousand pounds currency, and all moveables and personal effects and property whatsoever, with the power to sell and alienate the said moveable and immoveable property, and to purchase others in their stead, and to execute all contracts and to acquire gratuitously within the limits above prescribed; and all moveable property, books, credits and effects belonging to the said Association, at the time of the passing of this Act, shall vest in the said Corporation.

Members to be considered as of full age.

II. And be it enacted, That all the members composing or who shall form part of the said Association, shall be considered as of full age, for the exercise of the rights attached to them in their quality of members of the said Association. 10

Present regulations to remain in force.

III. And be it enacted, That the Constitution or By-laws of the said Association in force at the time of the passing of this Act, shall continue to be the Constitution and By-laws of the said Corporation, until they shall be altered or repealed by the said Corporation who are hereby empowered so to do, and also from time to time as they shall think proper to make any other Constitution or By-laws, and the officers of the said Association who shall be in office at the time of the passing of this Act shall continue to discharge the duties of their respective offices as officers of the said Corporation until others shall be appointed in their stead in conformity with the said Constitution, and By-laws. 15 20

Public Act.

IV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be a Public Act. 25