

VI. Provided always and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall prevent the master or person having the command of such vessel from permitting any Passenger to leave the vessel at the request of such Passenger before the arrival of the vessel in the harbour of Quebec, but in every such case, the names of the passengers who shall so leave shall be entered in the manifest on the list of Emigrants made out at the time of the clearing of the vessel from the United Kingdom or other part of Europe as aforesaid, and shall be certified under the signatures of the Passengers so leaving the vessel; and if the number of Passengers remaining on board on the arrival of the vessel in the Harbour of Quebec, do not correspond with that mentioned in such manifest, after deducting the number who shall have so left the vessel, the master or person having the command of such vessel shall incur a penalty of        pounds currency for each Passenger not found on board or entered on the manifest as having left the vessel as aforesaid: Passengers may be allowed to leave the ship at their own request on certain conditions.

VII. And be it enacted, That the said report shall further contain the name, age and last place of residence of any person who may have died during the passage of such vessel, and shall specify whether such passenger was accompanied by relatives, or other persons, and the names of such relatives or other persons, who were entitled to take charge of the moneys, goods and effects which may have been left by such passenger, and if there shall have been no such relatives or other persons entitled to take charge of the same, then the said report shall fully designate the quantity and description of such property, whether money or otherwise, which shall have been left by such Passenger, and the said master or person in command of any such vessel shall pay over and fully account for the same, to the Collector or Chief Officer of Customs for the Port at which the said vessel may be entered; and Penalty for contravention, £5.
