

THE JUSTICES FEES.

For every Summons,	£. 2 6
Subpoena ad Testificandum for every Witness,	6
Entering Appeal, and sending up Papers to the Supreme Court ,	2
Taking Recognizance to Prosecute Appeal,	1
Every Execution,	1 4

PROVOST MARSHAL and CORONER's FEES.

For the Service of every Execution and Return thereon,	2 6
For Travelling Expences, to be computed from the place of Residence of the Justice who issues the Execution, at the Rate of Three Pence per. Mile.	}
Levying and paying Monies on Execution, at the Rate of One Shilling in the Pound .

GOALER'S FEES.

(If not discharged as herein before mentioned) for the Commitment of every Prisoner	} 2 6
Lodging One Penny per. Night.

A Table of which Fees shall be posted up in a conspicuous part of the Office, or most public Room belonging to the Justice of the Peace, Provost Marshal, Coroner or other Officer, and at every Goal which now is, or hereafter shall be, on this Island.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Justice of the Peace, the Provost Marshal, or other Officer, Goaler or any other Officer, Person or Persons to be employed by virtue of this Act, shall take or demand any greater or other Fee, or Fees, than as above mentioned, or in any other Manner act contrary to the true intent and Meaning of this Act, each and every of them, so offending, shall forfeit, for each and every Offence the Sum of Five Pounds, Sterling; the one Moiety to the Use of the Informer, and the other Moity thereof to be paid to the said Treasurer, for the Uses herein before mentioned, the same to be recovered in manner as herein before directed.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That each and every of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace shall, and they are hereby required, to keep a Book for the sole Use and Purpose of entering and registering the Name of the Parties Plaintiffs and Defendants, upon issuing any Summons as herein before directed; as also the several Orders and Judgments that they shall or may make on all Plaints which may come before them, in Pursuance of this Act. And furthermore, that each and every Justice before whom Recognizance for prosecuting any Appeal, as herein before directed, shall be entered into, shall, without delay, return the same into the Clerk's Office of His Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature, at least two Days before the Sitting of said Court, so as that the same may be proceeded upon at the Sitting thereof next after the Date of such Recognizance; and all his Majesty's Justices of the Peace neglecting to keep such Book,

D

Table of Fees to be posted up in each Justices Office, &c.

Penalty of demanding greater or other Fees not exceeding 5*l*.

Each Justice to keep a Book for registering the several Plaints.

Justice to return
without delay, Recognizance for prosecuting Appeals, to the Clerk of the Supreme Court.

on any Neglects to forfeit £5.

or