

Singer Hall Week

Students at the University of New Brunswick in Fredericton have been climbing the fundraising bandwagon this past week with hopes to raise funds for the new Ethel Frances Singer Hall.

Members of the UNB Business Society and AIESEC, an international student business organization, have joined forces to plan and produce New Home Week. Proceeds from the week's activities will be used to complete the construction and furnishing of the new addition to Tilley Hall.

The new building, Singer Hall, will be the headquarters of the faculty of administration. The university needs $1 million to complete the $3.3 million structure, which is expected to open in September.

"The students have been very responsive to the university's need to raise additional funds," says Reg Tweeddale, director of development at UNB. "It is really encouraging to see their enthusiasm for the Singer Hall project."

During the past week students have been selling specially designed T-shirts and mugs, credit-card sized calculators embossed with the UNB crest, and red and black scarves.

Those who visit their booth today between 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. next to the Student Union Building cafeteria will also have the opportunity to participate in an innovative scheme to place a time capsule in the new building. Anyone interested in being remembered in the next century can purchase the right to sign his or her name in the Singer Hall Time Capsule register or to leave a memento in the capsule.

The week will culminate tomorrow, March 14, with a dance-a-thon in the Student Union Building Ballroom from 3:00 p.m. to midnight. Top 40 music, refreshments, and prizes will be offered to all who dance in support of Singer Hall. Sponsor sheets for the event are available from the Student Union Building Office or the Business Society Office in Tilley Hall, Room 304.

Ethel Frances Singer Hall is named in honor of the first Jewish woman to graduate from UNB. Miss Singer received a BA in 1935 and an MA in 1936. About one-third of the Singer Hall construction costs are being funded by a bequest from her sister, Sadie Singer.
