It'll never happen to me!
But it can and you need to react fast!

That's why you should always have the ECHO with you.

It is a revolutionary high tech personal alarm that emits a powerful 110 decibel sound alarm at the tug of a cord, day or night.

The ECHO is designed for those concerned with personal safety. The ECHO can easily be carried on a purse strap, book bag or belt. Pull the rip cord device or depress the "on" switch whenever threatened or in distress.

Isn't there someone in your family who should have an ECHO?

The ECHO has been recognized by police and campus law enforcement officers as it is a passive defensive device.
