Congratulations to Jim McMahon of Hiawatha Parkway on successfully completing his third year in Commerce and Finance at the University of Toronto, with one more year to go before receiving his degree. Jim is employed for the summer in the offices of the Anaconda American Brass, New Toronto, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McMahon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Manners of 7 Elmwood ave. S., were at London for the week end visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Manners and two little girls Linda and Karen. On the way to London they stopped off at Kitchener to pick up their nephew, John O'Brien, who arrived in Canada from Ireland 2½ months ago and was anxious to meet his cousin, Douglas.

Mrs. Michael Harding of Port St. is home from Oakville-Trafalgar Memorial Hospital with her first child, a baby girl. Mrs. Harding is the former Ermenia Lolato, daughter of Mrs. Columba Lolato.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Haskett and their baby daughter, Catharine, who was one year old at the week end are leaving their Benson ave. apartment at the end of July for their new home in Montreal where Mr. Haskett has been transferred by his firm, the Cryovac Corp. The young couple look upon the move as a big adventure and are busy polishing up their High School French by means of French books and recordings. Mrs. Haskett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McMahon of Hiawatha Parkway.

Three aunts, two of whom, Mrs. Dorothy Rose and Mrs. Garnet Robinson are also her Godmothers were hostesses with Mrs. Ernest Morley at a miscellaneous shower at St. Catharines for Miss Helen Robinson who is to be married to Paul Lambke at Trinity Anglican Church, Port Credit, on July 16.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Robinson of 28 Briarwood ave. Miss Susan McVicar, who is to be Helen's maid of honor, gave a kitchen shower at her home on Indian Valley Trail.

The bride-to-be is a teacher at Douglas Park Elementary school in Etobicoke. Congratulations to Miss Karen Shute, younger daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wilfred Shute of Trimble court who received first class honors at the conclusion of her first year in nursing at Guelph General Hospital.

Mrs. H. R. Gibson came up from Belleville to spend the week end with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Gibson, 1279 Minnewaska trail on the occasion of the farewell party given for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hanks of Mineola road east, who are moving to Brighton, Ont.

On Sunday at Lakeview United Church, Rev. John Burbidge baptized the following: Constance Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Geddes; Donna Rachel, and Suzanne Margaret, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. Koopmans; Shawn Wayne, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Scott.

New members received by Confirmation last Sunday at Lakeview United Church were Miss Kathleen Strang and Miss Peggi Whitbread.

The main reason for the difference is the extra congestion in London. The picturesque but tortuous systems of roads makes modern traffic control a nightmare. Ontario cities are lucky to be able to engineer thoroughfares, and install controls, that add protection as well as convenience.

Ann McKinney Honored With Many Showers

Mrs. Harold McKinney, Stavebank Road, Port Credit, entertained at a trousseau tea in honor of her daughter, Ann. Pouring tea during the afternoon were Mrs. Fraser Morris, godmother of the bride, Mrs. James Martin and Mrs. George Macbeth. During the evening Mrs. Norman Jackson, of Oakville, Mrs. R. J. Christie and Mrs. P. Fletcher-Weston officiated at the tea table.

Among those entertaining for this popular bride-elect were Mrs. James Burns, who held a miscellaneous shower at the home of her parents, Rev. D. S. and Mrs. Jackson. Mrs. J. Hatten was hostess at a miscellaneous shower at her home on Kane Road, as was Mrs. E. Harman. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Naish, Clarkson, entertained a mixed party and shower, which was attended by former members of Trinity A.Y.P.A. Mrs. K. Betts and Miss Judy Culver were co-hostesses.

Mrs. G. Macbeth and Mrs. L. Pickard were co-hostesses at a shower held in the Port Credit Fire Hall, while Mrs. E. Hunt, of Willowdale, aunt of the groom, held a miscellaneous shower at her home.

Dr. R. J. and Mrs. Christie, of Weston, hosted a dinner party for the immediate family. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ferguson, Oakville, also entertained at a dinner party. Mrs. Norman Jackson, of Oakville, was hostess at a delightful luncheon held at the Estiment, Burlington.

Fieldhouse Anniversary

LORNE PARK — A very happy family reunion took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Fieldhouse on Indian Grove when they entertained her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall of Toronto, on the occasion of their Silver Wedding Anniversary recently.

Among the 30 relatives of all ages who attended was Mrs. C. Wallace, a sister of Mrs. Marshall, who is here on a visit from Ballymena, Northern Ireland. No one brought presents — instead a silver money tree stood in the living room to which each one pinned their gift and this was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Marshall afterwards.

All enjoyed the delicious turkey dinner complete with the anniversary cake which the bride and groom of 25 years cut together as they had done before and were content to sit and chat over old times and the happenings since they had last been together — all but the children, who had a grand time "out in the country."

Epitaph for a driver killed in collision, quoted by the Ontario Safety League: "He passed on, passing on a hill."
