People & Events

month for weddings! On Saturday, Dec. 16 Irene Wilson and Clifford Hudspith were married at St. John the and on Saturday, Dec. 30, the same lovely setting.

The residents of Marklane

Park Condominium have organized their own

MARKLANE PARK

Dec. 30.

Applewood Forest Glen

Aileen Blears 625-4458

Help for 'heavies' available in the Applewood-Forest Glen area. If you over-ate a little during the Christmas season, don't panic . . . Canadian Calorie Counters has a branch called Dixie Belles meeting every Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. in Burnhamthorpe Community Centre, 1350 Burnhamthorpe Rd. E. and any overweight person with a sincere desire to lose weight through counting calories while eating nutritiously, coupled with group therapy, is welcome' For additional information call 625-0671 or 625-0330.

·Y There is also a 'Y' program TAB (take a break) Wednesday mornings at 9:30 An informal dance was in Bethesda United Church staged New Year's Eve with of Forest Glen. This program for ladies includes exercising and stimulating discussions' thereby improving your figure and your mind at the same time. Baby is provided. Mary McKinnon 625-1215. WEDDINGS

December was a popular

'homeowners' association', and public relations director Pauline Gould-Corney reports the first annual Christmas dance held in the recreation room Saturday, Dec. 16 was a huge success. There were 150 present for dancing and merry-making, and neighbour met neigh-bour at the buffet table.

bringing his own liquid refreshment and party food to the recreation room. is Koehnen president of this new association with Beverley Baxter as vice-president and secretary. Treasurer is Jim

МсСоу,

each apartment owner

When Heather Nelson, leader of the Pioneer Girls Baptist Anglican Church, Club of Forest Glen Alliance Linda Stokes and Richard Church, left to take up duties Butler exchanged vows in with her husband, Pastor A.G. Nelson, in Burlington, Margaret Susan Joynt and Garnet Kerr were the girls presented her with a lovely candle, which, married at Applewood United Church Saturday, hoped, would remind her of, their happy association.

director is Fred Cole and Pauline Gould-Corney is public relations director.

PIONEER GIRLS

CUBS 1st Dixie Cubs B pack recently had Christmas Party The evening was highlighted by the distribution of gifts to all the Cubs by Cubmaster Ron Powell. In the spirit of Christmas giving, donated $5 to the Canadian Arthritic Association. next meeting will be held Jan. 8. BOWLING

Some well-bowled balls rolled out of the hands of members of Appleknocker's Bowling League and 16 turkeys rolled in as the league held its annual Christmas turkey roll Plantation Bowl. High triple of the day was rolled by Tish Bean with 695. Other 600 or better triples . . . Marg Hopper-664, Marion Olthius-646. June Smith-638,

Jacqueline Fraser 822-1392

Among the Mississaugans who enjoyed holidays before the Christmas rush were: Helen and Gordon Oughtred, Mary and John Pallett, who flew to Greece for 10 days of golf and sight-seeing. Bette and Howard Vernon and Gaye and John Ditchoff spent a week in Freeport. Bahamas and returned with wonderful suntans. Mildred and Stan Norman enjoyed a week in Vancouver and PRE-CHRISTMAS

Joyce and Herb Kearney, of Fairfield Manor, hosted a pre-Christmas party at their Truscott Drive Among the neighbours and friends who attended were

Lorne Park

Doris Angus 278-0982

A service of candlelight and carols was presented recently at St. Stephen's-on-the-Hill United Church by the junior and senior choirs under the leadership of music director Tom Bretney

The program was joyful and reverent and a fitting beginning for the Christmas

Hilltop Nursery School held a Christmas coffee party for The school closed for the Christmas break Dec. 21.

and will reopen Thursday, parents and young people

NURSERY

BASKETBALL

the Charles Abels, Margaret Templeton, the John Baileys, and Margaret and Peter Bolland. MIDNIGHT management invitations read 'Come to a party from 5-7 however at Patti and Dick Hutchison's festive gathering, many were still there at midnight. This party seemed to start in the kitchen instead of end there and was a smashing success. The Pat Mowats, Patti's parents, are Christmas visitors from London, Ont. ROTARY

Louise Bailey, whose husbnand John is president of the Rotary Club of Clarkson (Mississauga) this year, had a wine and cheese party for the Rotary wives recently. The same evening, Rotarians and their children

Tecumseh School on Wednesdays from 8:30 to 10 p.m., would like to have more members. Anyone interested enjoyed a Christmas party at and Len Russell, Sylvia the Holiday Inn complete with a clown and old Santa with gifts for everybody, and hot dogs and hamburgers to

GUIDES

Following the presentation the golden bar to Lynn Rae the 107th Mississenga Brownie Pack celebrated the approaching festive season with a party.

The Guides and leaders of the 108th Mississauga Guide Company, gathered at the home of Lieut. Ruth Bignell for a welcome cup of hot chocolate after they had been carolling.

The 106th Mississauga Guide Co. spent an evening carolling in their district in aid of the Hospital for Handicapped Children in Muskoka which will be held at the Clarkson Pool from January in joining should call Jim Beatson, 274-6018. ST. STEPHEN'S special evening of entertainment is being planned for the members of Stephen's-on-the-Hill United Church for Friday, Jan. 19. Members are asked to mark the date on their calendars should and watch for further EXERCISES The concept of exercises in water is proving to be an excellent way to keep the body in trim. The ability to swim is not required, since all exercises are done in the shallow end of the pool and are based on the principal of water displacement and to March. Call 822-2689 or ORCHESTRA

The Mississauga Symphony Orchestra, a new amateur group formed this year, still needs violinists, cellists, violists and bassists to form a string section. Anyone with talent on these instruments contact Linda Petroski at the Mississauga Recreation and Parks Department, 279-7600.

REGISTER Register now at the Mississauga Recreation and Parks Department if you are interested in having your children take part in art classes, held Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 12 noon at Huron Park; learn to skate classes. which begin this month, or the experimental theatre group for children league, which meets at advantage of this program

Streetsville he will be home on leave and able to tell his former cadet Rose Croxon 828-9169. mates what army life is like.

Members of the local cadet Four Streetsville Army sociadron as well as any other interested boys aged 13 Cadets enter the new year with new ranks. Announced to 18 will be picked up by in Streetsville's by Commanding Officer Don truck Pelz at their last parade Central Plaza at 6:30 p.m. was the promotion of four for transportation to Fort members of the 47th York Armories for the parade. Parades are held (Streetsville) Squadron, No. 1888 Second Field Engineers twice weekly on Wednesdays Regiment, Army Cadets and Fridays thereafter and any boys interested in Corps. The local squadron is now in the charge of Sgt joining the local squadron are urged to do so now. Hugh Hunter who was promoted from corporal, SQUARE DANCING while Corp. Rod Graham Arrowhead Squares held moves up from lancetheir Christmas party at corporal to assist him as was Meadowvale school with new Corp. Barry Armstrong. both students and advanced Up from the rank of cadet to club-level members swelling lance-corporal is Dave the ranks to at least nine full Wilson, of Meadowvale. squares for the enjoyable BINGO evening. This year the club is not holding a New Year's Army Cadets The Christmas party was held Dec. 15 in the form of a Eve dance, but its next regular club dance 'bingo" turkey shoot at Fort planned for Jan. 5 at

York Armories. About 15 Meadowvale Hall members of the local STOPLITE CHAPTER squadron attended and Corp. Vice-president Connie Rod Graham won a turkey. Roberts chaired the final Other turkey winners were Sgt. Lariviere and Cadets 1972 meeting of Stoplite Chapter, Canadian Calorie Holland, Stott and Bruce Counters, Tuesday, Dec. 19. The club's first meeting of Little. The first New Year parade 1973 was held Tuesday, Jan. is scheduled for Friday, Jan. 2 when double penalties were 12, at Fort York Armories charged for any weight gains when it is hoped a former the holiday season. Streetsville Gadet, Jim Rowe ROTARY of Meadowvale, may be Rev. David Adams gave a present to address the ranks. Christmas message to Jim achieved the rank of Streetsville Rotarians when corporal as well as earning they held their weekly luncheon meeting at Trinity master cadet's star with the Streetsville squadron parish hall. The previous before going on to join the week the big Century Club Canadian permanent army winner of the year was ansix months ago. It is hoped nounced with director Art Hodsoll making the draw. As result Mrs. B. Walker, of Jocelyn Drive, in Streetsville received a $500 Christmas cheque.

The Rotarians sponsored a gala New Year's Eve party at Streetsville Community Hall this weekend and at $25 per couple including dancing, drinks and buffet, the event was a sell-out.

Rotary-Anns club held a oint Christmas party, for both themselves and their male counterparts in Rotary Dec. 16, also in the community hall. It was adjudged a success.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE Meadowvale Women's Institute met Dec. 14 at the home of Mrs. Keith Christie to hold its Christmas party postponed from Dec. 12 because of the bad weather that night. It was attended by five members of Mrs. Joe Milton's Four H Club and their mothers who joined in singing carols with the Institute ladies.

Evelyn Rea convened the evening, during which Mrs. Christie and Mrs. Keith Christie showed slides of the Holy Land and the former also demonstrated a new way of making Christmas decorations. There was an exchange of Christmas gifts and refreshments to conclude the gathering The next meeting will be held Jan. 9 at the home of Evelyn Rea, convener of citizenship and world affairs, when there will be slides on show and current events under discussion.

from audience during magic show at Malton Library (Times photo by Ray Saitz).

Park Royal

Gwen Lewis 822-8892

Well, by now you have all opened your gifts, eaten the turkey, and no doubt given a sigh of relief. And now you are looking forward events in the New Year. The news for this week covers a few events that some of your children have participated in over the last couple of weeks. First of all, we hear from 1st Sheridan Scout Troop which had 13 boys taking a John First Aid course Margaret Dadd, who instructed the boys over the last 12 weeks, was pleased to events.

Lakeview

The

Gwen Clark :277-9336

As 1972 drew to an end, it was not unusual to find oneself taking a trip down memory lane and reflecting on past

Lakeview has had many happy events as well as a few sad ones to meditate upon.

Early this year Rev. Gordon

Rumford led his father,

George Rumford of Toronto, to Christ. Rev. Rumford also

Lyndwood Hi-C Group raised charity. The Lakeview Park discussion night on air pollution with Bryan Kelly

Charles MacIntosh from the Ontario Hydro taking part.

Joyce Forth 822-2817

Can you think of a Christmas pôem written by a Canadian poet? Sounds easy until you have to find one. Well, some friends of Moire Jacobs decided that they would have poetry reading

Christmas poems of their own nationality. The group

Yugoslavia, Germany, Russia, the British Isles, India, Lebanon and Canada.

The ladies read the poems in their native tongue and Canadian read A Canadian

Christmas Carol by John de

Beta Sigma Phi held their mixed Christmas party recently at the home of Mary

Jane Marshall, Bunsden

Drive, Port Credit. The

followed by a hot buffet prepared by the members.

During the evening there was a cookie exchange and vening began with wine from Wa. Germany

English. The one lone husbands.

Wales.

then translated them into the members and their

Delta Kappa chapter of have a mixed Christmas

The sad passing of our unique privilege.

Erindale

ciated at his father's community

of baptismal service, which is a at Central for 22 years. The

$1,200 to a starvathon for Plaza, Carol Robichaud. charity. The Lakeview Park The Portuguese com-

Public School's Parent munity celebrated the Feast Association held a lively of Senhor de Pedra in honour from Pollution Probe and minister and the Lakeview

Mayor Robert Speck. A Park Secondary School held fashion show at the Lynd- its official opening and husbands

Lorraine

Members of the Lakeview Park Arena

boys passed with flying colours: Calvin Fosberry Alan Lamb, Mike Schneider, Blair Munn, David Beynon, Kenneth Greaves, John Harress, David Colins, Greg Beynon, George Schneider, Smoke, Murray Kendrick and Craig Carey. GUIDES The 139th Mississauga report that the following

Guide Company held a Christmas concert for members' families. The evening started off with the enrolment of 13 girls: Tracy Piette, Cheryl Henry, Linda Virgin, Dorothy Pando, Denise Ward, Lisa Algar, Lynda Cross, Kathy Fildes, Janice Lisney, Joanne wood United Church Hall.

Senior citizens were guests of the Oshawa Seniors at a bowling tournament. Eighty students of Lakeview Beach

Public School won Canada

Physical Fitness Awards

medals. The Lakeview

Library had expanded its many and varied interests this year. A bicycle rodeo was held at St. Dominic's

Lakeview Central Public

School was renamed the Neil

C. Matheson Junior Public

School in honour of its principal Neil Matheson who retired after being principal official opening of Cawthra crowning of Miss Dixie of Senhor de Pedra in honour of their patron saint. The Lakeview United Church

Alliance Tabernacle pastor retired and new ministers were welcomed. Cawthra like the president's husband, gave out secret sister gifts

Xi Beta Chi chapter began their mixed Christmas party at a sherry party held at Homelands and then moved on to the Country Squire for a music was supplied by Bill

Martin and Santa and his elves, aptly portrayed by Ken Charles and Bob Good added much to the hilarity of the evening as they gave out gifts and words of wisdom to Because of too many other commitments, members of

Eta Mu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, were unable to party and so instead had one for members only at

Rosemary Devjeh's home or

Delkus Crescent, Following a pot luck dinner and gift exchange they made plans for their next program on Poise and Personality and also for a delayed mixed party to be held Jan. 6. banquet and dance.

gag gifts for the

Good's

and the Church parking lot.

Bakers badge went to Sharon Robertson, Ingrid Hekkenberg, Jackie

Parkin, Francis Daries,

Susan Algar and Debra

The challenge badge was

and Hekkenberg along with their patrol leader stripes and lanyards. Yellow cross went

Tait, Patsy Goudet and Mary Louise Walters; fire brigade to Sharon Robertson, Mary

Louise Walters, Heather

Riddock, Heather Scott,

and

Goudet, Deborah

to Debbie Nuzum;

Dymond, Susan Weller,

Eleanor

Ingrid

Kim

Jackie

leader

Westerback

Stubbley

Patsy

Howell

Hekkenberg.

presented to

Gordon Graydon held its graduation exercises. During the year this column has covered numerous club activities. showers, weddings, births, and public interest articles. Through this column we have reached a number of people concerning reunions, that were planned, leaders that were needed for clubs and events that were going to happen If you know of any activity or event that is going to take place don't hesitate to let me know. All information is. appre SENIORS

The Lakeview citizens will hold their next meeting at St. Dominic's Church hall Jan. 9 at 8 p.m. LAKEVIEW BAPTIST

Lakeview Baptist Church held a Watch Night Service Dec. 31, at 10 p.m. LAKEVIEW ALLIANCE

Lakeview Alliance Tabernacle held a Watch Night service beginning at 9 p.m. New Year's Eve. The Forest Glen Congregation joined them for an evening of each race around the world music, singing and praise

Hekkenberg, Jean Tait

Susan Weller, Heather Riddock, Deborah Howell

and Mary Louise Walters

pet keeper to Debbie Howell; swimmer to Susan Weller; musician to Heather Rid-dock. Wendy Beynon received her third stripe to become junior company included skits, a piano solo, dance rendition, and the choir sang carols. A candle lighting ceremony was presented to illustrate the guide law A Guide is a friend to all and a sister to every Guide. Different coloured candles were lit to represent

The evening's program

PUPPETS A puppet show for children was presented by Irene Mecham at the Lakeview Library Thursday, Dec. 28 at 10:30 a.m.

LAKEVIEW-BAPTIST

Lakeview Baptist Sunday school held its Christmas concert recently. Much to the delight of the audience Mrs. Leo Osborne played a number of Christmas songs on her xylophone. (Esther is long time resident Lakeview and has taught Sunday school at Lakeview Students of Nathan Miller. including the Boyle family Mrs. Boyle, Cindy, Laurie and Kim, and Laura and Lynn Handel played a number of piano selections as did Linda Pollock.

Laura Reynolds, Linda Rabey (from Gaspe) Mae Marskell (Wife Vic Marskell) pastor presented a number of impressive accordion selections of Christmas songs.

finally Santa, looking much ERINDALE UNITED

> The messengers of Erindale United Church held Christmas party and interesed program for parents and friend Dec. 19 in Room 13 of the church. ENTERTAINING > Linda Ginty, who used to be your Erindale reporter, and her husband Bob, entertained 16 guests at their lovely home on Belfast Crescent. Both are busy people and parents of four beautiful children. Linda is now working as secretary to the principal at Gordon Graydon Secondary School and Bob is a data processing manager for Atlas Alloys. describe household as hectic, hurried but very happy.

GUIDES At the Ellengale Public School meeting of the 61st Guide Co. the following guides received badges: Jaqui Buchanan, laundress badge; Beverley Elliott, cooks badge; Debbie Colan, child care badge.

Brownies of the 64th Pack have been working with a compass and they must be able to find north and know eight points. They are learning the alphabet semaphore and are able to send and receive simple words.

The golden hand was received by Andrea Deganis, Simone Gunner and Carolyn Sparling. Kelly Saunders got her golden bar First year service stars went to Debbie Curtis, Lynn Ranft and Kelly Saunders. Debbie Barker received her packie badge. Collector badges were awarded to Mandy Barker. Sharon Hospoder, Kelly Saunders and Pearl Zom-bory. Craft badges went to Andrea Deganis, Marlene Deganis, Simone Gunner, Kathy Hurlburt and Kelly Saunders, Mandy Barker received her swimmer and tovmaker badges. An armlet of orange braid will be worn on the left arm of Brenda Stan, the seconder of the Leprechaun Six. The 64th Brownies were pleased to welcome Corinne Hodge

After all the badges had been pinned, the Brownies spent the remainder of their meeting making Christmas crafts.

Cooksville

Geri Mousley 279-3528

The South Peel Camera Club recently held its annual auction night, well-attended by members and guests. Chief auctioneer was Paul Lover, assisted by Clare Brocklebank, Dennis Crowe and Don Tapping, while Dave Purchase and Dennis Radage manned the "treasurer's table.

Ten per cent of the auction proceeds went to the club. certificates to local camera stores were made, and Lilv Krout was given a vote of The club's next meeting will take place Jan. 4, 8 p.m. in the Texaco room of the Port Credit Library, when local photographer Robert Patchett will present My Approach to Photography. Members are also reminded to turn in prints and slides for the second club competition at this meeting.

An invitation was received from the Etobicoke Camera Club to attend their auction Jan. 8, 8 p.m. at the auditorium of the Christian Education Centre, Humber Valley United Church, Anglsy Blvd.

O.E.S.

The Christmas meeting of Golden Triangle chapter 291, Order of the Eastern Star was recently held in the Orange Hall, Agnes St., with worthy matron Jean Curdie and worthy patron Douglas Knox presiding, Mrs. Curdie graciously welcomed 13 past matrons and six past matrons of Golden Triangle chapter.

KIWANIS

Seventy-five per cent of all mail is posted between 5 and p.m. each day, creating ust one of the many just one of problems confronting the Post Office. This and other information was recently given to Kiwanis Club Dixie (Mississauga) members by guest Jack Fitzpatrick, district supervisor of the Canada Post Office

U

Referring to the new Alpho Numeric Zone Coding system, Fitzpatrick said it Five lucky draws for gift employs a sensing unit which will pick up the code from the bottom line of an envelope, if it is printed in thanks for her very at-tractive Christmas table. block letters and nothing appears below it. Use of these codes will commence next year.

In Kiwanis business, a vote of thanks was extended to Sandy Reid, Fred Halliday, Al Macaulay and Jim Perry for their work in organizing the Lakeshore Psychiatric Hospital Christmas party, and in particular, to Brian Boulding, who obtained chocolates for the affair as well as 500 additional boxes for Queen Elizabeth Hospital and 250 boxes for Applewood United Church. The club donated corsages boutonnieres to Lakeview senior citizens for their Christmas party

CUBS

St. John's 2nd Dixie 'B' pack cubs, with Akela Rem Jansen and Baloo Bill Van Liefland, recently spent two evenings carolling in the local area and at the Chelsey Park Nursing Home, Hurontario St. Donations received will be given to the Society for Crippled Children in Mississauga.

Malton

Cathy Groves 677-3721

The ladies auxiliary of the Malton Minor Lacrosse Association held a successful bake sale recently at the community hall. Many thanks go out to Weston Oshawa Bakeries, Oshawa Wholesale, St. Lawrence Sugar, Silverwoods Dairy, J.S. Enterprises, and Cal-Dale Florists for their generous donations. The auxiliary is grateful to all the mothers who worked so hard to make this sale profitable. A total of $155.25 was raised Draw winners are as follows: Mrs. A. Botnik and Mrs. A. Mitchell, floral arrangements; Mrs. H. DeForest, brown vase; Mrs. F. Lucas, green vase; Mrs. R. Dimmick, the four pound Christmas cake; Mrs. J. Price and Mrs. K. Yamada, homemade candles; and Mrs. Corbett, the variety package. liked during MALTON PRESBYTERIAN SENIORS The Malton Presbyterian on hand for the little ones' ovment Instead of the regular service, Malton Presbyterian held a White Gift service Dec. 17. As part presented a Christmas play. recently

MARVIN HEIGHTS

The Duch St. Nicholas made several appearances at Marvin Heights Public School before Christmas accompanied b legendary Black Michael Turner played a convincing St. Nicholas and naughty Black Peter was Rita VanDeemter.

WESTWOOD SECONDARY An interesting day took place at Westwood Secondary School when an amateur radio station was set up as part of the day's educational program. geography and technical students took part in sending calls to parts of the United States as well as Canada.

LANCASTER SENIOR For the past four weeks, an elective program has been conducted at Lancaster Senior Public School with the assistance of Humber College, the Mississauga Police Department and the school's own staff. The students were allowed to choose the program they liked during this time.

The Malton Seniors did not Church held a Christmas meet before Christmas. The party at St. Hugh of Lincoln next meeting will be held Anglican Church. Santa was Jan. 12 at the Malton Community Hall at 8 p.m. SWIMMING AND SKATING

The Association for Children with Learning Disabilities held its comof the service, all levels of bination swimming and Sunday school children skating classes party

Port Credit

Mary Burnie 278-2683

Mrs. Gordon Hall of Oshawa, entertained at her home recently at a family party in honour of her granddaughter Lynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Wilson, Forest Ave., who is marrying Brian Smith, of Islington, this month. Susan Tait, Mississauga, gave miscellaneous lunch luncheon shower for the bride with the guests, friends of the bride and her mother. The groom's aunts, Bee Hoar and Vi Ramsey, of Islington, had a family shower.

Neighbours and former neighbours of the Wilsons present at a miscellaneous shower given by Florence Collier and Loretta Muller, of Forest

Mrs. John Anderson, West Mall, had a bathroom shower for Lynn with friends attending from Port Credit, Mississauga and Islington. Mrs. Wilson also entertained at a trousseau tea in honour of her daughter Dec. 30. Doreen, sister of the groom, and Bill Mac William are travelling from Van couver to attend the wedding in St. Andrew's Presbyteria Church, Port Credit, Jan. 6. SENIORS

The Young-in-Hearts Senior Club held its final meeting of the year in the Senior Room of the Port Credit Arena. A game of cards was followed by the singing of Christmas carols with Maud Leitch at the piano. Marie Yateman and her helpers served refreshments in keeping with the season. The joining of hands for the singing of Auld Lang Syne brought a very suc cessful year to a close. Members were pleased to hear that secretarytreasurer, Lil Moffat home from hospital and convalescing in her apartment in the Highlander. ROTARY The Rotary Club of Port Credit held its annual Christmas party recently. Invited guests, including speaker Wilf Wood, were members. Wood gave a humourous address. UNITARIAN

Unitarian Congregation of South Peel a Christmas Eve held celebration at the church. A family pet luck supper was enjoyed by all, followed by a Christmas program. Gifts were brought for the Mitten

FIRST UNITED The children taking part in the tableau at a service at First United Church, Lakeshore Rd. W. were eight year-olds from the primary department. The girls were led by Karen Tinsley and Mrs. Joblin and the boys by John VanRunt.