Ottawa, Mar. 9, 1911.

Dear Mr. Fisher,-

I was delighted to read in the press of yesterday the announcement that you have become Secretary of the Interior of Mr. Taft's administration.

In the hope that you may recall our meeting when you visited Ottawa some years ago, I would like to say that the news of your appointment has given very great satisfaction to those of us here who were fortunate enough to meet you and hear you at the time of your Canadian visit.

With heartiest wishes,

Believe me,

Yours very sincerely,

(Sgd.) W. L. MACKENZIE KING.

The Honourable Walter L. Fisher,
Secretary of State for the Interior,
