

" This is the only case that I know of that he can have reference to and you have the facts in connection therewith. I do not know of any other case where the marriage laws have been very badly observed among the Indians under my supervision. "

The Department is disposed to think that in view of the foregoing your Lordship will agree that if any further action is expected on its part such can only be taken after the Rev. Mr. Prewer shall have furnished the specific and detailed information necessary as a basis for the same.

I have the honour to be,

Right Reverend Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Tom Lead
Secretary.
