

- 2 -

replied on May 3, last, expressing satisfaction with this arrangement.

This will explain to you how the question of making a change arose. As the matter now stands, however, it would not appear that such a change is necessary, and in view of your remarks, we shall be disposed to continue the present arrangement, at least pending further developments.

Yours truly,

Deputy Superintendent General.

Indian Affairs. Letterbook,
16 June 1919 - 2 July 1919, (R.G. 10, Volume 5768)

Poor.
Copy.

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA