

C246394

-5-

(7) After the establishment of the German command, in the territory occupied by Germany, the numbers attending church considerably increased. Also the Sunday Services, christenings, ~~and funerals~~ ~~and services~~ were attended by an ever-increasing proportion of the population.

(8) The position of the Greek Orthodox believers is noticeably improved when compared with that in the former Polish state. This is reported with gratification by the Archbishop of Nurnberg, Graf Chasifski who was seriously worried about the persecution of his church in former Poland.

Record No. 5 C.

In Westphalia a new theatre will be opened which is to be used solely for the entertainment of the Army.

The Jugo-Slavian Minister of Commerce, Andrag has arrived with his wife to be the guest of the German Minister of Internal Economy, Funk, at Berlin. --- He will spend a few days in Berlin.

The French Censorship makes utterances of a former Minister the object of its attention. An article by one of the Officers in the Ministry of Commerce has been essentially compiled by the former Colonial Minister, Jacques Stern. However, one can read between the lines of the article, that the former Colonial Minister regards the outlook for the French exports with extreme pessimism. Jacques Stern admits, with no hesitation, that in this sphere, as in so many others, the foreign trade of England and her French Allies is substantially disappearing.

The increased agricultural production in France has seriously disturbed the members of the Daladier Cabinet because of the shortage of agricultural labourers, due to the numbers enlisted for fighting. With respect to the French Agricultural situation, it was confirmed, after careful examination, that in 24 departments of the country, 30 will be placed in the fields.

Germany fights to wipe out an injustice, the others fight for its continuance.

-50-