

Development	Page
The Waverley deposit	290
Molybdenum	291
Manganese	291
Mineral paint	292
Iron	293
Antimony	294
West Gore	295
Location	295
Geology	295
Character of the deposit	295
Mining, milling, and metallurgy	296
History and general development	297
Production	299
Graphite	299
Peat	299
Infusorial earth	300
Fireclay	300
Limestone	302
Granite	302
Slate	303
Statistics	304
Appendix I: List of glacial striae	307
Bibliography	311
Index	321
List of Geological Survey Publications of Economic Interest.

ILLUSTRATIONS.

Photographs.

PLATE		PAGE.
I.	Waverley gold district, looking west from Laidlaw hill	FRONTISPICE.
"	II. Valley of St. Mary river	24
"	III. Lake Thomas, Waverley	32
"	IV. Typical gold miner's house	42
"	V. Miemac Indians	44
"	VI. Apex of anticline showing bedding and cleavage in slate, and interbedded and cross veins, Cunards cove, The Orens	56
"	VII. Quartzite showing cleavage perpendicular to the bedding. Ecum Secum	66
"	VIII. Corrugated vein showing deviation of the cleavage in the slate approaching the corrugations. Moose river	66
"	IX. Open-cut showing belt of quartz veins. Worked by the C. P. F. Gold Mining Co., Mount Uniacke	66