

"Your gift of tobacco and cigarettes reached us in fine condition. The members of the Company were highly delighted for we have been somewhat short of tobacco—by tobacco I mean good tobacco—for some little time. The issue is all right but a little of it goes a long way. You will see that your gift was most opportune, and the men wish me to convey to you their sincere thanks."

A. LEAVITT,
Major,

"Many thanks for your kind gift of cigarettes, which were distributed among the Company this evening. There is nothing more appreciated when here than a good Canadian smoke, and it is doubly appreciated when we know that the people at home are looking after us in this matter."

A. W. BAIRD,
Lieutenant,
"D" Company, 116th Btn.

"As Sergt. W. L. Brown is not at present with us I have taken it upon myself to see that the cigarettes and tobacco so kindly sent by his friends have been distributed amongst the men of his old platoon."
