

10. I paraded the orderly corporals and men at..... o'clock and marched them to the cook house.

11. I visited the non-commissioned officers on gate duty at.....o'clock and found the names of defaulters on the gate board.

12. I shewed the orders to staff officers.

13 I saw lights out and dampers closed at the proper hour.

(Signed)Sergeant.

To the Sergeant-Major }
Battalion. }

MEN FOR DUTY, THE ORDER IN WHICH TO BE WARNED.

1. Guard.
2. Escort or command parties.
3. Pickets.
4. Company Cook.
5. Regimental fatigues detailed from orderly room.
6. Company fatigues, such as stairs and passage orderly, ration carrier, &c.
7. Orderly men of rooms or tents.
8. The Sergeant-Major in detailing fatigue parties will name those first which are liable to be first wanted. Thus, a party required at 7 a. m. will be given out before one wanted at or not required till 9 a. m.