

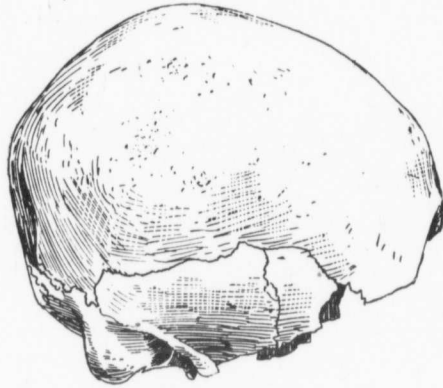

Fig. 99. No. 18.

Cranioscopy.Craniometry.

		Millimetres.
Face entirely gone, with glabella and superciliary arches.	1
Age, 70	2	155
Sex, male	3	147
Sutures, almost indistinguishable, except lower part of lambdoid and squamous	4	95
	5	103
	6	105.5
Pterion, H.	7
Inion, 1, flattened triangular in centre, somewhat elevated at the sides.	8
	9
Lateral parietes, very protuberant from parietal eminences downwards.	10
	11
Frontal eminences, very small	12	310
Forehead, rounded	13	248
Probola, slightly protuberant.	14	275
Sub-iniac curve, extends below condyles.	15	523
Mastoid processes, short, but broad	16
Occipital bone, superior curved line strongly marked. On each side of external occipital crest is a small foramen. At outer extremity of inferior curved line on left side is a large rounded prominence. This is also present on right, but is much smaller.	17
	18
	19
	20
	21	61.2
	22	92.2
	23

See page 60 for Key to Measurements.