

1856.

Hamilton Directory.

W. J. A. SHEPARD, PUBLISHER.

WETENHALL & HENRY,

IMPORTERS OF

Staple & Fancy Dry Goods,

Sign of the Golden Lion, - - - - - King Street.

RESPECTFULLY announce to the Public that they have always on hand the Largest, Cheapest, and most Complete Assortment of GENERAL DRY Goods to be found in Hamilton - They would call the attention of all trading purchasers to their

Gentlemen's Washing Deparm't,

which will be found to contain every article requisite to a GENTLEMAN'S wardrobe. - Their Stock of

Ready-made Clothing

is LARGER, MORE VARIETIED, AND BETTER than any other

STOCK OF CARPETS

and General House-Furnishing Materials will be found complete in the latest Styles and fabrics - Their

New Millinery, Mantle and Cloak Rooms,

which are supplied direct from the British, American, and Foreign Markets with all the Novelty and Fashion of the season, are now open, and will be glad to repay the trouble of an inspection.

Country Merchants supplied at a very small Advance on Cost.

Remember the Store, sign of the GOLDEN LION, King Street, nearly opposite the Gore Bank.

WETENHALL & HENRY