IRELAND'S STRUGGLE.

The Gweedore prisoners' Fair Triai Fund has already reached the handsome sum of $3500, though only started a few weeks ago. It has been definitely ad-mitted by Secretary Balfour that the ab-surd charge of complicity in the murder of Inspector Martin, on which it was pro-posed to try Father McFadden, has been dropped. He will, however, be tried on the charge of conspiracy, this charge being founded on the humane and given by The scheme of Lord Masserene to evict his Catholic tenants and to substitute Pro-testants from the North in their stead has proved such a failure that he is now willing to come to terms with the tenantry, but the tenants refuse to come to an arrangement unless those who have been evicted be restored to their holdings. Lord Hartington's constituents at a public meeting passed resolutions to the effect that he has broken faith with them, and that he should therefore resign his seat for Rossendale. His Lordship founded on the humane ald given by him to the starving and homeless svicted tenants. DIOCESE OF PETERBOROUGH. BISHOP O'CONNOR VISITS LINDSAY.

From the Post, June 21.

On Saturday morning last the Right Rev. Dr. O'Connor, the newly installed Bishop of Peterborough, paid his first episcopal visit to Lindsay for the purpose of administering the sacrament of confirmation and first communion. His Lord. ship arrived on the 9 a. m. train, being met at the station by Vicar-General Laurent and a delegation of parishioners, and was escorted to the presbytery. The whole alternoon was spent at the church in compiler the billow in examining the children as to their fitness and preparation for the reception of the sacrament, and when his very thorough examination was concluded His Lordship complimented Vicar General Laurent, Father Bretherton and others who assisted in preparing the children. On Sunday morning at 8 o'clock Mass His Lordship administered the sacra-ments of communion and confirmation to one hundred and seventy five boys and girls in the presence of a very large con-gregation, among whom were many Protestant friends. The little girls were attired in white with wreaths and veils, and made a very pretty sight. After the ceremony Bishop O'Connor addressed to the children a few brief words of advice. At High Mass there was again a very large congregation present. His Lordship delivered an eloquent sermon upon the gospel of the day, which was listened to with deep and earnest attention. He is a very pleasing speaker, his tones though not loud being clear and penetrating. After the celebration of Mass the following address on benslf of the parishioners was read by Dr. Lynch

To the Right Rev. Richard Alphonsus O.Con

nor, Bishop of Peterborough : MAY IT PLEASE YOUR LORDSHIP-We, he Catholics of St. Mary's congregation, Lindsay and Ops, approach your Lordship with the profoundest respect and vener-ation due to the sacred office of the episcopate to which you have been called, and to the fulfilment of the arduous and to the fulfilment of the arduous duties to which your well known high personal and priestly character give such ample promise.

Recognizing, as we do, the Divine origin and perpetuity of the Church, we find it an easy duty to hear and obey those prelates and pastors whom the Holy Ghost sends to rule over us in spiritual matters, and we trust your ordship will always find us docile and bedient children of the Church.

Permit us, besides congratulating you on the auspicious event of your elevation to the See of Peterborough, to assure you of the eladress with elicity to the second the little ones, especially the girls, who part, he adds: were all dressed in white with long flow ing veils and floral wreaths, with their of your coming and of the warm welcome of your coming and of the warm welcome with which we now receive you. There is no necessity for that organization to make any protests or spologies in a matter with which it is in no way connected. There is not any class in the country that is louder in its condemnation of the Cronin murder than the men who belong to the Irish National League of America; and there is not a single unprejudiced individual in the whole land who does not recognize that the league is entirely innocent of all complicity in that crime, and that does not admit there is no obligation resting on it to protest its innocence or to prove it. President Fitzgerald puts the whole case pointedly when, after denying the necessity of any action on the league's GENTLEMEN AND BROTHERS-A sad calamity has befallen the members of St. Columba's Branch, No. 128 E B A, of Pennsylvania, located in Johnstown. The dreadful disaster that befell that city and vicinity, on May 314t, is too well known to need repeating ; the sudden death of 10 000 people and the homeless condition of 20 000 more tell the story.

Our brethren of No. 128, through the intervention of Divine Providence, were all saved, though, with but very few ex. ceptions, each one lost one or more memers of their respective families-several using wife and children. THE CATHOUS RECORD

"A foul crime has been committed. The laws of the country have been outraged, and it is the duty of the officers of the law to find out and punish the criminals." The Irish National League of America has really nothing whatever to do with the Cro Case. Buffalo Catholic Union.

The Rev. Lord Archibald Douglas, so well known in London as the fathe well known in London as the latter and protector of poor boys, is just now going through the byways and highways of Scotland preaching the truths of Catho-lic belief. He has a large painted cara-Scottanu prostang a large painted cara-lic belief. He has a large painted cara-van in which he sleeps at night and in which he daily offers the Holy Sacrifics which he daily offers the land of his fathers. For Scottish ears the Douglas name hath a music and a romance all its own; and we are not surprised to learn that the Apostolic preaching of this humble yet high born priest is exercising wonderful influence upon the Caledonian heart, Boston Pilot The Lord Provest of Edinburgh has declared that he will not confer the free-dom of the of the city, as voted by the Municipal Council, on Mr. Parnell when the Irish leader visits the place in July next. Somebody else will have to offic. ate, and perhaps the churlish Lord Pro vost, whoever he is, will not be missed. The Rev. Makepiece Trueworthy, D. D., of Washington, D. C., adds a hand some new feature to the alleged "Jesuit some new relative to the angeou desnit binds him to do all in his power to increase the temporal dominions of the ope-even to forsake for a time his Church and join another, that he may win from it to the Pope" Does Dr. Truewortay intend this as a warning to the credulous Pro testant population against "converted priests" and "escaped nuns" ? A number of clergymen of the Angli can Church associated themselves, some years ago, under the direction of the Rev. Mr. Townsend, into the Oxford Mission, for the conversion of the natives of Northern India. They took the vows as they are taken by Catholic religious communities, and gave them-selves up without reserve to hard and
