EVERYTHING INSURED

—EXCEPT HIS LIFE!

Of how many a man can this be said? He insures his house, his machinery, and his grain against fire—his growing crops against hail—but leaves his life uninsured.

The house may be burned—and can be re-built. The crops may be lost and he can begin over again—but death makes a permanent end to his power to care for those dependent upon him.

When such attractive and inexpensive Life Insurance as that offered under the Great-West Life Policies is available there can be no excuse for a man remaining uninsured. Premium rates are low; the conditions of the Great-West policies are liberal and clearly expressed, and the profit returns to Policy-holders are remarkably high. The company invites correspondence from those who wish for information on Life Insurance. A special Department is conducted for that purpose, and will on receipt of Applicant's name, address and age give detailed descriptions and personal rates on suitable Policies.
