An Indian's View

Not long ago there was a public meet ing at Stettler, Albertu, and Chief Sam son of the Hebbenta Indian reserve, took secution to tell his white hearers that the coming of the white man had really been a blessing to the Indian, and since his advent a better day had dawned, and now the Indian was beginning to appreciate the fact that the white to be merely a hunting ground, but they have now become part of the world's Chief Samson voices the views of his father, who a generation ago told his people the same thing,' and be on the Battle River Mission did much to load his people toward the new and better day. It has taken some time form the ladian to a farmer, but this year the Indians of the province have about 70,000 acres in crop: Alberta 25,000; Sachatchewan 30,000 and Manitobs 15,000. This is surely encouraging and it will mean much for the future progress of our brother in red.

He Got the Job

Anxious to travel for a big English firm in the ham line, an Irishman ob-tained an interview with the proprietor "What experience have you had," the

Under the Wheat Board flour could be purchased for $14.83 a barrel, but now it can be bought for $18. It is not likely that the price will go lower but it may go higher. If the millers cannot manufacture flour for export the output will be curtailed and the relatively small quantity required for domestic market will be increased. Oats instead of bringing 4 and 41 cents as they did last year when the crop was short, are now bringing 2 and 21 cents a pound. With more coarse grains in the hands of the farmer the price of bran and shorts is

If You Have High Blood Pressure You Must Be Careful

When the Blood Pressure is much above normal there is always the danger of rupture of a blood vessel, most frequently in the Brain and producing a stroke, or in the Kid-neys, producing Bright's Disease. One should guard against over-exer-tion or excitement and take HACKING'S

This Settles It

Forest Pree Press: The city papers are telling their readers about the great riches the farmers are gathering in this year. But they forget to say that these returns have been made possible only by the toil, not only of the farmer himself. but by the toil of his wife and his boys and girls, all of whom are doing form "You say you were held up by a foot- labor. Dog Killed by Wildcat

A large collie dog belonging to Mr. oseph Cheaney, southwest of Walkeron, was found lying torn to pieces in he barnyard on Wednesday morning. As a wild cat has been terrorizing that neighborhood for some time, and was seen by Chesney near his farm a few weeks previous, when a number of local nimrods went out, but failed to bag the pussy, it is believed to have been prowling around for Chesney's fowl when the d g attacked it, and a battle ensued in which the canine met a horrible death. As the collie was a stout scrapper and could give any of his species a lively argument at any time, the prowess of the feline in being able to scatter him in this manner shows the kind of menace that neighborhood has on its hands.

Almost A Lynching.

What might have been a lynching occurred at Thorold recently. A man name! David McNeil had been committed to stand trial for the mu der of a five-year-old girl. About ten o'clock a huge mob assembled and began to storm the town hall with bricks and stones The prisoner, McNeil, and the police officers who were guarding him, refused to come out, and, finally, the mob set fire to the hall. Then McNeil and the police were compelled to face the excited crowd outside. McNeil was seized, after being badly injured with bricks and sticks. A noose was arranged from a nearby pole, and the crowd was about to lynch the man, when he asked leave to m k: a statement. This was granted him, and, by the time he got through, the crowd decided to hand the man back to the police, and McNeil is now in their custody. Whether he is or is not guilty, it is certain that lynch law is not the best way of settling the matter Canada's good name demands that every man have fair trial, and it is to be regretted that any Canadian city should e me so near to a resort to lynehing a man, againstawhom no charge has ye

Walkerton's Rate, 41 mills

Walkerton's tax rate was struck by he town council at 41 mills, or an in crease of 4 mills over last year. Lise in teachers' salaries is entirely responsible for the boost in taxes. fact the extra cost to run the High sch o' is putting three more mills on he t xes, while an additional 21 mills is equired for public school purposes Had it not been for the jump in school rates Walkerton would have had a 353 mill rate this year. Rates in other to was have been similarly boosted by their school requirements this year, as the minimum salary of $900 which has been established by the School Teachers Union has jumped the salaries of teach ers from $550 and $600 to the $900 mark. It is generally conceded that the raise to the teachers was justified, for as a class they were the poorest paid of the professions.—Herald & Times.

Symptoms

I read no able doctor's books, peruse no almanacs, which tell of frightful ilis, gadzooks, and pain in human backs. The more you read about disease the sicker you will feel, and you'll have mumps and housemaids knees, and fan tods in the heel. I used to read the almanac that boosted Hooper's pills, kept it hanging in my shack hard by the window sills. And when I should have studied hymns and tracts, and things like those, I read of spavins on the limbs, and bunions on the toes. And ery time I read a line it filled me with despair; I'd found I'd anthrax in my spine and dandruff in my hair. Then from mp savings bank I drew some nice ten dollar bills, and to the drug store promptly flew and called for Hooper' pills. Oh, Hooper in a palace dwell, and Hooper's yacht was fine, and Hooper's butler used to pelt downstairs fetch the wine; and Hooper lived on easy street, and Hooper rode to hounds while I on weary, drawing feet to drug stores made my rounds. And then one morn I had a ray of reason in my dome, and I got up and threw away the dope that filled my home. I told myself that I was well, and felt as slick as wax; glad day! when I no longer fell for Hooper's almanacs.-Walt Mason.

Which Was Right

A tramp was once given a mince pie by the young wife of a farmer. Next day the tramp appeared at the farmhouse again and said, "Would you be kind enough, ma'am, to give me the recipe for that there mince pie what I had here yesterday?"

"Well, the idea!" exclaimed the farmer's wife. "Land sakes, man, what do you want that recipe for?"

"To settle a bet," replied the tramp. 'My partner says you use three cups of Portland cement to one of molasses, but I claim it's only two and a half."

SAVED A LIFE

Elmira; Ont .:- "I have a very kind feeling for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for it once saved my mother's life. When going through middle age her health failed very fast; she suffered with pain in her head and backache, in fact, she had pains and aches all through her body. She lost weight, aches all through her body. She lost weight, was very nervous, would become disay and at times faint and fall wherever she chanced to be. This necessitated our watching her all the time, we dared not leave her alone. She was as miserable as one could be and live. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was recommended to her. She took six bottles and was completely restored to good heatth."—MRS. B. E. UPTEE-GROVE, Box 223.

Last year the people of Canada bought fourteen million dollars worth of furniture, or about $2 per head, and about $4 per head of automobile accessories. No wonder the auto business has the furniture business beaten to a standstill as a paying investment. Pleasure riding comes ahead of home comforts.
