"BOXING'S GREATEST SHOWMAN," HERE'S DOPE ON TEX RICKARD
NEW YORK, June 21.—"Boxing's greatest showman." That is the title which George Lewis ("Tex") Rickard, promoter of the coming Dempsey-Carpentier bout, has earned in the staging of several bouts drawing the largest gate receipts in the history of the sport.
Thrown in contact with the boxing game by accident, Rickard, on account of whose career reads like fiction, accomplished nearly everything he set his mind on doing and has kept going along successfully, despite conditions that sometimes made the word "quit" seem attractive.
Rickard was born in Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 2, 1871. His father, a millwright, moved to the Panhandle of Texas when the embryo promoter was a small boy. At the age of 12 years, thrown on his own resources, with a widowed mother, two brothers and three sisters to support, "Tex" turned to the calling of cowpunching universal in Texas.
Then started the travels which have made this man a "citizen of the world." He met success in the cattle business but in 1894 "hit the trail" for the Klondike. Months of hardship brought fair returns but after a year or two in Dawson, Rickard again moved. This time, he drew up in Goldfield, Nev., at the

HOW PETERBORO ADVERTISES FAMOUS TRENT WATERWAY

Peterboro, June 21.—The great Trent Waterway is again open for traffic and there is every indication that the present summer will witness a wonderful increase in the number of tourists who will take a cruise through the beautiful lakes and rivers of the route over two hundred miles. Many of the tourists who decide to visit Georgian Bay from American points will go via the Trent waterway. For some weeks past this route has been extensively advertised in three magazines published in the States: "Motor Boat," "Power Boating" and "Motor Boating," so that this cruise is becoming widely spoken of. Here are a few of the facts set forth in the advertising, and calculated to surprise those contemplating the journey:
1. No lockage charges—good service.
2. No customs restricted.
3. Draft: 3 feet, Ontario to Peterborough; 6 feet, Peterborough to Washago.
4. From Washago to Georgian Bay for boats 33 feet length, 9 feet beam.
5. Locks to Lake Simcoe 33 feet wide; maximum length steamer or motor boat, 118 feet; maximum length wide barge, 114 feet.
6. Sunday locking at certain hours.
7. Buoyed practically entire route.
Going upstream keep red on right; keep Black or White on left.
8. Peterboro and Kirkfield hydraulic lift locks, 65 feet and 48 feet respectively.
9. Water and Hydro Electric development through entire route.
10. Excellent camping and fishing grounds.
11. Supplies of all kinds available on route.
12. Modern hotel and rooming accommodation at all cities, towns, villages and summer resorts.
13. From Lake Simcoe short radial run to Toronto.
14. From Orillia and Washago, short rail journey to Muskoka lakes.
This is the famous "Champlain's Historic Route" from Lake Huron to Lake Ontario.

NEWMARKET BOWLERS HAVE BIG TIME HERE

Twelve Newmarket bowlers are having a week's outing by motor and among the big incidents of their tour are games with various clubs in Eastern Ontario. Yesterday afternoon they played Picton, who only lost but one shot, and last night they were on the Belleville green.
The local bowlers won by thirty-three shots, the three rinks winning by eleven each. The visitors enjoyed the match which lasted until 11 o'clock.
The players were:
Belleville: J. A. Borbridge, G. Robertson, Rev. D. Ramsay, E. Doyle, Rev. A. S. Kerr, W. Bowditch, W. B. Riggs, G. A. Burns,
Skip 17
Newmarket: J. Deroche, J. R. Broughan, R. J. Wray, H. Marshall,
Skip 23
W. H. Gilbert, F. C. Luther,
T. J. Hurley, Dr. Rutledge,
A. P. Allen, E. Young,

After the games twelve local bowlers took the visitors in charge to the Perfect Cafe where under the chairmanship of Mr. W. B. Riggs they entertained the Newmarketers.
Speaking of the local green, one of the visitors said: "We never played on as fine a green nor did we ever see lights that could touch your system."
The visitors left today for Cobourg and other points.

"showmanship" of the man. Always his slogan has been "take a chance." He astounded the country with his guarantees for the Johnson-Jeffries battle at Reno by $100,000. Receipts for the Willard-Dempsey bout at Toledo, July 4, 1919, amounted to $450,000, a new high mark.
Bouts staged by him in Madison Square Garden during the six months previous to last March brought in more than $1,300,000. Approximately $1,000,000 will flow into the box office before Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier square off at Jersey City July 1, easily covering the tremendous outlay necessary to stage the bout. Rickard is one of the few who have coaxed substantial returns out of promotion in the boxing game.
"Take a chance" and "be square" are Rickard's watchwords which seem to summarize reasons for the success which has come to him in business as well as boxing. For boxing is only a sideline with him. Tex is a partner in huge cattle enterprises in South America. His herds roam over a range of more than 4, 000,000 acres. He is general manager of a firm backed by American financiers in a project which produces beef for American consumption.
But despite the "take a chance" motto, mere good luck has had little part in the success of this man who now sits in a suite of offices in Madison Square Garden and directs in the Jersey bout, July 2, a "million dollar proposition." Starting

THUMBNAIL SKETCHES OF PRIZE AND RING.

No 6.
Sometime after he defeated Jeffries, Jack Johnson was indicted on charges of violating the Mann Act but he evaded arrest and finally journeyed to Paris.
When exchequer shrivelled a bit, he accepted a challenge from Frank Moran, of Pittsburg, and they faced one another in France on June 27, 1914. The negro warrior scored a victory on points in 20 rounds.
Moran was game and stubbornly stood up to Johnson's assaults, which had not the steam of the champion's earlier attacks. Johnson possessed all of his old-time skill however.
There was not a single knock-down nor anything that smacked of a finishing blow. Johnson's superior skill and his incessant uppercutting kept Moran in subjection. Moran's attack lacked the power to dispose of his adversary.
The crowd was as cosmopolitan as Paris itself. There were barons and dukes at the ringside, and earls and duchesses, too. Sporting men of many nations, clad in the formal evening garb with which Europe honors its boxers, were part of the throng.
Johnson was proud of his victory, for it was the first time that a champion as old as he had ever defended his title and won. He was then 36 years old.
