

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES HELD

Brant Avenue Church Commemorates Its Founding, 46 Years Ago.

LARGE ATTENDANCE

Rev. W. L. Rutledge, Former Pastor of Church, Was Speaker.

"When at the outbreak of the present war, the fate of our country seemed at stake and in the deadliest peril from the over-running hordes of Prussia, there was in our hearts no doubt as to the ultimate issue of the struggle. Why? Because we knew well that under the rule of a just God as the God in heaven most undeniably is, those who forever sowed the wind must sometime reap the whirlwind; that those who for over forty years had held the sword of militarism over the head of Europe and of the world, must perish by the sword!"

The speaker was the Rev. W. L. Rutledge, former pastor of Brant avenue Methodist church, and the occasion his stirring address delivered there at the anniversary services held yesterday morning before a very large congregation. Taking as his text the words found in the 31st verse of the 10th chapter of Paul's epistle to the Hebrews, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God," the speaker, after delivering a few reminiscences of his term as pastor of the church, in the years 1870 to 1897, proceeded to deliver a most eloquent and impressive address upon the subject of the hands of God. For many, it was indeed a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God, yet because of the manner in which they lived, it was necessary that they should obtain at least occasional glimpses of the stern hands of God. Yet even worse it might indeed be to fall into the hands of men. David had prayed, "Let me now fall into the hands of God and not into the hands of men." Belgium, Serbia, Northern France and far distant Armenia had all suffered at the hands of men. Less fearful it would indeed be to fall into the hands of God, who is at least just. The hands of a living God. God was indeed living, as He ever revealed to man. His hands were not like the dead hands of tradition and olden custom, which still field the world tightly gripped from progress. His hands were strong, as they had ever held the world from going to destruction. Just hands they were, which had main-tained the balance between right and wrong evenly throughout all ages. Tender hands, as they rested upon the heads of the children and the eyes of the blind, and were extended to the unfortunate and the magdalenes. Lastly, His hands were redemptive; for us they had been nailed to the cross, and they were ever outstretched to draw us back from the paths of sin and evil. "Men never like pay-day when they receive the wages of iniquity," declared the speaker.

Special organ music was rendered at both morning and evening services, while Miss Estelle Carey, the noted soloist, delighted the congregation with a number of exquisite vocal selections, including the solos, "Show Me the Way," "O Thou Had Hastened," "Out of the Deep." The attendance at both services was the largest.

The announcement was made in the course of the morning by Dr. Britton, chairman of the finance board of the church, that the finances were in good condition. With the many demands now being made upon all, no effort was being made to clear away the small outstanding debt upon the church, but current expenses were being kept cleared up.

BULGARIA THINKS NOW OF PEACE

Subject Is Dismissed By Premier Radoslavoff.

Will Not Come of a Conference, But Will Be Signed On Battlefield.

Berlin, Nov. 12.—(New York Times Cable) — At recent confidential conferences with members of the government party the Bulgarian Premier, M. Radoslavoff, made some significant utterances regarding peace, according to the Sofia correspondent of The Vossische Zeitung. The Premier, in all the theatres of war as splendidly, M. Radoslavoff said the resurrection of the kingdom of Poland was to be regarded as a great step toward peace, and that Powers having proved thereby that they did not desire to retain occupied Russian territories. Moreover it would pave the way to future good relations with Russia and considerably lighten the peace negotiations.

M. Radoslavoff finally intimated that peace would not come as the result of a conference, but that it would probably be signed on the battlefield.

According to The Azezi's Sofia correspondent, M. Radoslavoff told various ministers and representatives yesterday in the course of a general survey of the military and political situations that Bulgaria's situation continued to be especially favorable, and that operations in all theatres of war were developing in such a way that a decisive turn for the better for the enemy was quite out of the question and that the Central Powers were certain of victory.

THE DOOR TO HEALTH

Is Through the Rich, Red Blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Actually Make.

The blood is responsible for the health of the body. If it is good, disease cannot exist. If it is bad, the door is shut against good health, disease is bound to appear in one form or another. One person may be seized with rheumatism or indigestion, another with anaemia, indigestion, heart palpitation, headaches or backaches, unstrung nerves or any of the many other forms of ailment that comes when the blood is weak and watery. There is just one certain, speedy cure—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They make new, rich, blood, and this good blood strengthens the whole system and brings good health and happiness. Thousands owe their present good health, some, life itself, to the pills. Miss Devina Lalbert, St. Jerome, Que., says:—"Last year I seemed gradually to grow weak and run down. I did not sleep well, had a poor appetite, and grew pale and generally languid. I consulted a doctor who told me I was anaemic, and gave me a tonic. This I took faithfully for some time, but it did not help me, and I appeared to be growing worse, and finally I was hardly able to go about the house and almost wholly incapacitated for work. While in this condition a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I got several boxes. It was not long after I began their use when I could see an improvement, which first manifested itself in an improved appetite and then in a general feeling of well-being. The improvement was rapid and I was not long in regaining perfect health. I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a real blessing for all weak girls."

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

NEWS OF NORFOLK

Electrician Seriously Injured By Receiving Heavy Shock.

OTHER ITEMS

Recruiting Is Commenced In Simcoe For 215th Battalion.

Simcoe, Nov. 13.—When the name F. B. McDonald was called three times in succession at the Brant Theatre, Brantford on Saturday afternoon, the audience knew not away from the fact that the latter's relief mate, Fred Wilkes, electrician in charge of the controller at a charge of 25,000 volts from the live wires in the plant and was at the moment in a very critical condition after a marvellous escape.

Wilkes had been on a step ladder engaged in putting a black dressing on the casings of the lost transformers and whether he lost his balance, or the vapour from the brush forced a conduction, at any rate there was a flash and Wilkes fell to the concrete floor insensible.

Freight agent Oscar Clark was present but did not see how it happened. He once called Dr. Richardson and luckily the phone connection happened to be prompt and Doctor in his office just over the bridge. On his arrival he found heart action and respiration almost nil but a prompt injection of stimulant prevented a collapse and Wilkes was removed to his rooms at the residence of Mr. Lewis Price, Kent Street where after several hours he revived slowly and was yesterday aware that he had left the plant.

Messrs. Geo. A. McDonald and John Hazen of Kingslake who by chance were at the depot assisted in removing Wilkes and controlling his spasmodic tendencies for some hours. The L. O. F. got in touch, a nurse was secured, and the company put a man at the service of the attendants and the popular little fellow was once in good hands. We learn that he has no relatives in Canada; only a sister in England and a brother in the trenches, but he has a host of friends.

Mr. Shoemaker of the Simcoe Hydro system tells us that a tuft of hair left on the wires in the plant, and the position of the step ladder at the time would indicate that Wilkes who was likely standing on the frame of the oil switch at the time, got too close to the wire and the current arced over from one or probably two phases of the 26,000 volt high tension wires while he was grounded on the frame of the oil switch. The hair was left on one phase of the line between the oil switch and the transformer.

The soles of his feet were badly burned, and the sufferings of the young man are augmented from the fact that in falling the contents of the can of dressing spilled over his face and shoulder running into his nose, eyes and one ear and blistering him severely.

Simcoe, Nov. 13.—(From our own correspondent.) Manager J. W. Phillips of the Unique Shoe Company was called to Toronto, owing to the illness of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Turvey, of Simcoe, and Mrs. Walter Raylings, of Walsh, Howard Turvey, of Victoria and Mrs. Stitt of Port Dover were in Brantford Friday, attending the funeral of their uncle, Jethro Sills.

Mr. Frank Bower of the Unique Shoe factory, has taken up residence on Kent St. Mr. C. W. Norris, Supt. on the second floor of the shoe factory, where the cutting, stitching and lasting is done, has his family comfortably settled on South Colborne street. Mr. Norris was five years with the Sovereign Shoe Co. and for the same period with the Regal. T. Linder and O. Palmer are

WEDDING BELLS

Edgeworth-Arthur

One of the proudest weddings of the season took place on Wednesday last at Pinegrove Farm, Kelvin, the home of Mr. Thos. Arthur, when his eldest daughter Ann became the wife of Mr. John Edgeworth, of Teeterville, Ontario. The bride was beautifully gowned in cream satin charmeuse and secun lace, with veil and orange blossoms, carrying bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Bessie Arthur, sister of the bride, assisted, gowned in blue satin mesaline trimmed with georgette crepe and silver lace. Mr. James Edgeworth, brother of the groom, officiated as groomsmen, while the ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. F. McIntosh of Guelph, a cousin of the bride. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome pearl necklace and a silver tea-set; to the bridesmaid and pianist, pearl sunbursts; to the ring bearer a dainty pin set with pearls, and to the groomsmen gold cuff-links. During the signing of the register, Mrs. C. F. McIntosh sang very sweetly "I Love You Truly." The bridal couple left the same evening for Chicago and Kansas City, and on their return will reside in Teeterville. The bride's going away suit was navy blue broadcloth with black velvet pictures hat.

During the ceremony, Lohengrin's wedding march was delightfully rendered by Miss Sadie Arthur, sister of the bride, while little Bobbie Henry, cousin of the bride, carried the ring in a dainty basket of flowers. Guests to about the number of twenty were present from Guelph, Toronto, Hamilton, Stratford, Brantford and other places.

KILLING THE CALVES

All sorts of excuses are offered for the high price of beef, the most plausible being the alleged demand for veal—the killing of calves which should be allowed to grow into regular beef.

SIDE TALKS

RUTH CAMERON

THEY DON'T SPEAK

An acquaintance of mine has just lost an excellent position in an office because she refused to make her peace with one of the other workers. They quarrelled a few weeks ago and after the quarrel they "didn't speak." Their employer stood this uncomfortable state of affairs for a while, but finally the disagreeable atmosphere got on his nerves, and he told the two women they must be pleasant to each other or leave. My acquaintance left.

"I Never Got Over It"

She told me about it afterwards. "When I get good and mad at anyone," she said, "I don't ever get over it."

"Didn't you hate to leave?" said I.

"Oh, yes," she said, "it was a good place, but I said I'd never speak to Emma again and I wasn't going to or anybody."

She tossed her head. It was evident that she was very proud of her vindictive spirit. I don't believe her original offense that caused the quarrel still bothers her, but I think she sticks it out because she visualizes herself as she appears to others. She Enjoys Picturing Herself As male.

Vindictive

She fancied people saying, "When she gets mad she stays mad."

And with a queer, perverted pride she enjoys the picture.

That is her ideal of herself. She would sacrifice much if happen to know, that in leaving this position, she sacrificed more than she knew) to live up to it.

What a good friend and what a bad enemy pride is!

It is a black sufferer. It helps you be faithful to your ideal of yourself. But you must be careful what that ideal is.

People often hold that ideal of vindictiveness. It has heard several people speak with pride of quarrelling with quondam friends and never having anything to do with them again. They seem to think there is something fine about that.

He Went Down Cellar and Shot His Dog.

Again, a man told me once that he went downstairs and shot an old pet dog of his who barked and disturbed him and his guests during a card game. He sat down to his cards without saying a word and his guests would scarcely believe him when he told them later what he had done. He was in the main a kind-hearted man, exquisitely tender to his invalid wife and very fond of animals. But he evidently held some distorted ideal of himself as a steeled nerve, flint-hearted sort of man.

You can do few better things for your children than to teach them to be proud of the right things.
