The Catholic Order of Foresters have chartered the Str. City of Chatham to run an excursion to Algonac on Aug. 13. Last night committees were appointed and it promises to be a grand success. Any information desired will be given by T. J. Doyle, Sec. Treas., or by any of the brothers.

"Chuck" Maisenville was up diving at the spot where the gun boat once lay. He secured a 42 pound a 24 pound, a six pound and a number of half pound cannon balls. He says that the 42 pounder was only a few inches under ground, but the 24 pounder was down in the mud the length of his arm. He also has secured the iron from the butt of a musket. Mr. Maisenville is probably the best swimmer and diver in the city.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of St. Joseph's Court 241, C. O. F., was held last evening. The principal business done was to make arrangements for the excursion to Algonac on Aug. 13, which promises to be a great success. After the meeting refreshments were served and songs and speech making were indulged in to a late hour. This is the first meeting the court has held in the Oddfellow's Temple and the members are delighted with their new quarters.

After the regular business, a social evening was spent with songs, graphophone selections by Mr. Eberle, and refreshments. The would-be ball players of Chatham who offered to bet $100 to $50 that the Chatham team would down Wallaceburg two to one, haven't been heard of since they were notified that all the money they could scrape together would be covered. They have probably taken to the woods.—Wallaceburg Herald-Record. An exciting lacrosse match—the first ever played in the Rainy River district—took place on Thursday between the Fort Frances and Miss Centre teams and resulted in victory for the former by two goals to one. R. Laurie, brother of F. D. Laurie, of this city, played for the victorious team and carried off many of the honors of the match. "Three nice new garbage boxes, painted blue and fixed up slick and elegant, have been secured," said the city engineer, "and will be placed one at each of the following corners: Post office, Hotel Garner and C. P. R. They will be covered, and all parties having refuse or paper to throw away will put it in these boxes. If they throw it on the street, it will be picked up at the expense of the party who put the paper or refuse on the street."
