for life without injurious drugs.

Have you the seeds of any past dis-do you contemplate MARRIAGE? Do you feel safe in taking this step? You can't afford to take any risk. Like father, like son. We have a never fail-

MIDDLE-AGED MEN. — There are many troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examination of the urinary deposits a rosy sediment will often be found, and sometimes particles of albumen, and color of a thin milky hue, again changing to a dark, torpid appearance. There are men who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. The doctors will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

HE TOLD HIS STORY.

AND THE UNWILLING AUDIENCE WAS COMPELLED TO LISTEN.

A Long Winded but Resourceful Sheriff's Treatment of the Crowd of Loungeurs That Rudely Interrupted His Yarn About a Bear.

The sheriff of Salmon county was a good story teller—that is, he so considered himself. Whether the story diverted his hearers or not was a matter of little consequence to him. He would start a story which had no visible point and no apparent end and keep on telling it shaking with laughter himself and clapping his victim on the back with his immense paw. The miners and cattlemen who frequented Shoup's store at Salmon City had a social code of their own. When a man got launched into an impossible story, they simply pulled a string attached to a rather over-sized gong which Macnabbs, who ran the store, had put up for the express purpose, and the story teller was cut off short.

But the sheriff was better than the gong. The second time he started one of his stories little Johnny Harris gave the gong a pull. The sheriff paid no attention to it and still talked. The next night the sheriff began to tell about a trip east.
The gong was rung until every one in the building was arm sore, and then his auditors gave it up and bore with the sheriff as best they might until he tired himself out and started for home. Just before he left he said:

"Mac, why don't you let that feller in that bin a-rin'g? If I twuz me, I'd git mad standin out there even if I knowed that you wuz a-listenin to me tellin tales."

"We got to do something to head that old land pirate off," said Charley Bryan, the miner, "because if we don't and this thing keeps up we'll all of us be so weak by spring that we won't be able to git out into the hills."

The sheriff did not come to the store for some time after this occurrence. He had been obliged to make a journey into the hills to post some notices on a mine; and consequently the crowd had had time to regain its spirits a little. Then, too, Sam Slick, a veteran stock raiser and practical joker, had been obliged to the ranks after a long absence from the country. One Saturday night the sheriff burst into the store and after buying two bits' worth of tobacco took his accustomed mackerel bait and played it near the store in the center of the circle began:

"Say, boys, I heard an awful good story up to Lemhi county. You know this yer Sam Deemer? Well, he's the greatest bar bunter in all that country," he said.

"What county is that?" broke in Slick.
"Lemhi," answered the sheriff in the tone of a man answering the census enumerator.

"That's old flat footed, black haired Sam, ain't it?" asked Slick.

"Yes," said the sheriff hurriedly.
"I know him."

"Well," the sheriff continued, looking around the circle for confirmation, "they ain't no one that kin touch the old Deemer on bars. Why, he's killed more bars than any man in Idaho."

"Who told you that?" asked Slick.
"Why, I know it; I've seen the hides."

"What kind—black, cinnamon or grizzly?"

"All kinds; don't make no matter to him."

The crowd by this time had caught the cue from Slick, and every time the sheriff opened his mouth he was piled with questions. Finally he got so confused that he forgot the story he had started to tell, and blurted out, "I've seen the hides."

chased real estate in Chicago valued at $87,000. Mr. Jefferson paid that amount for it, giving $47,000 in cash and assumthe general, "ought and will continue to, I own limited experience he has seen about

THE NEW CENTURY.

The fin de siècle woman has stepped forward and become the new century woman.—Louisville Commercial.

Have you caught on to the new game yet? It is guessing what will happen to the world in the new century. Anybody can try it, and one guess is as good as another.—Brooklyn Standard-Union.

Each one of the New York newspapers claims to have printed the "first paper published in the new century." It is too bad to have the century started off with a misunderstanding like this.—Atlanta Journal.

It would be a sensible thing at the beginning of the new century to have our timepieces mark the hours in a day instead of doubling on themselves in two sets of 12. But it is too sensible for the beginning of the twentieth century, though it will come long before the beginning of the twenty-first.

HALF SICK WOMEN

What multitudes of women are to-day miserable! They are half sick, they keep on working, you hear them say "I will be better to-morrow." How foolish! They will be worse to-morrow!
Women, do not take such chances when you are rundown, you need a remedy; and when you take a remedy, you need the very best; you do not want a cure all, you do not want old-fashioned remedies. Take the best, take the one that cures, the one that has made its reputation by curing women. Dr. Coderre's Red Pills are for women alone. Thousands upon thousands of women have testified to their great merit. They can cure you quickly, permanently and cheaply. Fifty Red Pills for 50c. last longer than any $1.00 old-fashioned liquid medicine; but, you should not consider the price, you should think of their efficacy. It is the efficacy of Dr. Coderre's Red Pills that has made them their famous world over.

Here are a few women who have tried Dr. Coderre's Red Pills, and if you doubt what we say, write them; we give you their names and addresses:

Mrs. W. J. Hill, 428 Kerigan, Cincinnati, Ohio, writes:

"I have been a great sufferer from female weakness. I must say that I have tried a number of women's remedies, but none have done me so much good as Dr. Coderre's Red Pills for Pale and Weak Women.
I advise any woman who has female troubles to take them. They are cheap and good."

Mrs. J. Donahy, 148 Coddle Street, Providence, R. I., writes:

"Dr. Coderre's Red Pills have cured me of different female troubles that I have had. I believe them to be the best remedy on earth, for as soon as I began to take them I felt better. I kept on taking them and to-day I am cured and feel like a new woman."

Mrs. Jennie Anthony, Beaubien Street, Detroit, Mich., writes:

"I have suffered with stomach aches, nervous headaches and dizziness. I was all rundown and felt miserable until I began taking Dr. Coderre's Red Pills. My blood was very poor. I was looking awful.
I am now stronger and stouter than I have been for years.
I never thought that any Pills could ever do so much good for me."

Mrs. J. J. Buddington, 70 Clinton Street, Grand Rapids, Mich., writes:

"My case was indeed a bad one when I began to take Dr.
Coderre's Red Pills. I was suffering from female weakness, my blood was very poor. I was looking awful. I am now stronger and stouter than I have been for years. I never thought that any Pills

You note probably in our testimonials that we do not give all the details. We think this unnecessary. When a woman testifies that she has been cured of female weakness, every intelligent woman understands what it means.
It means backaches, side aches, bearing down pains, irregularities, stomach troubles, fainting spells and dizziness. A woman who suffers from female weakness may have a few errand all these symptoms, and it is these symptoms, and many others peculiar to women, that Dr.
Coderre's Red Pills for Pale and Weak Women cure. Ladies, this is a remedy which is not to be compared with any other recommended to you as a cure all or some other old-fashioned liquid medicine. Dr. Coderre's Red Pills are adapted to women of all ages. Do not be deceived; they are for no bad purpose.
Married women can use them at any time.

If your case is of long standing, write a full description of it to our French Doctors who
