

ANOTHER VICTIM OF RHEUMATISM

Entirely Well After Six Weeks' Treatment With "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. AMEDEE GARCEAU

82 Hickory St., Ottawa, Ont.

"I was for many years a victim of that terrible disease, Rheumatism. In 1918, I was laid up for four months with Rheumatism in the joints of the knees, hips and shoulders and was prevented from following my work, that of Electrician.

I tried many remedies and was under the care of a physician; but nothing did me any good. Then I began to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and in a week I was easier, and in six weeks I was so well I went to work again.

I look upon this fruit medicine, 'Fruit-a-tives', as simply marvellous in the cure of Rheumatism, and strongly advise everyone suffering with Rheumatism to give 'Fruit-a-tives' a trial."

They were sitting out in the conservatory. Sam sat on the sofa, and Sally sat on Sam; but it was all right, for he had just asked her to marry him. She had said, "I don't care if I do," and thus they were engaged.

"Sam, dear," she began, "am I the only girl?"

"Now, look here, Sally," he interrupted, "don't ask me if you're the only girl I ever loved. You know as well as I do—"

"Oh, that wasn't the question at all, Sam," she answered. "I was going to ask if I was the only girl who would have you."

BILIOUS headache spoils many an expected enjoyment.

When the condition of the liver is neglected, biliousness seems to become chronic and recurs every two or three weeks, with severe sick headaches.

Why not get right after this trouble and end it by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to restore the health and activity of the liver.

Constipation, indigestion, backache, headache, biliousness and kidney derangements soon disappear with the use of this well-known medicine.

One pill a dose, 25 cts. a box, all dealers, or Edmundson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Farmers Can Handle the Job.

As predicted the now government of Ontario is formed from Farmers' Liberal and Labor parties. The Farmers, as the strongest party, take the largest number of portfolios, but they allow the Liberals and Labor some representation in the Cabinet so as to get their support in the Legislature. Up to the time of the announcement that the Farmers would form a government in co-operation with the Liberals and Labor, it was amusing to read in the press expressions of doubt as to whether the Farmers would be able to form a government, or whether they could carry on if they did. A little thought would have shown how ridiculous it was to think for a minute that an organization that proved stronger in the elections than any other would not contain among its leaders men capable of forming a government and carrying on the affairs of the province. Farmers are not "mutts" as some city dwellers think. Running a farm successfully is something like running a newspaper successfully: A man who can do either is usually capable of running almost anything—or "making a stab" at it anyway.

Concerning Heligoland.

A German newspaper reports that the people of Heligoland want to return to British rule. Concerning this question, the "Manchester Guardian" has this to say:—"It is not surprising, for the strategic importance to Germany of this strip of rock must have made the lives of its inhabitants quite unusually uncomfortable. Heligoland, when we owned it, was a harmless curiosity in islands; a unique place from which to study the habits of rare sea birds, inhabited by a tiny community who were little troubled by the cost of living. They suffered considerably by fog, and each year the sea removed a appreciable part of their habitation; but they escaped income tax and were unusually well supplied with German wine and cigars, imported for the Summer visitors who came for bathing. The change which dug a huge fortress a hundred feet deep in the cliffs, covered them with gun emplacements, and girdled them with a labyrinth of walls fifty feet thick was a more than doubtful blessing, and Heligoland must have found her transformation into the most notorious and sinister speck of land in the world a severe strain on her zeal for the Fatherland. When the war actually came her fishermen were exiles for they were one and all shipped off to the mainland, and the island was given over to the gulls and the gunner. It is now thrown open again, and a beginning has been made with the dismantling of its mighty forts. The inhabitants will cheerfully see the last of the guns, and apparently they would like, too, to be quit of German taxation; but they hope, quite reasonably, that the island's final disappearance may be at least delayed by leaving the great sea-walls the Germans built. This might well be done, for Heligoland so long as it lasts will be a lode-star for the curious, and there would be a certain rough justice in the fact that of its people profiting in the future by the world's interest in its sinister past that has cost them so dear.

The individual who thinks he knows it all has the most to learn. A distant manner doesn't lend enchantment to one's view of friendship.

There had been a quarrel. Everybody could see that the minute they came into the street car. The woman sat with tightly pressed lips, her hands gripping her umbrella firmly. The man sank down on his spine and glowered at the advertisements. The other passengers got interested.

Then there came a dead silence as the car halted to let off a passenger. Into the silence came the woman's thin, angry voice:

"If it wasn't for me you'd be the biggest fool in town."

Then for the first time the man grinned, and the others grinned with him.
