There's the call of the blood-of the best of our living, pulsing, quickening blood to-day-a call to every French and English ear-from this one ground alone-and therefore an irresistible ap-all from all the battlefields together. alone—and therefore an irresistion appeal from all the battlefields together. The causes of strife are long since out-worn and cast, aside; only its chivalry remains. The meaner passions, jealouisies and schemes, arose and flourished most in courts, and parliaments, and mobs, of different countries, far asunder. But the finer essence of the fatheriands was in the men who actually met in arms. And here, now and forever, are the field, the memory and the inspiration of all that was most heroic in the contending races. that was most heroic in the contending races. From Champlain to Carleton, in many troublous times during 167 years, Que-bee was the scene of fateful action for Iroquois and Huron; for French of ev-ery quarter, from Normandy and Brit-tany to Lankuedoe and Roussillon; for French-Canadians of the whole long waterway from the Lakes and Mississip-pi to the St. Lawrence and Atlantic; for Americans from their thirteen colon-ies for all the kindred of the British Isless-English, Irish, Sootch and Weish, Chamnel Islanders and Orcadians; and for Newfoundlanders, the first Anglo-Canadians, and the forerunnors of the United Empire Loyakists. # ATTEMPT TO BREAK JAIL. HAVE THEIR PLOT EXPOSED.

Had Drilled a Hole in the Wall, and

All Was Ready on Saturday, When the Ringleader Was Caught on Top of a Wall and Made a Clean Breast of it.

Guelph, March 9 .- Six prisoners at the jail, including three prisoners from Pal-merston, McAlynn, Heatherington and Daveling, who should have long since Daveling, who should have long since been taken to the Central Prison, and three others—Ridley, McIntyre (a new arrived), and John Cox, who is believed to have been the ringleader—have been working on a scheme to gain their free-dom. For several weeks they have been at work, and during that time a hole had been burrowed through the thick stone wall, all unknown to the officials of the ial. of the jail.

and been burneved through the thick stone wall, all unknown to the officials of the jail. Saturday was the day set for the grand coup, but a slip occurred which up-set the whole scheme. On Saturday might Governor McNab noticed Cox on the top of the prison wall. He thought this somewhat unusual, and warned Turnkey Everson. Cox was hauled over the coals and gave the whole thing away. Ridley and McIntyre had been allowed the freedom of the outer yard. The three Palmerston men were inside, patiently burrowing through the wall. Cox had been attempting to get into the turnkey's yard to help his chum from Palmerston, when he was seen on the wall. The holes had been made with iron strips taken from the beds. The loose stones from the hole were put un-der the floor, while their old clobes were thrown in a heap to cover the hole. Mr. McNab says at 1 o'clock there was a smell of fire and smoke throughout the jail, and both Mr. McNab and Mr. Everson went to the ward, but could find no trace of fire. Evidently paper had been burned and the remains sent down the sewer. Mr. McNab's opinion is that if Mr. Everson had gone into the cell alone he would have been knocked down, and then escape to the outer yard would have been easy. To get over the wall Cox used a ladder which had been cleverly constructed in a lew minutes from a wide board torn from one of the outbuildings, to which strips were nailed. It is not known where the nails came No. 5498-The pleated modes have attained great favor for No. 5456-116 pleated modes have attained great two for little girls this season, because of their becomingness and style. This one was attractively developed in blue and green checked mohair. A lining supports the pleated blouse waist and skirt. The bishop sleeve is finished by a straight cuff. Groups of but-tons on the front of waist are the only ornamentation needed. A nailed.

It is not known where the nails came from, unless they were put under the outside jail yard door.

REPLY TO SENATOR SCOTT.

Ald. Lapointe Thinks Montreal Sober, Law-abiding City.

Sober, Law-abiding City. Montreal, March 9.—At to-day's meet-ing of the City Council Ald. Lapointe gave a lengthy address dealing with Senator Scott's comment on Montreal's drunkenness and erime. According to Ald. Lapointe, there are only 947 hotels in Montreal, not 1,382, as stated by Sen-ator Scott. He also points out that in Quebec Province there are only 2,539 hotels, compared with 2,691 in On-tario. These figures are taken from the reports of 1905, Ald. Lapointe is quite emphatic in his claim that Montreal is a sober, law-abiding city, and does not deserve the charges made in Parliament by Senator Scott.

Hon. Mr. Scott Explains. Montreal, March 9.—Hon. Mr. Scott has written to the Montreal City Council, declaring that he had been misquoted in part, that he had not criticised the police force unfavorably, and that he had in-tended no disrespect to the city except as regards the Italians. The Secretary of State could not re-tract what he had said as to the euantity of saloons.

MIDLAND LOCAL OPTION.

Leave to Appeal Refused by Supreme Court. Ottawa, March 9.—In the Supreme Court this morning in the case of Dun-can vs. town of Midland, Mr. J. B. Mac-kenzie moved for special leave to appeal from the judgment of the Court of Ap-peal for Ontario, refusing to quash a local option byJaw. Mr. Dunean repu-diated his retainer to the solicitor en-deavoring to assert the appeal, and an alternative motion was also made for the substitution of a person named Hughes as appellant. The motions were opposed by Mr. Frank Hodgins, K. C. The court refused to entertain the motion for leave to appeal in the ab-sence of authorization by the party ap-pellant, and the motion to substitute Hughes not being pressed, it was dis-missed with costs against Hughes. On the motion for leave the court reserved Court. The Scot has little or no use for sname of any nature. There is need of good Scotch blood in the building of a young nation like Canada. Mr. W. L.
