We understand that the congregation of Tatamagouche, recently presented their young missister, Rev. Thos. Sedgewick, with a riding sleigh and a set of Buffalo robes as a mark of respect for him personally, and of appreciation of his ministerial laboure amongst them.—Pres.

Sootland.

Dr Murray was a sound and able preacher, and a beloved and faithful pastor. He was a man of eminently genial heart, benevolent in his impulses, and charitable in his judgments, but the firm and uncompromising enemy of shams and falseshoods. By the Christian world, by the Presbyterian Church of which he was an eminent minister, and by the congregation which for twenty-six years has enjoyed his ministrations, his loss will be severely felt. The fumeral services were to take place in the First Presbyterian Church, Elizabeth, on Friday afternoon, the 8th instant.
