

Board of Works

COMPANY THE NORTH STAR... IS THE BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM... IN THE PROVINCE... THE "STAR"... N. B. VELTIES... CREAGHAN... TAPES... ER, PAPER... GOODS, ETC... "STAR" CHATHAM N. B. September 1st. 1880.

STAR CLUB RITES. We shall be happy to supply the STAR... F. O. Peterson, MERCHANT TAILOR CHATHAM N. B. WILLIAM WYSE, AUCTIONEER AND COMMISSION MERCHANT. T. F. KEAREY, CHOICE BRAND Wines, Liquors and Cigars. NOTICE. DR. McDONALD, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON. PETER LOGGIE, DIRECT IMPORTER OF CHOICE WINES, LIQUORS AND CIGARS. W. W. WEVERLY HOTEL. ALEXANDER STEWART, PROPRIETOR. J. B. RUSSELL, DIRECT IMPORTER OF CHOICE WINES, BRANDIES, WHISKIES, CORDIALS, &c. &c. JAMES CLOWERY, DUKE ST. CHATHAM, N. B. DEALER IN DRY GOODS, GROCERIES AND LIQUORS.

The Star

VOLUME II. CHATHAM, N. B., FEBRUARY 19, 1881. NO. 232.

"STAR." Semi-Weekly and Weekly. The former edition published WEDNESDAYS AND SATURDAYS. Terms: $2.00 per annum in advance. THE WEEKLY STAR. Published on SATURDAYS. Terms: $1.00 per annum in advance. Sent to any address post-paid for above figures. J. E. COLLINS, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

To our Friends & the Public. When you come to Chatham and wish to purchase TINWARE, ask for WOODS & McEWEEN'S NEW TINSHOP. Where you will find the cheapest and best stock of Kitchen FURNISHING GOODS ever offered to the public.

John J. Harrington, Attorney-at-Law, Notary, Public, etc. Office in McLaughlan's Building. WATER ST., CHATHAM. CHATHAM, SEPT. 1, 1880.

S. Y. MITCHELL, DEALER IN GROCERIES AND LIQUORS, Pleasant Street, OPPOSITE MASONIC HALL, NEWCASTLE, N. B. September 1, 1880.

WILLET & QUIGLEY, BARRISTERS, ATTORNEY, NOTARIES PUBLIC, &c. Prince's St., Ritchie's Building. JOHN WILLET, Rich'd F. Quigley, LL. B., B. C. L., Commissioner for Massachusetts.

TO OWNERS OF HORSES! One dose of Chamber's Epileptic Powder... FINE WINES. The largest and finest in the Province, embracing as it does a variety of wines to suit the taste of every class of consumer.

D. DESMOND, DIRECT IMPORTER OF CHOICE WINES, LIQUORS AND CIGARS. LOWER WATER ST., CHATHAM.

James P. Mitchell, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Notary Public, Conveyancer, &c. OFFICE: - Adjoining Telegraph Office, Hayes' Building.

ADAMS & LAWLOR, BARRISTERS & ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Solicitors in Bankruptcy, Conveyancers, NOTARIES PUBLIC, ETC., ETC.

JAMES CLOWERY, DUKE ST. CHATHAM, N. B. DEALER IN DRY GOODS, GROCERIES AND LIQUORS. Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes, Glass and Crockery ware Ready made Clothing.

Administratrix Notice. All persons having legal claims against the estate of Francis D. Lyons late of the Parish of Nalco, in the county of Northumberland, former deceased, are requested to render the same duly attested at the office of Jno. J. Harrington, attorney at law within three months from the date hereof and all persons indebted to the said estate are requested to make immediate payment to the said Jno. J. Harrington.

JOHN R. MALTBY, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, NOTARY PUBLIC, CONVEYANCER, &c. &c. OFFICE: - Over the store of James Fish, Esq., Commercial Wharf.

M. A. FINN, Importer of WINES, LIQUORS, CIGARS, TOBACCO AND TOBACCO-NISTS' GOODS.

F. CLEMENTSON & CO. Have a heavy stock of GLASS, CHINA AND EARTH-ENWARE.

SPECIAL! For Xmas and New Year! Fine Wines. We would remind our customers and others that our stock of Fine Wines is the largest and finest in the Province, embracing as it does a variety of wines to suit the taste of every class of consumer.

L. J. TWEEDIE, BARRISTER & ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Notary Public, Conveyancer, etc. CHATHAM, N. B. OFFICE: in Snowball's Building.

HOTEL DUFFERIN, CHARLOTTE STREET, SAINT JOHN, N. B. GEO. W. SWETT, PROPRIETOR.

Nettings & Twine. We keep always on hand a large supply of Nettings & Twine promptly at lowest prices.

NETTINGS & TWINE. H. & G. W. LORD, 111 Commercial St., Boston, Mass. Fishermen can be supplied at A. & R. LOGGIE'S, BLACK BROOK, MIRAMICHI, Dec 22nd 1880.

Harness. Having commenced business in my new factory, I am now prepared to manufacture Harness of all descriptions. Colours a specialty. A few of those celebrated VICTOR HUGO COLLARS

Just Received! Layer Raisins, Currants & Co, Essence of Lemon, Essence Peppermint.

MYRTLE NAVY TOBACCO, LITTLE N. JOR TOBACCO. For sale by NICHOLAS BARDEN, Chatham - Dec 22nd.

A. CHIPMAN SMITH, SUCCESSOR TO W. O. SMITH, DRUGGIST & APOTHECARY, No. 1 CITY MARKET BUILDING, CHATHAM STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B.

NAUTICAL ACADEMY, MULLINS BUILDING, NO 1 NORTH WHARF, ST JOHN, N. B. Candidates for Certificates of Competence for Masters and Mates taught by McNally's Method.

CAPTAIN P. CASSELY, Pupil of McNally, and Daniel Dias, formerly assistant of McNally, of the late firm of McNally & Seaton.

New Drug Store! (Opposite Hon. William Muirhead's Store and next door to Custom House.) JUST OPENED: A Nice Assortment of SUNDRIES - Hair, Tooth, Cloth, Hat, Nail and SHAVING BRUSHES.

LADIES AND GENTS' SHOULDER BRACES, FINE TOILET SOAPS, Trusses, Nursing Bottles and Fittings, Hand Mirrors, Shaving Boxes.

LIME JUICE, (in Pts. & Qts.) - Canary, Hemp, Raps, Maw AND MILLET SEEDS - ALL KINDS OF Horse and Cattle Medicines. Prescriptions Carefully Prepared, and only the Purest Drugs are used.

DURKEE'S LIVER PADS, (Only $1.25) - DENTIST'S ROOMS, Up Stairs. MAUKENZIE & CO. Chatham, N. B., Sept 1, 1880.

MR. TARTÉ. Editor-in-chief of the "Canadian". In the course of his very able and eloquent address (which by request, was in the French language,) he showed an intention, I might say a thorough knowledge of the Irish history and the evils which have afflicted the country for ages. His reverence to the community of feeling which ought to exist between Irish and French was received with rap-

RATES OF ADVERTISING. Semi-Weekly Star. TABLE with columns: PLACE, LENGTH OF TIME, RATE. A Column, itself do. 50 23, 16, 12.

The North Star. CHATHAM, N.B., FEB. 19, 1881. J. E. COLLINS, EDITOR. Communications. THE MEETING IN QUEBEC. To the Editor of the Star. Dear Sir, - Having a spare time at my disposal I feel I will be doing your readers a pleasure - as I certainly am to myself - in giving them in a short letter the doings of the Irishmen in the person of Mr. Tarte on that platform, because he was always impressed with the importance of cultivating a friendly feeling between the two Elements. He could speak more pointedly with regard to the French Element in New Brunswick where they formed about seventy thousand of the population and had it not been for their bad liberality, Mr. Anglin could never have represented Gloucester, nor could he, himself, represent Victoria, and therefore no Irish Catholic could come from that Province as a representative without their support. He always believed that he was studying the true interests of his own nationality in using all the means in his power to maintain that friendly feeling in New Brunswick and to render any assistance he could to the committee of the Quebec branch to convene a MA'S MEETING of "all lovers of justice, liberty, and fair-play."

MA'S MEETING of "all lovers of justice, liberty, and fair-play." The meeting was accordingly held in the Masonic Hall on Saturday evening. The hall with a seating capacity of about two thousand was filled, and the audience comprised English, Scotch and French-Canadian as well as those more immediately interested. In order to make the demonstration as imposing as possible invitations were issued to a number of leading men, Irish and others. Amongst others so invited were the Honorable T. W. Anglin and Mr. Cosigan of your Province.

On opening the proceedings the chairman apologized for the absence of Mr. Anglin and said a sympathizing letter had been received from him. The letter was subsequently read and its contents were in expression of Mr. A's regret at being unable to accept the invitation as he was suffering from a severe hoarseness. People wondered much as to where the sympathy came in. MR. COSIGAN was, however, promptly on hand, having arrived from Ottawa that morning, and his entry into the hall was received with a storm of applause. Two resolutions in full sympathy with the objects of the meeting and expressing condemnation of the arbitrary and brutal conduct both of its speaker and of the British Government were proposed and seconded in very able addresses by members of the League, and carried amidst enthusiastic shouts of applause. Other gentlemen, non members, were then called upon to address the meeting and in this connection a noticeable feature was the speech of MR. TARTÉ.

MR. TARTÉ. Editor-in-chief of the "Canadian". In the course of his very able and eloquent address (which by request, was in the French language,) he showed an intention, I might say a thorough knowledge of the Irish history and the evils which have afflicted the country for ages. His reverence to the community of feeling which ought to exist between Irish and French was received with rap-

At Rimong, in Burmah, recently in one of the most populous quarters of the town, a tiger was killed in broad daylight. The brute had been hanging about Dallah, the straggling village on the other side of the river from Rimong, for several days, and early one morning swam across the river to Rimong. Fagged with the long mile through a swift current, and no doubt astonished at the number of people he came across, he executed himself beneath a house. The District Superintendent of Police heard of the arrival, and, armed with a Winchester repeating rifle, went down with another Englishman in the direction pointed out. They came upon the tiger rather unexpectedly. Enraged one of the houses on the river bank, they all of a sudden discovered the animal only a few feet below them, with nothing but the scant protection of an open banian floorwork between them and him. A bullet between the shoulders however, dropped him before any harm could be done, and a couple more shots made things sure. Then the Burmese came crowding around in scores. The inspector tried to keep back off with his gun, forgetting it was a full rock. Suddenly it went off, and a Burman was shot through the shoulder, and then a few hours afterward, the tiger was just under nine feet from the tip of uous applause. He said that, as might easily be understood, the French population, as a whole, did not understand the question—they required to be enlightened on the matter and his expression of his determination to leave nothing undone in this direction again called forth rounds of applause. It is only right to say here that this is precisely what Mr. Tarte has been doing through his paper for months back. My limits only allow me to give you the foregoing out of many points made by this gentleman. He was called to the front at the conclusion of his address and received a hearty round of applause. He was succeeded by Mr. Cosigan, and my pen fails to give you an idea of the enthusiastic applause which greeted the veteran representative of the Irish Catholics of the Dominion. All rose to their feet and cheer after cheer went up so that it was some moments before he could attempt to speak. He expressed the hearty wish with which he accepted the invitation of his countrymen in Quebec to come a amongst them and to testify by his presence at least in any movement affecting the "old land" and his deep detestation of the unconstitutional and cruel line of conduct of the British Government in their recent actions. He denounced the inconsistency of Mr. Bright and other Liberals, who after encouraging the Irish people into agitation were now so ready to throw them in a prison, simply because they sought justice an liberty de- he said that it was not because Irish or the descendants of Irishmen hold important public positions in any movement affecting the "old land" and his deep detestation of the unconstitutional and cruel line of conduct of the British Government in their recent actions. He denounced the inconsistency of Mr. Bright and other Liberals, who after encouraging the Irish people into agitation were now so ready to throw them in a prison, simply because they sought justice an liberty de-

THE MEETING IN QUEBEC. To the Editor of the Star. Dear Sir, - Having a spare time at my disposal I feel I will be doing your readers a pleasure - as I certainly am to myself - in giving them in a short letter the doings of the Irishmen in the person of Mr. Tarte on that platform, because he was always impressed with the importance of cultivating a friendly feeling between the two Elements. He could speak more pointedly with regard to the French Element in New Brunswick where they formed about seventy thousand of the population and had it not been for their bad liberality, Mr. Anglin could never have represented Gloucester, nor could he, himself, represent Victoria, and therefore no Irish Catholic could come from that Province as a representative without their support. He always believed that he was studying the true interests of his own nationality in using all the means in his power to maintain that friendly feeling in New Brunswick and to render any assistance he could to the committee of the Quebec branch to convene a MA'S MEETING of "all lovers of justice, liberty, and fair-play."

MA'S MEETING of "all lovers of justice, liberty, and fair-play." The meeting was accordingly held in the Masonic Hall on Saturday evening. The hall with a seating capacity of about two thousand was filled, and the audience comprised English, Scotch and French-Canadian as well as those more immediately interested. In order to make the demonstration as imposing as possible invitations were issued to a number of leading men, Irish and others. Amongst others so invited were the Honorable T. W. Anglin and Mr. Cosigan of your Province. On opening the proceedings the chairman apologized for the absence of Mr. Anglin and said a sympathizing letter had been received from him. The letter was subsequently read and its contents were in expression of Mr. A's regret at being unable to accept the invitation as he was suffering from a severe hoarseness. People wondered much as to where the sympathy came in. MR. COSIGAN was, however, promptly on hand, having arrived from Ottawa that morning, and his entry into the hall was received with a storm of applause. Two resolutions in full sympathy with the objects of the meeting and expressing condemnation of the arbitrary and brutal conduct both of its speaker and of the British Government were proposed and seconded in very able addresses by members of the League, and carried amidst enthusiastic shouts of applause. Other gentlemen, non members, were then called upon to address the meeting and in this connection a noticeable feature was the speech of MR. TARTÉ.

MR. TARTÉ. Editor-in-chief of the "Canadian". In the course of his very able and eloquent address (which by request, was in the French language,) he showed an intention, I might say a thorough knowledge of the Irish history and the evils which have afflicted the country for ages. His reverence to the community of feeling which ought to exist between Irish and French was received with rap-

At Rimong, in Burmah, recently in one of the most populous quarters of the town, a tiger was killed in broad daylight. The brute had been hanging about Dallah, the straggling village on the other side of the river from Rimong, for several days, and early one morning swam across the river to Rimong. Fagged with the long mile through a swift current, and no doubt astonished at the number of people he came across, he executed himself beneath a house. The District Superintendent of Police heard of the arrival, and, armed with a Winchester repeating rifle, went down with another Englishman in the direction pointed out. They came upon the tiger rather unexpectedly. Enraged one of the houses on the river bank, they all of a sudden discovered the animal only a few feet below them, with nothing but the scant protection of an open banian floorwork between them and him. A bullet between the shoulders however, dropped him before any harm could be done, and a couple more shots made things sure. Then the Burmese came crowding around in scores. The inspector tried to keep back off with his gun, forgetting it was a full rock. Suddenly it went off, and a Burman was shot through the shoulder, and then a few hours afterward, the tiger was just under nine feet from the tip of