THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity; has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of erdinary perodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection for pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year.
