By general admission it has a larger circulation than any other newspaper in this part of the country.

REFORM CONVENTIONS.

Reform conventions for the selecting of candidates to contest East, West and South Huron in the Liberal interest at the coming elections are as follows:

EAST HURON—At Wroxeter, on Saturday next, 20th May.

WEST HURON—At Goderich, on Tuesday, May 22nd.

SOUTH HURON—At Seaford on Friday, May 26.

SLAIN BY HIS FRIENDS.

Perhaps one of the meanest acts ever perpetrated on a political candidate was done Mr. Porter last week by his quondam friends, the Goderich tail of Tories.

On his arrival in Goderich he was taken in hand by Messrs. Johnston, Campbell, Platt, et al, and made to believe that he was their choice beyond all others, and that no effort would be spared by them to secure to him a seat in Parliament.

His candidature was endorsed in Mr. Johnston's office by the cabal, meetings were called at Carlow and in Goderich, and fulsome laudation, and frothy professions of ardent service to elect him was his portion galore—at least so far as he could see.

But there was another side to their shield which Mr. Porter knew not of. At the same time while the members of the cabal were pulling the wool over the eyes of the "unspiculated rustic" from Usborne (as Mr. Porter delights to call himself on the platform), they were conspiring to bury him under a majority of 700 "hived" Grits in South Huron, that a constituency might be opened to one of their number.

On the Thursday preceding Mr. Porter's Goderich meeting, the Conservative convention to nominate a candidate for North Huron was held, and at it Mr. F. W. Johnston was present.

He there met Dr. W. J. R. Holmes, perhaps the cutest Tory politician in all the Hurons. A compact was made between the lawyer and the doctor—and when a lawyer and a doctor combine, heaven help the layman.

THE ELECTIONS.

Despatches from Ottawa state that the writs are now on their way to the constituencies, and that the elections will come off about the 20th of June.

In Huron the Liberal party were never in better spirit. The disgraceful double-shuffle gerrymandering, destroying as it did even the prospects of the three Tory candidates who had been duly nominated in conventions assembled, and burying two of them in one deep grave, has aroused the disgust of some of the more respectable Conservatives, who are ashamed of the present humiliating position of affairs.

Scores of old-time Conservatives are flocking to the standard of "Ontario's Rights and Fair Play," and the three Hurons will swing into line with good Liberal majorities in June.

The "open letter" from Sir Richard Cartwright to the electors of Centre Huron, will not come amiss to the electors of any riding in the gerrymandered counties of Ontario. The question of the iniquitous carving up of fifty-four constituencies to "hive" the Grits, and the obliteration of county boundaries by the present government in clearly and concisely dealt with.

Up to the present time no clue has been discovered that is likely to lead to the arrest of the assassins of Lord Canning and Mr. Burke. The police are at fault, and give evidence of despondency in the matter.

The local Tory prints are bristling against the statement made in THE SIGNAL last week that Mr. Porter was invited to go to Wingham to the Tory North Huron Convention, so that matters could be made smooth for Mr. Farrow's nomination.

There is nothing narrow or crabbed about Mr. Porter, and any one must be pleased with him on the public platform. Indeed it is doubtful whether there is a member at present in the House of Commons who could so well compare with Cicero or Demosthenes as the nominee for South Huron, who should be returned, will be an honor not only to his own constituency, but will reflect lustre on the country as a whole.

Dr. WILD, the well known preacher of Toronto, was a welcome guest at the Conservative convention last fall, and occupied a seat on the platform. The Bond street divine, however, cannot allow the gerrymandering, and in his last Sunday evening's discourse he handled that iniquity in the following vigorous fashion:—"I have not much to do with John A.'s Gerrymandering Bill. I am not troubled about it as I am not going to run for office. Politicians will learn, despite any such bill, that the people have hearts and judgments, and will just do what they think right without rulers dictating to them as in this matter. Our fathers fought for the liberties and privileges that we now enjoy. Let us see that we do not lose any of them."

The first shot in the interest of Reform in the coming campaign in Huron, will be fired at Wroxeter, in East Huron, to-morrow (Saturday). On that day the Ontario's Rights men will meet to select their standard bearer for the coming contest, and it is expected that a large and influential gathering will be present. The name of Dr. Sloan, of Blyth, is confidently mentioned as the coming man, and, as he has done good service in days of adversity, we know of no reason why East Huron should not endorse his nomination, now that the Riding has every chance of being sealed to Reform. One thing is certain, be the nominee whom he may, unanimity will prevail in the Reform ranks, and East Huron will give a good account of itself.

Who killed Porter in South Huron?

The Charlottetown, P. E. I., Patriot, which has been closely watching the proceedings of the session, says it has been proved "during the present session of Parliament that in the discussion of any question that requires in those who deliberate upon it ability, knowledge, breadth of view, and wide sympathy, Hon. Edward Blake stands head and shoulders over the ablest of the members of the present Government."

AN OPEN LETTER.

Address of Sir Richard Cartwright, M. P., to his old constituents in Centre Huron.

To the Electors of Centre Huron. GENTLEMEN:—Within a few days the Constituency to which you have belonged for the past ten years will have ceased to exist.

I do not know that you have much reason to be surprised at this determination. You have been guilty during the whole of the above period of the most unwavering devotion to the principles which you conscientiously believed most likely to advance the true interests of your country, and have further deliberately aggravated your offence by selecting a representative who is personally exceedingly obnoxious to the faction now in power.

For thus presuming to assert your rights as free men, in a free country, you have been sentenced to political extinction, and the very name of the Riding of Centre Huron is to be henceforward blotted out of the list of Canadian constituencies.

Moreover, as it appears that the whole County of Huron is in danger of being given over to Reform influences, the same upright and impartial assembly which has decreed your extinction has decided to remove two townships, containing several thousands of your fellow-citizens (with whom you have been accustomed to act in all municipal and local matters), from the County of Huron to Perth and Middlesex, in order, I presume, to justify the decision which has assigned to Middlesex, with an actual population of 73,335, increasing at the rate of 5,566 in the last decade, four representatives, while at the same time it passes over the claims of Huron with an actual population of 76,968, (increasing at the rate of 10,802 during the same period) to a similar representation, and which is now endeavoring so to divide the remaining Municipalities of Huron, as to ensure that this County, which in 1878 had a total Reform majority of 462, and which, in 1879, returned three Reform Members to the Local Legislature by a total majority of 630, may return two supporters of Sir John A. Macdonald at the next General Election.

Under such circumstances, it remains only to express my own deep and abiding sense of the chivalrous generosity which induce you to elect me then an entire stranger to the constituency, to a seat in Parliament at the very darkest hour of depression of the Reform party, which, still more recently, led you again to tender me the nomination for the Riding; and secondly to invite your attention, as also the attention of other Reformers throughout Canada, to the danger which now threatens our present system of constitutional government.

It has long been known to every constitutional student that our present system of electing representatives is theoretically defective and exposed to serious danger, which would become formidable should the several constituencies ever happen to be so divided that a minority of the voters should control a majority of the seats in Parliament, and should thereupon proceed to abuse the power which accident, or worse, had for a time entrusted to their hands. Hitherto, to the credit of our people be it said, no government has been so dishonest and so indifferent to the force of public opinion as to attempt openly and shamelessly, by virtue of Act of Parliament, to disfranchise large bodies of their political opponents, and it has been reserved for Sir John A. Macdonald and the unscrupulous faction of which he is the head, to make the attempt in Canada.

To what extent this cowardly outrage may succeed it is as yet impossible to say, but whether it succeed or fail, it will be none the less the duty of all true Reformers to consider what measures should be taken to render such attempts impossible in the future. It may be that very wide and far-reaching changes in our whole political organization may become necessary to effect this object. For the moment our attention will inevitably be concentrated on the best methods of defeating this infamous plot to disfranchise a large portion of the electorate of Ontario, but I entertain no doubt that as soon as the heat of the immediate contest is over, Reformers all throughout the Dominion will be prepared to consider the grave questions which this act of fraud and tyranny has introduced into the political arena. As regards the future, I myself feel sanguine that in this, as in many similar cases, the very means on which our opponents so impudently depend to secure a dishonourable victory, will prove the means of consolidating the whole Reform party as one man, and of bringing over to its side many who, up to this time, have hesitated with which party to unite themselves, and who have clamoured for newer and wider issues than those which it was our immediate duty to discuss.

One thing is clear—if, as is possible, and as its authors intend, the result of this scandalous measure should prove to be, that by its means a minority of the majority of Ontario is enabled to represent Ontario in the Dominion Parliament, the whole moral foundation of the authority of that Parliament to legislate for Ontario, at least, is swept away. In view of the course pursued by the Dominion Government and sanctioned by the Dominion Parliament in dealing with the plain rights and privileges of the Province of Ontario, I can conceive nothing more unwise or more likely to destroy our young Confederation, than to give just cause to any large portion of the inhabitants of that Province, for believing that they are deprived of their due share of representation in the Parliament of Canada, the more so, when it is remembered that the Act referred to deliberately applies a principle of distribution to Ontario, which it utterly ignores in every other portion of the Dominion.

With the sincerest wishes for your welfare, personally and politically. Believe me, Yours very faithfully. RICHARD J. CARTWRIGHT.

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.

The Annual Report of the Director.

The annual meeting of the members of the Mechanics' Institute was held in the reading room on Friday evening last. There was a good attendance and after the minutes of the last annual meeting had been read by the Secretary, the report of the Directors for the past year was read and adopted, as follows:—

"In submitting this, the annual report for the year ending May 1st, 1882, your directors have pleasure in announcing an improved and fairly prosperous condition of affairs. The renovation January last, of the pleasant rooms occupied now by the Institute, caused an increased expenditure, not anticipated when the present board assumed office, but the general satisfaction expressed with the change, and the fact that the working expenses are now much less (fully $75 per annum) justifies our action.

During the year a number of public entertainments have been held, with a view to affording pleasing and profitable recreation to the public, and aiding the finances of the Institute. But while these have netted us but little profit, the excellent tone of the programmes offered, has been warmly commended by the patrons of each. We notice with pleasure that there has been considerable increase in the lady members of the Institute. The total membership for the year is 147. The board would acknowledge with thanks the liberal grant from the Town Council of $100, the grant from the Government of $400, and also through the kindness of Huron Lodge I. O. O. F. we received the net profits of an excursion to Brantford, amounting to over $36.00.

LIBRARY AND READING ROOM. During the year the Library and Reading Room have been removed to the new premises and it now situated in the commodious, well-lighted and well-ventilated rooms on the corner of East street and Market Square. At New Years the services of Miss Lewis were secured for the care-taking of the Institute; and the cleanliness of the rooms, the neatness with which the books and periodicals are kept, the methodical manner in which the entries are made and the general improvement in the working of the Institute testify that an excellent selection was made. At the beginning of the year the number of volumes in the library was 768, and we are now pleased to state that this number has been increased to 1003. The following statement gives the number of volumes in the different departments of literature now in the library:—

Table with 2 columns: Department and Number of Volumes. Includes Biography (79), Fiction (179), History (171), Miscellaneous (173), Poetry and Drama (24), Periodical lit. and gen lit. (141), Science and Art and Mechanics (148), Voyages and Travels (88), and 1003 in the reading room are magazines, B, and newspapers.

We consider the library and reading room now placed on an excellent basis, and ample opportunity is offered the residents of Goderich, so that access may be had to the best literature of the day at the lowest possible cost. It is, therefore, hoped that full encouragement will be given to the Institute, in order that the management may have their hands so strengthened that they may be enabled to make still further improvements in the future.

Evening classes, in the subject of book-keeping and drawing, were established during the year in connection with the Institute. The board was fortunate in securing the services of Mr. E. F. Moore as teacher of the book-keeping class, and Mr. Young as drawing master. The large number of pupils, with the very punctual attendance evinced the marked interest taken in these classes. Prizes to the amount of $20 have been awarded to the most successful of the pupils, under a written examination conducted by Mrs. J. R. Miller, I. P. S., and the success of these classes is shown by his report as follows:—

To George Sheppard, Sec. Goderich Mechanics' Institute: Sir,—I have the honor to enclose report on examination of pupils who attended classes in book-keeping and drawing during the year. I think the results are very satisfactory to pupils and teachers, and I think the Directors of Goderich Mechanics' Institute are to be congratulated on their first effort in this new sphere of action. DRAWING.—1 A. Andrews; 2 M. Cooke and M. Seagraver; 3 K. Ball. BOOK-KEEPING.—1 W. A. Rhymas; 2 Jas. Heale; 3 Geo. B. Moore; 4 R. D. Morris; 5 A. Weatherald; 6 B. Mitchell. Your obed't servant. J. R. MILLER, I. P. S. The financial position of the Institute will be shown in detail the treasurer's report. In retiring from the directorate of the Institute, your board would thank you for the confidence shown by electing you to the position, and with very best wishes for the future prosperity of the Institute. We remain yours truly, GEO. SHEPPARD, Sec. FRED. W. JOHNSTON, 1st Vice Pres. The Treasurer's report exhibited a good financial showing, notwithstanding the fact that during the past year nearly $1100 had been disbursed in connection with the Institute, and a balance of $42.27 remained to its credit in the bank. After the adoption of the treasurer's report, the officers for the ensuing year were duly elected as follows:—President, J. H. Colborne; 1st Vice Pres., James Mitchell; 2nd Vice Pres., D. McGillivray; Secretary, Geo. Sheppard; Treasurer, W. R. Miller; Directors—Messrs. White, Rice, Jas. Sheppard and W. Prout of a vote of thanks was moved to be auditors by Mr. D. McGillivray and Mr. W. R. Miller, and carried unanimously.

Moved by Mr. Rice, seconded by Mr. McGillivray, that the thanks of this meeting be tendered to Mr. Alex. Morton, the retiring President, and that he be elected an honorary member of the Board of Directors for the present year. Carried. A vote of thanks was also tendered to the retiring Board of Directors for their efficient services during the past year. The meeting then adjourned.

A Natural Charge.

"Among the charges he made was one to the effect that the officers to be appointed by the Government connected with the management of the electors would conspire to defraud Reform electors."—[Citizen.

"Well, is the charge not natural! If the Government did not intend to use their own creatures for sinister purposes, why alter the law which made responsible gentlemen—agistars and sheriffs—returning officers?"—[Ottawa Free Press.

Ottawa Yearling Around.

Twenty-five electors of the city, who heretofore have voted on Tory ticket, in one polling division, yesterday subscribed their names to the Liberal roll. In every ward of this city old-time Conservatives are flocking to the Liberal standard. They do so because they believe a great Liberal party is rising out of the contest. A party that will overthrow the monopoly monster; abolish the taxes on bread, fuel, light and clothing; restore Provincial autonomy; reform the land laws; protect civil rights; secure commercial freedom; purify Parliament, and place all classes on the same footing before the law.—[Ex.

Hamilton reformers have nominated A. Irving and Dennis Moore as their candidates for the House of Commons. Winnipeg is excited at the doings of fire bugs to whom are attributed the recent fires in that city. One McCarthy, who is suspected of the crime, and has been remanded, had a narrow escape from lynching.

Mr. Dennis Moore the well-known stove manufacturer of Hamilton, will prove a very strong candidate for the Liberal party, and will go the polls on the popular cry, "Free coal and raw material for the manufacturers." Mr. Rymal, M. P., was recently presented by his Reform associates in Parliament with a gold watch and chain. Mr. Rymal is retiring from political life after twenty-five years of active service in the Reform ranks. All feel that his withdrawal will be a great loss to the country.

In Palestine, Ind., Hessler's saloon was blown up by dynamite on Saturday, May 13th ult., by radical temperance men. An old man upstairs had his leg broken. This is the third time the saloon has been blown up. An indignation meeting was held, and a reward for the perpetrators offered. A statement has been going the rounds of our exchanges to the effect that the British shilling was only worth twenty cents. Such is not the case. An enquiry was recently made at the office of the Receiver General, Toronto, when it was found that no such order had emanated from Ottawa. The English shilling is legal tender except at Post Office savings bank. An English crown is still worth sixty cents; a shilling, twenty-four cents; a six pence, twelve cents; and a three penny piece, six cents. The form or two shilling piece, however, is only worth forty-five.

While Canon Murphy was preaching a sermon in Dublin on Monday last, against the outrages in St. Kevin's chapel, he was noticed to raise his hand to his head suddenly, reel, and fall over the pulpit. Several members of the congregation, among them a physician, rushed to his assistance, when it was discovered that he was dead. The greatest excitement ensued among the congregation, and the services were brought to an abrupt termination. Physicians announced that his death was caused by apoplexy.

At a recent meeting of the Quarterly Board of the Canada Methodist Church, Bayfield Circuit, the returns from each appointment show that the circuit is in a healthy financial condition, only one appointment out of six having any deficiency. The board passed a resolution expressing their regret that they were soon to lose their present pastor, the Rev. J. Livingstone, and thanking him for the able manner in which he had conducted the business of this circuit for the last three years. Rev. J. S. Cook, junior pastor, was invited back for a second year.

The traffic over the Midland is in all classes of freight usually heavy just now. The lumber freights in particular have run up beyond anything before experienced in the history of the road, and it taxes the rolling stock of the road to the utmost to handle it. In fact, the heavy trains passing south over the main line are almost beyond the power of the engines to haul. Many of the locomotives have a double set of hands, and no sooner do they arrive at Port Hope than they immediately return with a stock to the stopping points. Every description of car is pressed into service, and the load is piled unusually high, and are of corresponding weight. Even with its equipment of forty-three locomotives, the Midland is necessitated to put on new ones, which are arriving every week.
