MUNICIPAL MATTERS

A False Move at the Start.

Mr. Editor,—
I hasten to pay my respects to the new Municipal Council and to open an acquaintance with the members of that responsible body which may be of some duration, which I should wish to be cordial, but certainly shall be candid. It would have been very gratifying to me, who have criticised their predecessors with some sharpness, to have been able to fill my first letter to our new governors with words of congratulation, encouragement and kindly counsel, to have assured them of my willingness to think the best of them and to anticipate good results from their tenure of office. It is really painful to be compelled at the very outset to adopt towards them an attitude which must be critical, and which may be hostile. Perhaps that is stating the case too strongly, for nothing has yet occurred to lead us to believe that any single Councillor will follow the lead of Mr. Mullally. It is most devoutly to be hoped, for the honour and credit of the city, that none of them will. It was with something of a shock that I read the notice of motion which Mr. Mullally filed at the meeting of Council last night. This gentleman, who is not yet seated for twenty-four hours in office, is desirous of inaugurating the new regime by a wholesale attack upon the integrity of its predecessor. He wants the Council immediately to cause an audit to be made of the financial affairs of the Council during the whole period of the mayoralty of Mr. Gibbs. Such a motion as this, made at such a time, is happily unprecedented in our history. The demand for an audit can only be made with the expectation of discovering and exposing peculation and dishonesty. This audit can serve no other purpose than this. It cannot be urged that the finances of the city have not been looked into and reported upon regularly, for every year an official audit is made by the Auditor General and his report is annually laid upon the table of the Assembly. Matters must be technically right. It therefore follows that a new and independent audit will be to disclose matters of fraud or concealment which have misled the official auditor and will justify the city in incurring a large expense and much scandal, to unearth and expose. This is a very serious thing to do, and a very outrageous thing to do at this moment. Many members of this new Council are anxious gentlemen inaugurate their career by an act of scandalous injustice to wards those who preceded them in office. When once it is shown that there is good reason to believe that the late Council has been corrupt I shall be as ready as any man to call for an audit, and for a prosecution, if necessary. But I am not ready to recommend such a course until cause for it is shown. And I am sure that Mr. Mullally has not, within twenty-four hours of his entrance upon his office, made such discoveries as warrant the Council in recording their suspicion and reasonable certainty of the unfaithfulness of the late Council. Mr. Mullally may have some suspicions. If he has, let him use his time in verifying those suspicions, and when he has made out a case sufficient, strong to justify him in making a charge, let him make the charge and call for an investigation by auditors. Until he does this it becomes him to do nothing which may asperse the reputations of men whom the city thought worthy of trust. Public life would be quite unbearable if officials were to enter upon their duties with the certainty that their successors would seize the first opportunity of overhauling their whole conduct with a view to fasten upon them the imputation of dishonesty. I believe with all my heart in full and dispassionate enquiry into every case where wrong doing can with a show of justice be charged against an official, but I do not believe in instituting enquiries for the mere purpose of verifying suspicions which may only be the product of diseased imagination. Such things as this it is which deter decent men from entering public life. A decent man does not like to begin a career where it will from the very first be assumed that he is a rogue. Let Mr. Mullally reconsider his position and withdraw this most obnoxious motion. I have no objection to his pushing his enquiries into the late Council's affairs as far as he can, or to his calling for an official enquiry in the event of his discovering any boodling on the part of Mr. Gibbs and the gentlemen who assisted him as Councillors. But ordinary decency requires that these gentlemen shall retain the character for probity which the city gave them when it elected them to office until good cause is shown for withdrawing from them the good opinion which was registered in the ballot box. I dare say that I know as much as Mr. Mullally about the financial management of the city during the last four years, and I hope to have some very pertinent criticisms of the way in which our city fathers dealt with our money matters. But I know nothing which can lead me to believe that there has been any personal want of integrity on the part of any Councillor, nor do I believe that Mr. Mullally knows anything. And until I know something of that sort I protest against the reputation of the city being dishonoured by any such enquiry as Mr. Mullally seeks.

Nutritive Hypophosphites

When a person feels "bliss" "all tired out"—"doesn't feel like doing anything"—cannot concentrate his mind on his work—feels weak mentally and physically—doubts his powers—complains of poor appetite and sleeplessness—suffers from headaches—then his nervous system is run-down and demands a good up-building tonic. Nervous exhaustion is a modern disease, caused by too close attention to business, overwork, worry, devotion to trying family cares over-study, etc. Nutritive Hypophosphites forms the best nerve and brain food known, and have restored thousands of sufferers to health. Large bottle, $1.00.

Yours truly,
July 16th, 1910. REFORM.

Here and There.

League Football, St. George's Field, 7 o'clock this evening, C. E. I. versus Feildians. Admission, Adults, 5 cts.; boys, 2 cts.; ladies, free; grand stand, 5 cts. extra.

TO INSPECT RAILWAY.—Messrs. W. D. Reid, Plimsoll and Dr. Paterson left by last evening's express to inspect the new branch line of railway. They will be out at the work several days and will go over the whole branch line.

CHURCH ORGAN for sale cheap. A two manual Mason & Hamlin Organ with foot pedal attachment. Is in splendid condition and most suitable for a small church or school. The White Piano and Organ Store, CHESLEY WOODS.—July 8, 1910.

FEILDANS vs. C. E. I. PLAY.—The Feildians and C. E. I. teams meet on St. George's Field in the League football match this evening. Both are good teams and the outcome of the match between them will be awaited with interest.

LARACY'S have just received direct from the manufacturers per "Dreaning Maud", from Antwerp, Tumblers, Glasses, Decanters, Goblets and Fancy Glassware. Selling at our usual low prices at LARACY'S 45 and 347 Water Street, opposite Post Office, may 14, 1910.

NOTE OF THANKS.—Mrs. Denmore and family desire to thank Dr. and Mrs. Duncan and Lunatic Asylum staff, Miss DeWolf, Miss Bolt and Mr. Stanley for wreaths, also all kind friends who sent notes of sympathy to them in their recent bereavement.

AT MOUNT DORSET.—The ladies of St. Andrew's Church are making zealous preparations for the garden party at Mount Dorset, which is one of the most beautiful spots in the suburbs. The event will take place on Wednesday next. Fine weather; all that is required to ensure success.

COCHRANE ST. CHURCH.—Rev. R. H. Maddock preached a vigorous sermon on "The Good Man and the Badly" at Cochrane St. Church last night. Rev. Alfred B. Woods now here on a visit from the States and several clergymen of the city were also present. Mr. Mews presided at the organ and Miss Curtis rendered a charming solo.

RESCUED FROM DROWNING.—A boy named Hallett accidentally fell over the wharf Saturday afternoon and had a narrow escape from drowning. A young man named Dempsey, who was on the pier, jumped after him and rescued him in an exhausted condition. Dempsey deserves credit for his prompt and plucky action.

C. L. B. vs. C. C. C.—Instead of the Highlanders at C. C. C. playing in tomorrow night's inter-brigade football match, the C. L. B. and C. C. C. will meet, as the Highlanders are going to camp for the week and cannot play. The C. C. C. and C. L. B. are two evenly matched teams and a good game should take place.

AT GOWER ST. CHURCH.—Rev. Mr. Hutcheson, of North Dakota, who is here on a visit, preached at Gower St. Methodist Church yesterday morning, delivering an excellent sermon. Those present who remembered the fire of 1892, which destroyed old Gower St. Church, were reminded that he had also occupied the pulpit on the Sunday morning preceding that great conflagration.

Badly Hurt In Thresher

Blood poison set in—Great suffering—Cure effected by Dr. A. W. CHASE'S OINTMENT.
Mrs. C. Hopkins, St. George, Ont., writes:—"I feel like shouting the praises of Dr. Chase's Ointment. While threshing grain, my son got badly hurt. One of the men who was pitching sheaves, missed the sheaf and ran the point of the fork into my son's leg. He did not take much notice of it and in a day or two it got sore and very itchy and blood poison set in. We did everything for it but it would heal one place and break out at another and kept on this way for three months. Finally I thought of Dr. Chase's Ointment and in a week's time we noticed a wonderful change. By the use of three boxes he was completely cured and the wounds healed up. There has not been a sign of a spot on him since." Wherever there is itching or irritation of the skin or a sore that refuses to heal you can apply Dr. Chase's Ointment with every assurance that the results will be prompt and satisfactory. 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edman, Bait, & Co., Toronto. ### At Mount Carmel. Looking for O'Brien. They Fought Fiercely.

Yesterday's Mortuary Requiem Service—Thousands Throng the Grounds.

Long before the appointed hour for the ceremonies yesterday thousands had assembled at Mount Carmel Cemetery, and spent the intervening time in viewing the improvements to the grounds carried out faithfully by the committee under the direction of His Grace Archbishop Howley. The Cemetery is indeed an ideal spot, sloping as it does down the sunny incline and looking towards the beautiful lake of Quidi Vidi. The picture presented yesterday morning was not one soon to be forgotten. Thousands knelt at the grave plots of departed friends. The neatness of the walks, the newly trimmed graves ornamented with choice flowers, the rich foliage of the poplar, lilac, and flowering shrubs, all told of the care and attention for the beloved dead.

Rev. Dr. Kitchen and the acolytes arrived in a carriage at 10.15, and shortly afterwards the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass began. At the conclusion the Celebrant ascended the steps at the entrance of the Chapel and addressed the multitude in fervent and earnest words, taking as his text as follows:—"It is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from their sins." He spoke for over half an hour, and many eyes were bedimmed with tears. The doctrine of the Resurrection of the Body, as one of the fundamental truths of Christianity, was expatiated upon, and the consoling Catholic doctrine of the merit of prayers for the departed souls in Purgatory.

Great credit is due the sexton, Mr. Geo. Bassett, for the beautiful appearance of the walks, trees, etc.—Com.

St. Patrick's Church.

COMPLETION COMMITTEE MEETING.
The regular fortnightly meeting of the General Committee was held on yesterday morning. Very Rev. Dean Born presiding. The chairman announced that he had during the week deposited to the credit of the fund $180, making the total amount deposited to date $2,586.00. After the transaction of some minor business, the meeting adjourned. The Finance and Building Committees will hold a special meeting on next Sunday, after Last Mass.

GARDEN PARTY.—The ladies who will have tables at Mount Cashel garden party will meet on Thursday next at Mount Cashel to arrange for their places on the ground.

Looking for O'Brien.

M. J. McNeirny, Attorney of Gloucester, Mass., writes the police department here that he has directed to Halifax notices to four heirs of one John Lynch, a man about 50, who died recently at Gloucester. They are sisters and brothers—Mary, Bridget, Cornelius and John O'Brien, children of Mary O'Brien, a sister of deceased John J. Lynch. Their mother died in Halifax and was for many years a resident of this city. Mary O'Brien and her brother, John J. Lynch, came from Newfoundland. Anybody knowing the addresses of the parties named can communicate with Detective Hanrahan.—Halifax Echo.

They Fought Fiercely.

Saturday evening two men who were under the influence of drink fought fiercely in Williams' Lane and had each other's faces badly cut when officer Lee arrived. He placed them under arrest, when one of the men attacked him and the officer had all he could do until assisted by Const. McGrath and Fire Const. Reardon. The men were handcuffed after great difficulty and were taken to the station.

A Warm Welcome.

Gower Street Epworth League will accord Rev. H. P. Cowperthwaite and his assistant a warm welcome to-night on the occasion of their taking up the work of the circuit for the coming year. His resuming the position of Superintendent is a source of gratification to his many friends and admirers, and to his young colleague, though he is a stranger, a warm reception will be given him also. The congregation is looking forward to a year of successful work.

WILL CALL AT TRINITY.

The s.s. Fogota will call at Trinity tomorrow to land several St. John's people who go to be present at the wedding of Mr. Baird and Miss Ash.
