

DIAMOND DUST

Nothing But the Truth—Without Fear or Favour.

LIMERICK GEMS.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the dust
Had pierced his thin crust.
After which he fell into a creek.
—Stenog.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the dust
Had pierced his thin crust.
But will play the next game, if he can "retrieve."
—H. F. N.
34 Charlton St., St. John's.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the dust
Had pierced his thin crust.
To the extreme delight of "Peegoe."
—Annette M. Jeans,
Macklin Place.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the dust
Had pierced his thin crust.
When he spoke of the Irish "beleague."
Or the following—
And he cried for the Irish "beleague."
And he cried "Peegoe Renege."
—S. J. H., c/o Telegram Office.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the dust
Had pierced his thin crust.
And spoiled him for Baseball Intrigue.
—P. I. T., c/o West End P.O., Riverhead.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the dust
Had pierced his thin crust.
But dug in when he thought of Bologna Sausage.
—C. A. Collins,
12 Maxse St.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the dust
Had pierced his thin crust.
And carried right on to his leg.
—J. J. B.,
8 Mackay St., City.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the dust
Had pierced his thin crust.
Now he's wearing a "dust" proof
"weegee" (wig).
—(Miss) "OULJA",
c/o J.H. G.P.O.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the dust
Had pierced his thin crust.
Diamond Dust, Hi(L)tz fine so to speak.
—J. W. R.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the dust
Had pierced his thin crust.
Then he snorted and groaned like a p(e)ig.
—P.O. 512.

"You Tell 'Em" are still pouring in but as the competition is closed there is no object to be gained in publishing them—unless of course they have a relation to the players or the game.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
Had pierced his thin crust
And now a new Umpire they Lique.
—E.J.C.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
Had pierced his thin crust
But of what use are tooth-picks to
"Peeg."
—E.J.C.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.

Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
Had pierced his thin crust
To protect it he now wears a wig.
—Pearl James, 3 Brazil's Square.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
Had pierced his thin crust
Buck up Hiltz! You shouldn't renege
—R. F. Carter, 334 Duckworth St.

A player well known to the League,
Got weary and dropped of fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
He pierced his thin crust
And got off his base—poor "Peeg."
—W.A.H., P.O. Box 1189

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
Had pierced his thin crust
And "Dust" writer is now under siege.
—C.P.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
Had pierced his thin crust
But who cares? He was always a plague.
—W. H. Jessop, 194 Duckworth St.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
Had pierced his thin crust
So they doctored his caput with
"Hair."
—C.D.P.J., c/o Evening Telegram.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
Had pierced his thin crust
And at Ellis's NUT, Hiltz threw a doughnut (doughing).
—Ida Allan, 14 Water St.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
Had pierced his thin crust
Now he swears he's fed up with intrigue.
—C.D.P.J., c/o Evening Telegram.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
Had pierced his thin crust
And made him feel small as a fegee (fig).
—(Miss) "OULJA",
c/o J.H. G.P.O.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
Had pierced his thin crust
He said "leave it to Coke for intrigue."
—Miss X.Y.Z.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
Had pierced his thin crust
So 'twill take Lawyer Dick to handle the intrigue.
—Mercedes A., City.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
Had pierced his thin crust
And the coacher got ahead with his supermelligorous intrigue.
—An "F.F.M.O." Fan.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
Had pierced his thin crust
But Tanlac fixed him up in a weegee.
—W.J.C.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
Had pierced his thin crust
He regretted Peegoe was so big.
—Bob Harris, 87 Quidi Vidi Road.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.

A player well known to the League,
Was found dropping weak from fatigue.

Was found dropping weak from fatigue.
For a verse in the "Dust"
Had pierced his thin crust
And ruined his splendid physique.
—Miss Marjorie Barker,
163 LeMarchant Road.

For years past Newfoundlanders have visited with pleasure, as often as was possible, the great capital of our Empire, "London". This world has only one London, and London has only one great Perfume, and that Perfume is Chambrade; and every person from this country was sure to bring back some of this with them. BISHOP'S are now Newfoundland agents for this wonderful Perfume, Face Powders, Shampoo, Talcum, etc. Habitual users will find this a great convenience.

Odds and Ends.

January always begins on the same day of the week as October, and the same is true of April and July, September and December. Again, February, March, and November also begin on the same day of the week. This, however, is only true in normal years of 365 days. A century can never begin on Wednesday, Friday, or Saturday. Furthermore, the ordinary year ends on the same day of the week as that on which it begins.

London is no longer the most popular city in the world. Greater New York, according to the latest returns, now claims over 8,000,000 inhabitants, against the 7,400,000 of Greater London. Estimates in 1914 showed New York to be only 100,000 inhabitants behind. But it is perhaps a little of a shock to find that London is now headed by getting on for a million. Paris, Chicago, Petrograd, Tokio, Berlin, and Vienna are the only other cities that have passed 2,000,000.

The most curious contract ever entered into by an operatic star was surely that of Farinelli, who, about the year 1734, was deriving an income of £5,000 per annum. This singer afterwards visited Spain, where the King, Philip V., was suffering from mental depression, from which nothing aroused him until the advent of Farinelli.
The Queen was so delighted to see her Royal spouse once more interested in anything that she engaged Farinelli at a salary of £2,000 to remain in Madrid. This he did, singing the same four songs to the King every night for ten years. Eventually Philip succumbed, but he must have been a patient monarch.
