The Bay City Regatta.

The Races arranged for at Lady Lake, on Wednesday, were held (in part) on that day. The morning opened cloud, and for a time there were indications of rain. About 11 o'clock the weather cleared enough to warrant the Committee calling the first race. The wind was light from the Westward, changing at about one o'clock to North and then to East. The third race was rowed through a heavy shower, and after the fourth race the conditions were such that the Committee postponed the remaining four events until Thursday afternoon.

Yesterday the weather was more favorable and at 3 p.m. the first race was rowed and only one other followed. The Juvenile and the Cup races were cancelled, owing to crews not coming forward to compete in them. At 5 p.m. the last was finished and the racing ended.

The contests the first day were mostly fought by the sturdy rowers and several "dark horses" changed calculations somewhat. The Bessie won four first, one second and one third prize; the Maggie one first, two second and three third prizes; the Prince Albert, one first, one second and one third prize; and the Wanie two second and one third prize.

The quickest time for the first day was made by the Maggie (Mechanics) 13.29, and this was beaten on the second by the Bessie (All-Comers) 13.14. The last named crew received the bonus of Ten Dollars for the quickest time.

The following is the record of the six races:

Amateurs—Bessie, Prince Albert, Maggie, Winnie. Time 14.30 2-5.

Tradesmen—Maggie, Winnie, Bessie. Time 13.20 4-5.

Veterans—Prince Albert, Bessie, Maggie, Winnie. Time 14.09 4-5.

Fishermen—Bessie, Maggie, Winnie, Prince Albert. Time 13.21 4-5.

All-Comers—Bessie, Maggie, Prince Albert, Winnie. Time 13.33 4-5.

All-Comers—Bessie, Winnie, Maggie. Time 13.14 1-5.

The Committee deserve a full measure of credit for their work in bringing off the programme for the benefit of the public. Their undertaking entailed considerable work, and it is to their credit that under the many difficulties that had to be grappled with, they succeeded in giving the public an enjoyable day's outing. Oversight must be expected and while it is easy for the many to criticize, forethought, tact and decisive action are ever to be met with in all undertakings, private and public. The members of the committee did their work satisfactory and the thanks of the public are due to them for their labors, which they voluntarily undertook and faithfully performed in the interests of sports and recreation. Had the programme been completed on Wednesday, none or very little complaint would have been heard, and as the committee are unaccountable for weather conditions, the fullest credit should be accorded them. The Standard thanks them for their work in affording a day's good sport and an enjoyable day's outing.

The following were members of the committee:

John Tapp (Chairman), W. Carson, E. Rogers, F. C. Archibald, M.H.A., J. Neil, W. A. McKay, W. W. French, R. Telford, Edward Sheppard, E. D. Freeman, W. H. Harris, H. Martin, Secretary.

Starters and Judges—Robert Telford and Edmund Rodgers.

Time-Keepers—E. D. Freeman and W. H. Harris.

The prize list:

Amateurs—Medals.

Mechanics—1st $16; 2nd $10; 3rd $6.

Sailor-Soldier—1st $16; 2nd $10; 3rd $6.

Fish-Laborers—1st $16; 2nd $10; 3rd $6.

All-Comers—1st $16; 2nd $10; 3rd $6.

All-Comers—1st, $16; 2nd $10; 3rd $6.

The quickest time was made by the Bessie, (L. Sheppard, Cox.), crewed by J. Pynn, Jr., H. Taylor, G. Thomey and F. Taylor.

NOTES.

Some of the winners in the Sailors and Soldiers Race on Wednesday, declined to accept the cash prizes, as they wish to preserve their amateur standing for participation in sport generally. Medals or other prizes should be provided in lieu of money for the men who took part in that race, which was considered by the spectators to be one of the most interesting, if not the most popular item on the programme.

Every aid should be given to encourage amateur sport, and the committee in charge can assist in that element among our young men by deciding to give medals, etc., instead of cash prizes.

The crew of veterans who manned the Winnie showed a true spirit of sport. The boat was without a crew and would not have entered the Sailor-Soldier race, but the boys were sporty and manned her for the contest. They did not win, but they showed pluck. Messrs. John Hunt, K. Sheppard, Fred. Chafe and Lal Parsons, the emergency crew, are to be complimented on their pluck.

The providing of a suitable wharf at the Lake would tend to greater satisfaction to the committee, the boat-owners and spectators. Year after year money has been spent in building a temporary wharf, the total of which would put a useful structure near the starting point. Failing that provision, separate landing places for the boats would be an improvement.

News From Marystown.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir—I hope a few remarks from this part of our Dominion may prove interesting to some of your readers. The shore fishery so far has not been up to the standard, though the schooners and larger boats, fishing at Cape St. Mary's and Burin Bank have done fairly well; and if weather conditions prove favorable until the conclusion of operations, the voyage on the whole will be a fair one; though the pessimist is on his rounds with doleful countenance, predicting all kinds of calamities, such as; the failure of Coaker's Fishery Regulations; bad Hay crops, etc. But the people don't pay any attention to him, as the pessimist is found in every community, and like the poor he will be always with us. But there are indications for a brighter future for Marystown; our young men, who in years gone by, emigrated to Canada and other places to seek employment, are remaining at home and building homes for themselves; and with that energy and industry so characteristic of the men of the S. W. Coast, are determined to make a living in their own country, and the fact that the Royal Bank of Canada have, the past year, erected a large and up-to-date building in order to accommodate their ever increasing business, are things that need no comment. We had the great pleasure of a visit from His Grace the Archbishop, accompanied by Rev. Father McGrath (Bell Isl.) Rawlins and Savin on Friday, August 13th, on the S.S. Carmen, which ship was gaily decked with bunting in honour of the distinguished Prelate, and flags were flying on all the business places and quite a number of private residences. His Grace was met on landing by our esteemed pastor, Rev. Dr. McGrath, and members of the Holy Name Society, and amidst volleys of musketry and cheers from a large crowd who had assembled on the wharf to greet him, was taken by motor boat to the Presbytery, where the party were the guests of Rev. Dr. McGrath. During his stay amongst us, His Grace won the hearts of all our people by his gracious manner and sympathetic kindness to young and old, and most of us expected he would remain for our annual Garden Party, but owing to other arrangements, he had to leave us on Sunday, at noon. Our Garden Party was held on Monday, August 16th, and proved a great success, the people came from the different settlements, all dressed in holiday attire, each bent on having a good time, and in this they were not disappointed, as the committee in charge had done everything in their power to provide for the day's amusements. Tables were erected in the cool shade of the tall fir trees on the Convent grounds, where refreshments of all kinds and temperance drinks were served during the day, and dancing galleries were erected on the green, where young people seemed to enjoy themselves thoroughly. The sight of these dancing galleries brought the writer's mind back to twenty-five years ago, when similar stands were erected on Ross's Farm at the annual Regatta, where young and care free, we tripped the light fantastic to the sweet tune of Stewart Taylor's violin. I understand that Stewart has passed to the Great Beyond, if so, I trust that instead of the crude instrument constructed by the hands of man, he is playing on a golden harp, studded with jewels and precious stones, and under the tuition of the celestial choir-master, is helping in no small measure to swell the mighty chorus that is ever ascending to Him who sitteth upon the throne. One could not help admiring the splendid spirit of good fellowship and co-operation of our Grand Bank friends, who are at present residing in Marystown; who by their participation in the different sports, contributed in no small measure to the day's enjoyment. One of the principal events of the day was the inter-town football match between our boys and a picked team from Burin; the Burners brought over a splendid combination of kickers, and our boys were a bit nervous at first, but as the game proceeded this soon wore off, and our boys settled down to work; but nevertheless things looked pretty blue for a while, and when the half-time whistle blew the game stood, Burin 1, Marystown 0. On resuming play our boys seemed determined, and with that dash and tenacity which characterizes the Celt and Anglo-Saxon, which, by the way, is a combination hard to beat, when working in harmony together, succeeded in nothing up two goals in quick succession, amidst the wildest enthusiasm. The Burin boys worked hard to try and equalize matters, but to no avail and the game closed, Marystown 2, Burin 1. Though the Burin team were defeated by the small margin of one goal, I must congratulate them on their splendid play. They proved themselves to be clean sports. During the afternoon teas were served in our Parish Hall, which by the way, is one of the finest buildings of its kind in the country. When the shades of evening began to fall, dancing was renewed on the upper story of the hall, and kept up until early hours of the morning, concluding our 1920 Garden Party, which on the whole, proved a splendid success, both socially and financially. I understand that our football team have received a challenge from Grand Bank footers, and like true sports, they promptly accepted, and will be leaving for that town about the last of the month, where I am sure they will receive a royal welcome and have a jolly time; if not a jolly time, they will at least have a good time, as our Grand Bank friends are consistent Prohibitionists, and will not look upon the wine when it is red. But I trust they will have a pale substitute that will prove equally as stimulating. Hoping I have not trespassed too much on your valuable space.

I remain,
Yours truly,
STELLA MARIS.

Just Folks

Practice.

Always whenever I want to play I've got to practice an hour a day. Get through breakfast an' make my bed.

And Mother says: "Marjorie, run ahead! There's a time for work and a time for fun. So go and get your practising done."

And Bud, he chuckles and says to me: "Yes, do your practising, Marjorie. A brother's an awful tease, you know. And he just says that cause I hate it so."

They leave me alone in the parlor there. To the scales or "The Mallets Prayer."

And if I stop, Mother's bound to call. "Marjorie, dear, you're not playing at all!"

Don't waste your time, but keep right on. Or you'll have to stay when the hour is gone."

Or maybe the maid looks in at me And says: "You're not playing, as I can see."

Just hustle along—I've got work to do And I can't dust the room until you get through."

Then when I've run over the scales and things Like "The Fairies Dance," or "The Mountain Springs," And my fingers ache and my head is sore, I find I must sit down a half hour more.

An hour is terribly long I say When you've got to practice and want to play. So slowly at times has the big hand dropped That I was sure that the clock had stopped.

And Mother called down to me: "Don't forget—A full hour, please. It's not over yet."

Oh, when I get big and have children, There's one thing that I will never do—I won't have brothers to tease the girls And make them mad when they pull their curls And laugh at them when they've got to stay.

And practice their music an hour a day; I won't have a maid like the one we've got That likes to boss you around a lot, And I won't have a clock that can go so slow When it's practice time, 'cause I hate them so.

Mainly About People.

A woman in Quebec, making application for admission to the United States, stated that she is 29 years old, and that her father was killed in the Civil War.

Lieut. Townley, an officer in the Canadian service, needing surgical attention, was taken from Camp Borden in an airplane to a Toronto hospital in 40 minutes.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, the creator of "Sherlock Holmes," and of recent years an advocate of the doctrines of spiritualism, says he is "determined to fulfill his mission and carry on this message of truth and comfort."

Accompanied by his family, he is voyaging soon to Australia and New Zealand at his own expense to lecture. "I shall be financially ruined when I am finished," he said, "but the mission is worth it. And my boy who died in the war is accompanying me, too. I spoke to him last night and he promised to follow and assist me."

The case of Debs, nominated for president while condemned in prison, is brought to mind by a somewhat similar instance in France, where a man debarred by law from the rights of citizenship, has been elected to public office. Ex-Premier Calliaux, who was sentenced to banishment by the Senate for "defeatism" and lives in the District of Marnes, which he used to represent in the Chamber of Deputies, has been elected chairman of the Agricultural Commission of the Department of the Sarthe. Calliaux was deprived of citizenship by the Senate and therefore is not eligible to public office.
