

TODAY'S MESSAGES.

FIROPO SCORES ANOTHER VICTORY.

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., July 28. — Angel Firopo knocked out Joe in the second round of the scheduled ten round bout here tonight.

SHIPS PREPARING TO LEAVE CAPE BRETON.

SYDNEY, N.S., July 28. — Although no officer of rank in the fleet will admit having received orders to evacuate Cape Breton, preparations are proceeding daily for the departure from the island. The military forces called here a month ago yesterday. The detachment at Sydney and detachments from other points are being called. Very few Provincial police are seen in the district.

RE CHINESE.

OTTAWA, ONT., July 28. — Registration of all persons of Chinese origin or descent in Canada provided for by order in council passed this week in accordance with legislation passed at the last session of Parliament. Regulations governing Chinese in Transit through Canada in accordance with legislation are also gazetted. Such Chinese made subject to medical examination for certain diseases including leprosy and tuberculosis.

RE VOTES FOR FEDERATION.

HALIFAX, N.S., July 28. — The Board of Governors of King's College, Windsor voted sixteen to ten to-night in favor of Federation their college with Dalhousie University at Halifax. This is announced as the final decision of kings and is anticipated the college will open in the fall instead of in the latter part of the year. Kings was founded in the 16th century and is the oldest college in British Dominions over seas. It is Anglican Institution.

POTATOES TO MEET FOOD SCARCITY.

BERLIN, July 28. — In consequence of the food difficulties, the Chancellor Cuno has telegraphed to the heads of the various agricultural organizations appealing to them to start the early potato crop on the market with the least possible delay.

COMMUNISTS CALL OFF DEMONSTRATION.

BERLIN, July 28. — Communists have decided to call off their open air demonstrations. Demonstrations will be confined to meetings set for Sunday to honor gatherings which will be under rigid police surveillance all over Germany.

GERMANY MAY HAVE TO STAND ALONE.

LONDON, July 28. — An opinion that Great Britain eventually will be obliged to send aid to German reparations note dependency of France, is strengthened by latest reports from Paris although it is believed in some quarters that Belgium will be able to give aid that separates two powers at present.

DISSATISFACTION IN INDIA OVER SITUATION IN KENYA COLONY.

LONDON, July 28. — Cable despatches from India indicate considerable dissatisfaction with the Government's handling of the situation in Kenya Colony and its proposed remedial measures which were disclosed in Government white paper this week.

DISSATISFACTION IN DUSSELDORF OVER SITUATION IN KENYA COLONY.

LONDON, July 28. — Despatch to Daily Mail from Düsseldorf says the question of food and supplies are growing acute. Food supplies are slowly decreasing and only few shopkeepers keep open all day. The despatch adds that the Ruhr is steadily calm but that underneath quieting symptoms are discernable. People are sick of being coerced and would like to end the situation but will not yield. Passive resistance has lost a certain number of supporters but it still remains a very definite attitude to peace. The correspondence predicts that resistance will end about three months "when the people are faced with approaching winter without coal or work and perhaps without food."

HORRIFIED CROWD WITNESS GASTLY TRAGEDY.

NORTH BERGEN, N.J., July 28. — While about fifty persons looked on, two great Dane dogs virtually tore to pieces Joseph Genasi, a one year old child of West Hoboken. The child died before the ambulance reached North Hudson hospital. Adolpho Benz, owner of the dogs, was arrested on a technical charge of manslaughter. The boy was on his way home with his children when he decided to take a look inside the park. As soon as he got inside the dogs attacked him and he was unable to retreat. At the hospital his jugular vein was found to have been severed, causing the lad to bleed to death.

The Royal Stores, Ltd.

A Midsummer Luxury.

One of the grandest luxuries imaginable, is close association with the scent of flowers. There is a peculiar, fascinating appeal in a good perfume, which instantly creates delight.

It is not always possible to be closely associated with real flowers, but the odor of Richard Hudnut's THREE FLOWERS PERFUME is as fragrant and beautiful as the natural flowers—for this perfume is made from real choice flowers gathered in the world's finest and most select gardens.

THREE FLOWERS PERFUME is present to a pleasing degree in the Face Powder, Talcum and Vanishing Cream bearing this name, and all are delightful toilet aids that any lady will find great pleasure in using.

We are now well stocked with THREE FLOWERS toilet goods of all descriptions, and will be pleased to serve you.
