BIG SPORTING EVENT WAS HUGE SUCCESS. CLOSELY CONTESTED BOUTS FEATURE OF TOURNAMENT.

As predicted, the big Boxing and Wrestling Tournament, held in the C. L. B. Armoury last night, was by far the best event of its kind ever witnessed in this city. From a financial standpoint, the receipts were beyond all expectations. The spacious building was packed to the utmost capacity with an audience of over 2,000. Included in the gathering was a large number of the fair sex, and to all appearances they enjoyed the bouts equally as much as the men. Long before the hour of starting the ring-side seats were all bought up, and standing room was at a premium.

BOXING SEMI-FINALS.

Flyweight.
J. Burgess (110lbs.) vs. G. Canal (121lbs.). Won by Burgess on points.

Special Bout.
H. Parsons (78lbs.) vs. J. Brady (76lbs.). Parsons, the winner, secured the one and only fall by a body hold in six minutes and ten seconds.

Featherweight.
F. Nelder (124lbs.) vs. B. Chancyer (122lbs.). Chancyer won by a fall in 10 minutes and 23 seconds. Body hold and half nelson.

Lightweight.
C. Stone (131lbs.) was pitted against A. Hennebury in the final; but owing to receiving injuries during one of his workouts, he was compelled to drop out. Mr. T. Hall, who was defeated by Chancyer in the Featherweight Class on the night of the Preliminaries, consented to go on in his stead.

A. Hennebury (132lbs.) vs. T. Hall (122lbs.). Won by Hennebury in two falls. The first fall was secured with a scissors and double arm hold, in 5.44 seconds. The second fall was won in 2 minutes and 42 seconds, with a scissors and a straight arm hold.

Middleweight.

H. Adams (156lbs.) Unopposed. Adams was declared the title holder.

EXHIBITION BOXING.

O. Burt vs. LaFosse (117lbs.): This bout tickled the crowds fancy. Two rounds of fast tapping was a feature.

BOXING.

Bantamweight.
S. LaFosse (117lbs.) Unopposed. LaFosse was declared the title holder.

Featherweight.

W. Ivany (126lbs.) vs. G. Brocklehurst (123lbs.). Brocklehurst won by a knockout in 42 seconds by a right hook to the jaw.

Lightweight.

F. Marshall (133lbs.) vs. F. Kelly (135lbs.). Marshall won on a technical knockout in the third round. Kelly was so badly punished that Referee Cullen was compelled to stop the bout, and declared Marshall the winner. Kelly's second threw a towel in to the ring a moment later; but Kelly was game to the end. Marshall gave a splendid exhibition of ring craftmanship.

Welterweight.

F. Stamp (141lbs.) vs. H. Burridge (141½ lbs.). Stamp was awarded the bout on a foul.

Flyweight Final.

J. Burgess (110lbs.) vs. R. Macklin (111lbs.). Both boys fought the four rounds to a draw. In the extra-round Burgess was declared the winner on points.

Middleweight.

H. Parsons (152lbs.) Unopposed. Parsons was declared the title holder.

Heavyweight.

J. E. Butler (181lbs.) Unopposed. Butler retains his title.

As a fitting conclusion to a successful evening's programme, an exhibition of boxing was staged between Parsons and Butler, who were unopposed in their respective bouts. The exhibition was clean and very interesting. Butler, who was much heavier, appeared the better boxer and had his opponent guessing all the time.

Before the close Capt. L. T. Stick made an announcement from the ring, stating that Mr. Ken Goodyear, of Grand Falls, had sent a challenge to the winners of the Middleweight and Heavyweight class, to be competed for at the A.A.A. Boxing Meet, which event takes place early next spring. It is quite possible that Mr. Goodyear's challenge will be accepted.

The enjoyable evening's sport terminated by the rendition of the National Anthem.

George Says

Now that last month's summer is over, and Jack Frost has driven the barometer down, it's time for you to hear something about wool, and

WOOLLEN GOODS.

As you are doubtless aware, there are two kinds of wool, viz: Jaeger and the other kind, and

As Jaeger is in a class to itself, I stock it.

It is distinguished from all others by its fleecy appearance, softness to the touch, warmth and lightness of weight.

It became famous owing to the fact that no Arctic or Antarctic expedition ever started without having first obtained a goodly stock of Jaeger Wool Goods.

The greatest care is taken in the finish of all Jaeger goods which gives them a personality that obtains in no others. Let your next woollens be Jaeger.
