years the Calgary diocesan W.A. has been endeavoring to obtain a grant from the general board towards a new house for Archdeacon Tims, the year when the appeal was presented Mrs. Geddes and Mrs. Sidney Houlton, vice-president of the Calgary diocese were both present and presented the needs of the case with sufficient effect to obtain a grant of $1,000. On first reading of the appeal the board had decided against it, but on hearing the full circumstances of the situation as presented by the Calgary officers, the trenches. atter was reconsidered, and the sum of money unanimously granted.

A great deal of business was transacted at the meeting, according to Mrs Geddes, who reports that the general mission work pledge for the Calgary Hocese has been raised from $300 of last year to $400 for the next year. All diocesan pledges were raised to keep page with the increasing number of missionaries and students training for welve in training, an increase of six. All estimates for the year were carstance from the general board, Mrs. Geddes points out, are almos those of any other discess

A wedding of interest to many Cal-garians took place very quietly on Octo-ber 2nd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Tennant, Lachine, Que., when Mrs. Tennant's sister, Miss Jessie Bitzabeth Carlyle, daughter of the late Mr. Mathew Carlyle, daugner of the late arr. mathew Carlyle, of Calgary, was united in marriage to Mr. A. D. Campbell, B.S.A., of natural resources department C.P.R., Calgary. The officiating minister, Rev. J. Thom Gordon, Valleyfield, cousin of the bride, was assisted by Rev. Geo. Mac-Kinnon, Lachine, and the wedding march was played by the bride's sister. Mrs. Capselman of Einch, Ont. Little Marjorie and Agnes Tennant acted as flower siris and during the signing of the register Mrs. W. J. Galbraith sang "Because." Following the ceremony an informal reception was held and later Mrs. and Mrs. coption was held, and later, Mr. and Mrs.
Campbell left by boat for Quebec to spend a few days. They have since returned to Calgary to take up their residence at 222 Twenty-sixth avenue west.

KELLY-LAWRENCE Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Clara Edna Lawrence, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Lewrence, Glenora, Man., to Robert Hobart Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kelly. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's brother, C. T. Lawrence, Inkster boulevard, Winnipeg, last week, when Dr. John Maclean officiated. Miss Bea-trice Lewrence played the wedding marches. The bride, who was given in marches. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a suit of plum-colored broadcioth with a biouse of white georgette creps embroidered in gold. Her hat was of plum-colored veivet, and she were cross fox furs. Mrs. C. T. Lawrence sking "O Promise Me," during the signing of the register. A wedding supper was served after the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Kelly left for their future home in Calsary.

too thin for beauty. And nearly always, the advice is—drick milk. ways, the advice is—drive milk.

Drink a glass of milk with each of the three meals. Drink one in midmorning and mid-afternoon, and one—hot, preferably—before going to bed. This sounds as though the stomach were to be given a lot to do; but the rule is that the stomach can be fed almost any number of times a day, provided the feeding be at regular intervals.

Sometimes milk sours in the stomach. The women who find this so, often take a few teaspoons of lime juice in each glass, to prevent this after-curdding. Others find that buttermilk agrees with the system better. Buttermilk is not so rich in fats, but has an excellent tonic effect upon the whole stomach.
