Little Johnnie, on seeing a skeleton for the first time, exclaimed, "Why, but they skinned her mighty close, didn't they! She looks worse than Aunt Jane did, before ma gave her that bottle of 'Favorite Prescription!" "Aunt Jane" was so completely worn out, by prolapsus, periodical difficulties and nervous prostration, that she was a constant sufferer, night and day, but Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription acted so promptly and favorably upon the uterus and other organs, that she suffers no pain at any time, and her general health was never better. As a remedy for all female weaknesses, as a strength-giving tonic and quieting nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled. Guaranteed to give satisfaction or price ($1) refunded.

—The civic fathers of Cleveland failed to materialize yesterday to take part in London's civic holiday feativities. The reason was not apparent, but, like most else appertaining to the United States nowadays, it may have been connected with the present financial stringency. Like London, they know not what they missed. Nearly 200 arrived on the Flora in the morning, consisting, for the most part, of returning excursionists. About the same number were carried across the lake on Saturday night. The Joe Milton brought over an unusually large list in the afternoon. Twelve hundred Londoners enjoyed the breezes at Port Stanley, 400 went to Detroit on Court Brighton's excursion, while several hundred journeyed that way on the E. B. A. excursion via the Grand Trunk. The C. P. R. excursion was also well patronized. -[Chatham Planet.

A young son of George Warren, who lives on York street near the bridge, was run over by Horner's grocery rig on Saturday afternoon and severely injured. His leg was broken in two places, and he suffered internal injuries. The accident occurred on York street near the lad's home, and his friends assert that it might have been avoided but for the fact that there was a race on between the wagon that ran over the boy and another one.

Me Departed on the Rush.

John Algueston, a youth of 15 years, was charged with drunkenness in the Police Court yesterday morning. "Who provided you with drink!" asked the magistrate. "I got the liquer from Jerry Fitzpatrick," was the reply. "Jack Delaney says that Fitz has taken the skip!" and, then, by way of indicating the celerity of that person's movements, the prisoner added: "You could hear the stones hitting the door from his heels." A boisterous outburst of merriment on the part of the spectators followed this remark. Algueston was discharged.

Daniel Currie and Frederick G. Dewar, two cigar-makers, accused of fighting, were each fined $5 with the option of twenty days.

PEOPLE'S PARTY OF NEW YORK. For your benefit we tell our story MONDAY BEING CIVIC HOLIDAY from Hamilton and Paris

Newpolata Civic. Platform Adopted and Their Candidates Nominated.

Platform Adopted and Their Carlos Nominated.

Sylvan Beach, N. Y., Aug. 21.—The State Convention of the People's party got down to business. The report of the committee on credentials showed that 135 delegates were present. The secretary-general stated the report of the committee on platform was not unanimous, as the committee could not agree on all portions of it. He then read the platform. There was a hot fight over nearly every proposition, and a number of amendments were offered to the cardinal principles of the People's party until it was explained that they were taken verbatim from the platform adopted by the National Convention at Omaha. The platform adopted is as follows.

The People's party of the State of New The People's party of the State of New York, in convention assembled at a time of almost unprecedented national distress, reiterates its allegiance to the three basic planks of the Omaha platform. A safe and sound, flexible national money which shall be full legal tender with free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at 16 to 1; Increase in the amount of the circulating medium to 50 per cent. per capita; the establishment of postal saving banks; government ownership of railroads, telegraphs and telephones.

We declare that the business depression of 1873 was caused by demonetization of silver and the contraction of the currency, and that the immediate cause of the present financial distress is the loss of confidence induced by the wail of the capitalists over the exportation of gold and the urgent demands of the bankers for the Issuance of more Government bonds.

and municipal ownership of railroads and gas and electric lighting plants and the incorporation in the new constitution of the principle of the initiative and the referendum.

The platform was adopted after a wrangle lasting four hours, and during which considerable unparliamentary language was used. The question of nationalizing the liquor traffic produced a three-cornered fight between the Nationalists, Prohibitionists and Labor factions. The convention finally declared in favor of state ownership of the liquor traffic, with the elimination of all profit. The silver questions, the state cannels and the labor questions brought out widely differing sentiments, and one delegate shouted: "You are trying to ride too many horses at once; better stick to face silver and nationalism." None of the women delegates got a chance to say anything, and Farmer Dean, who was in the chair, had great difficulty in preserving anything like order.

When it came to the selection of candidates for the election in November, one of the delegates suggested a fusion with the Prohibitionists. He was howled down by the crowd and declared out of sorder by the chairman at the same time. The following were chosen to represent the People's party on the state ticket: Secretary of State, James Wright, of Elmira; controller, D. M. Fero, of Glens Falls; treasurer, F. H. Purdy, of Bluff Point, Yates county; attorney-general, Thaddeus B. Wakenan, New York; engineer and surveyor, J. Averit Webster, of New York; judge of the Court of Appeals, Lawrence J. McParlin, of Buffalo.
