It's a Man's Duty

to dress well—he owes it to society and to himself. If he should give up every pleasure in order to be well clothed, he would be a gainer by it. A well dressed man is usually a successful man. People listen to him respectfully. He has more chances in life than a shabby fellow. The men for whom we make clothing are well dressed in every sense of the word—style and fit are faultless—workmanship perfect—prices low.

A Boer Ultimatum

Said to Have Been Sent to Britain.

Demanding the Withdrawal of Her Troops From the Frontier in 48 Hours.

This Story Comes Through French Channels.

London Knows of No New Developments—Sensational Rumors Plentiful and Warlike Movements Continue.

Paris, Oct. 4.—A number of papers say that the Boers have sent an ultimatum to England, demanding the withdrawal of the troops from the frontier within 48 hours. The papers congratulate President Kruger for coming to this decision.

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS. London, Oct. 3.—(midnight)—There are no new developments in the Transvaal situation. Arrangements for the dispatch of men and war stores continue.

A supply of balloon material has been sent to South Africa, the war office considering that military ballooning will prove of the greatest value in the kind of warfare carried on in South Africa. The chartering is still going on. Five vessels of the Cunard line are still engaged. One result of the war scare is the advance of 15 to 18 in the price asked for the wheat offered in the London market today.

TRANSVAAL MAILS STOPPED. The British steamer Laipora, now in the transport service, arrived last evening at Swakopmund, with field artillery, a hospital corps and commissary stores from India. The troops were promptly disembarked and sent by train up the country.

The British authorities have announced that no more mails will be dispatched to the Transvaal until further notice. Friday's mail was sent back from the frontier. A Bloemfontein State Government has given an alien expulsion law, and also a law forbidding the export of grain, stock and other necessities without a permit.

PECULIAR. Mr. Montague White, consul-general for the South African republic in London, told the Associated Press that he telegraphed President Kruger, urging him to make a personal appeal to Lord Salisbury, desiring an ultimatum to Great Britain, declaring the dispatch of troops a casus belli, in which event he would be compelled to close his office.

Mr. White added a curious statement to the effect that a representative of one of the largest capitalists of the Rand had called upon him this morning and asserted that it was known in capitalist circles that Lord Salisbury had determined that the Boers should not be war, and had instructed the secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, to wire to South Africa further assurances with regard to the British desire to respect the complete independence of the Transvaal. No confirmation of this is obtainable in official circles.

Bloemfontein, Oct. 3.—The landrost of Boshof telegraphed that the British troops have crossed the border from Kimberley.

A Cape Town special states that it is reported the troops of the Orange Free State are moving on Kimberley, with a view to capturing it and holding the British reinforcements in the south.

The Standard's correspondent at Newcastle, Transvaal, telegraphing on Monday night, says: The forward movement of the Boer forces, which threatened the Natal border, has been suddenly arrested. A number of burghers, who had gathered northeast and east of Newcastle, have fallen back on their original base near Sandpruit. The motive can only be conjectured.
