RESULTS OF THE AKRON RIOT

Two Men Dead and Two Fatally Injured.

About $200,000 Worth of Property if true, becomes known. Totally Destroyed.

Akron, Ohio, Aug. 23 .- As a result of last night's riot two are dead, two will die, sixteen others are more or less injured, and fully $1,000,000 in property has gone up in smoke. The city hall is totally destroyed; the Columbian building, adjoining, is a heap of ashes, and several smaller frame buildings in the vicinity are in ruins. The destruction death occurred on Wednesday, took was wrought by the wild mob which at Taku wires under date of Aug. 20: place from the family residence to had possession of the city from dark "Capt. Soldiers patrol the streets today. The city is quiet. Throughout yesterday afternoon there were ominous mutterings, which grew more pronounced as night approached. The authorities did everything in their power to quiet public feeling; nevertheless, an immense crowd gathered around the jail where Louis Peck, the alleged negro criminal was confined. and soon the cry "Lynch the nigger!" was on every tongue.

Meanwhile the authorities had quietly removed Peck and another negro prisoner from the jail and sent them to Cleveland in the custody of two deputy sheriffs. The mob, however, would not believe that the man had Printers' Union Not Pledged to Support been taken away, and as the night wore on the fury of the rioters increased, eventually culminating in an assault shortly after midnight on the court house, and later on the city hall. Immense charges of dynamite were placed under the city and county buildings. and then to complete its work the mob applied the torch.

THE MAN THEY WANTED. Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 23.-Louis Peck, whose life the Akron mob so eagerly sought last night, is locked up in the county jail in this city. He was brought here from Akron early last night by a deputy sheriff, together with William Howard, another negro, who has been a prisoner in the Akron jail, charged with some minor misdemeanor.

THOUSANDS OF SIGHT-SEERS. Akron, Ohio, Aug. 23.-Thousands of people came here today to see the ruins of the buildings destroyed by the mob last night. The city hall had been totally wrecked by dynamite and fire. It is not likely there will be any fur-ther trouble. Only flame-scarred walls remain of the city hall, and great heaps of ashes mark the site of Columbia Hall, which stood next to the city

SERIOUSLY ILL.

Toronto, Aug. 23.-Mr. Wm. Macdonald, Q.C., of Kerr, Macdonald & Co., one of the most prominent barristers of this city, fell in a faint at the corner of Bay and Richmond streets about 10 o'clock last evening, and he is now in a serious condition at St. Michael's Hospital. He was conversing with some friends in front of the Temple Building, when he was overcome by a terrible pain in his head. Before support could reach him he dropped to the sidewalk.

NO NEED TO BOAST. Maj. Cartwright was invalided home from South Africa. He was stricken down by illness after severing his connection with the railway construction department, with which he was mostly engaged. He was attached to the staff of Nesbitt's Horse, seeing much fighting on the way to Bloemfontein. the latter place he joined Col. Hutton's staff, but his health soon gave way, and he was sent to Cape Town, where he was invalided home for six months. Maj. Cartwright says that while the Canadians did magnificent work, many others did equally well, and he cautions Canadians against over-rating and talking too much about their pets' performances.-Kingston is causing uneasiness. The French consul at Hankow wires to Paris that an attempt at an uprising occurred during the night of Aug. 21. A band of Chinese tried to set fire to a house adjoining the customs bank, adjacent to the British consulate, with the object of pillaging the bank and burning the European quarter. The viceroy, however, took immediate steps and arrested the ringleaders, seizing at the same time arms and documents demonstrating the existence of a sacret society and an organized plot. Two of the leading culprits were decapitated, their heads being subsequently exhibited in the center of the Chinese town. Twenty others were imprisoned. More trouble is feared when the flight of the emperor to the west,

Detroit News: But for Samuel A. Watrous, who represented the printers of this city, the International Typographical Union would, at its vention which has just closed at Mil-waukee, have pledged itself to support the Debs Socialistic Labor Party. resolution was actually passed, but Mr. Watrous, whose name was near the foot of the roll call, noticed how things were going, and voted in the affirmative in order to be able to move a reconsideration, which he did at more favorable opportunity. Then the resolution was defeated on a vote 61 to 91. Consequently the union stands as it has always done, free and un-

Mr. Watrous says the two most important items of business transacted were the raising of the membership per capita from 30 to 40 cents a month, and the presence of President Driscoil, of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, who addressed the convention and advised better methods of arbitration and a closer relation between the printers and the publishers in fixing the scale of wages.

THE C. P. R. STRIKE. Winnipeg, Aug. 23.—The C. P. R. trikers held a general meeting at Trades Hall yesterday. The doors were closed to any but members of unions involved, and the proceedings are kept dark. The men stated, when seen by a reporter at the conclusion of the meeting, that it was the general desire to prolong the strike until more satisfactory terms were given them by the company. NOTES.
