A MAGIC PILL.—Dyspepsia is a foe with which men are constantly grappling butcannot exterminate. Subdued, and to all but cannot exterminate. Subdued, and to all eppearances vanquished in one, it makes its appearance in another direction. In many the digestive apparatus is as delicate as the mechanism of a watch or scientific instrument, in which even a breath of air will make a variation. With such persons disorders of the stomach ensue from the most trivial causes and cause much suffering. To these Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are recommended as mild and sure.

Judge Elliott Dismissed Action With Costs.

After hearing all the evidence in the Pring-Wyatt case at the court house yesterday afternoon, Judge Elliott took the case from the jury and dismissed it with costs. The action was one brought by W. H. Pring, a London township market gardener, against W. H. Wyatt, coachman for Mr. R. Shaw-Wood, for $200 damages. In February last Wyatt lost a collie dog, and believing it to be at Pring's, he had a search warrant executed on the preniises, and also had Pring charged with stealing. The charge fell through, and Pring claimed that his reputation was damaged. Mr. R. G. Fisher appeared for the defendant.

The hearing of the non-jury action of Barfitt vs. Ferguson and Campbell, was postponed until next Wednesday.

It is interesting to note, however, that the views of those who would have the paragraph read so as to admonish the members of the church, instead of making it imperative, is en-win, of Port Colborne.

THE DEBATE. Mr. Birge, layman, spoke strongly in favor of an admonitory rule. He had found that the young people of the Methodist Church and the Epworth League meet and associate with the young people of other churches, where dancing and card-play-ing are not regarded as sinful, and when entertaining at their homes feel very keenly the fact that they are prevented from amusing their friends in a manner that would give the most pleasure. "You are keeping hundreds to the fact that coffee is quickly and of young people out of the church," surely doing the business for you. > and yet do many things just as bad as those set down in the rule. METHODISTS SHOULD STAND ALONE. Mr. Crittenden, layman, had found dancing his greatest difficulty in get-ting young men and women to Jesus Christ. England was because that church allowed dancing. If the Methodist Church were to do likewise he would be inclined to leave it also.

Dr. Williamson said that an admonitory rule would be interpreted that the Methodist Church approves of the Methodist Church approves of dancing and card-playing. In the 38 years of his ministry he had never known a card-playing or dancing young man whose detachment from the Methodist Church would not have been heneficial to the church spiritus been beneficial to the church spiritu-ally. (Murmurs of "Nonsense," and expressions of hope that the speaker would retract his words.)

AN "INFERNAL THING." Mr. Gibson had heard the infernal thing (dancing) knocking at his own door. He wanted to know if he would be expected to renounce his conscience for the entertainment of vis-itors. He would rather set them an example. He had asked a man the other day to come to his "shanty," and they would have a better time and a better spree on a glass of milk or a cup of hot coffee than on any in-Mr. Jonathan Ellis, of Port Dover, of observation he had never known in the Presbyterian Church, English Church or Methodist Church a man who played cards who had any

Dr. Brethour said that if the suggestion of his friend Birge should pre-vail he should propose to the delegates to the general conference that the divide the explanatory rule, so that the young people of the wealthy and fashionable class in the cities larger towns would be allowed to dance, while that privilege would not tricts.
