

A BANK ACCOUNT SEEMS TO BE A MAGNET, WHEN ONCE STARTED IT DRAWS MORE.

You will help make it grow.

In 1861, a depositor in a bank in Cleveland, Ohio, had $418. Since that time he has drawn out $573, and still has $1,500 to his credit.

How do you figure that out? Why, he let his money STAY IN THE BANK. It grew.

Make THIS Bank YOUR Bank.

The Bank of Toronto

FOUR OFFICES IN LONDON:

MAIN OFFICE—Corner King and Richmond streets.
WEST-END OFFICE—Corner Dundas and Talbot Sts.
EAST-END OFFICE—Corner Dundas and Adelaide Sts.
NORTH-END OFFICE—Cor. Richmond and John Sts.

CORONATION SOUVENIRS

We are showing some new and attractive English goods, especially designed for the coronation. One of these pieces will serve to commemorate a most notable historic event.

- Electro Plate Bon Bon Dish.
- Handle of two gold plate Coronation Spoons (duplicate of anointing spoon), mounted with facsimile of King George's crown. $1.00
- Salt Spoons, exact reproduction of anointing spoon, sterling silver, gold plated, pair. 75c
- Sterling Silver Tea Spoon, same design. $1.65 to $2.00
- Sterling Silver Coffee Spoon, same design. 35c to $1.00
- Fine Sterling Silver Enamelled Brooch, each. 50c
- Coronation Souvenir Watch Fob, special, each. 25c
- Sterling Silver Souvenir Spoon, with Westminster Abbey on handle each. $1.00
- Sterling Silver Souvenir Spoon, with coronation chair in bowl. Each. 85c
- Reproduction of the Anointing Spoon, silver gilt, exact duplicate of the original. $6.00
- Brooch, maple leaf design, with monogram G. R., each. 25c

These goods represent the very finest workmanship of English designers and silversmiths.

John S. Barnard

JEWELER, 170 DUNDAS ST., LONDON, CAN.

LOCAL ITEMS

Poor Families Entertained.

The "Inasmuch" Society of the First Methodist Church on Friday entertained 35 poor families at St. George's Park. There were games and musicals for all and a very dainty lunch.

No High Court.
Owing to the fact that no high court judge arrived this morning no session of the weekly high court was held. But one case was listed to come before the judge.

Fire in a Dump.
The firemen were called at 2:30 this afternoon to the vicinity of the Protestant Orphan Asylum, Richmond street north, where a number of boys had set fire to some rubbish in a dump. There was no damage.

East End Fined.
Fred Biggs, a citizen residing at the corner of Cathcart and Beatty streets, was fined $2 and $5 costs for neglecting to clean up his property. He had a dog and a cat in his yard.

Flower Sunday.
The flower Sunday service in the First Presbyterian Church, and a special service will be held in the morning. Rev. J. H. Baker will preach. The service will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday.

Flower Sunday.
The flower Sunday service in the First Presbyterian Church, and a special service will be held in the morning. Rev. J. H. Baker will preach. The service will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday.

A Recital.
The Northern Concerts Unit, was held last evening, when the annual piano recital was given by the senior pupils of Mr. Thomas Marshall. The program was most interesting.

A Bowling Boom.
Bowling is having a great boom in South London as a result of the establishment of a splendid new green on the property adjoining Mr. A. M. Hunt's house. The Bowling Club has been organized and is now in full operation.

A Presentation.
Friday afternoon the members of the West End S. S. of King Street Presbyterian Church, to the number of about twenty, met at the home of Mrs. H. C. Jones to receive the presentation of a new piano. The piano was given by Mr. H. C. Jones.

Used Heated Language.
A couple of east end citizens who became so heated at one another a couple of days ago that each threatened to sue the other for using abusive language. After listening to the evidence for some time, Magistrate Judd found the charge against each of them to be unfounded.

John S. Barnard
JEWELER, 170 DUNDAS ST., LONDON, CAN.

Personal Mention

Mr. Philip Hogan, of Pittsburgh, Alberta, is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. J. Durkin, Hill street.

Miss Gladys McKim, of Becher street, leaves for Winnipeg and Regina on Tuesday next.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller, of Calgary, Alta., were the guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McMillan, of South London.

Mrs. J. E. Dawson, of Butte, Montana, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Jack Woods, and granddaughter, Jane Dawson Woods, are the guests of Mrs. H. A. Mitchell, King street.

Mrs. Woods will be entertained as Daisy Dawson.

Mrs. G. J. Armstrong, for some time a reporter on a local paper, and son of Mr. C. B. Armstrong, of George street, left today for Victoria, B. C., where he will work on the sport department of the "Colonist". His father is also going for Victoria, and intends to take up his residence there.

FATALLY CRUSHED

Toronto Workman Caught Between Crane and Flat Car.

[Canadian Press.]
Toronto, June 24.—Crushed between a crane and a flat car at the Canada Foundry this morning, George Cofford, was killed. He was attempting to couple a flat car when another man stepped on him to get out of the way. The man was killed.

KILLED BY AN AUTO

An Unknown Man Run Down by a Motor Near Toronto.

Toronto, June 24.—An automobile from the McLaughlin garage, driven by J. W. Bailey, ran over and fatally injured a man on the Kingston road near the Hunt Club. Both the victim's legs were broken and he died in a few minutes. The car was driven by a man who was not identified.

Pretty June Weddings

FULCHER-MARSHALL.
A wedding was celebrated at the residence of Mrs. I. W. Smith, 155 Colborne street, on Wednesday last, when her sister-in-law, Miss Hilda Marshall, was united in marriage to Mr. George Fulcher, of Fulcher & Co., 155 Colborne street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Baker, pastor of the Trinity Avenue Methodist Church. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Hilda Marshall, while the groomsmen were Mr. George Northmore.

After the ceremony the young couple left on a wedding trip to western points. On their return they will reside at 68 Hamilton road.

CLARKE-SHOEBOTTOM.
A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the residence of Mrs. I. W. Smith, 155 Colborne street, on Wednesday last, when her sister-in-law, Miss Hilda Marshall, was united in marriage to Mr. George Fulcher, of Fulcher & Co., 155 Colborne street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Baker, pastor of the Trinity Avenue Methodist Church. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Hilda Marshall, while the groomsmen were Mr. George Northmore.

BABY'S LIFE THREATENED BY SUMMER COMPLAINT.
The life of every baby is threatened during the hot summer months by the summer complaint. Thousands of children die every summer from this trouble. But mothers, though you fear this trouble, you can get it right by using Baby's Own Tablets. They relieve him and make him a strong healthy child.

The Tablets are for sale by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Albert Templar, 54 Beaconsfield avenue, has received word of the death of her eldest sister, Mrs. William Landon, of London, Ky., who died on June 20. Mrs. Landon is survived by one daughter, Mrs. John Henderson, of London, her father and mother, Mr. John D. Hull, of Delaware Township; three sisters and seven brothers.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Thompson, held yesterday afternoon at Mount Pleasant Cemetery, from the family residence, 6 Inglefield street, was very largely attended. The services were conducted by Capt. Walton, of the Salvation Army. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Rathbun, Campbell, Turner, Jones, North and McKim.

The funeral of Mr. John Ferguson, held yesterday from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Oscar Melton, 87 Hill street, to the Michigan Central depot, and interment was made at Orwell. The funeral was held under the auspices of L. O. L. No. 299, of which Mr. Ferguson had been a member for 60 years. Mr. Ferguson came to London fifteen years ago, and had been employed until about a year ago at the Columbia handle works.

Messrs. Charles, Roe and Lewis, of Thamesville; Frank, of Kingsville; John, of New York; Mrs. Melton, of this city; Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Land, of Niagara Falls. The funeral services yesterday were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Stevens, of the Egerton Street Baptist church. Among the many beautiful floral offerings were wreaths from the fire department and the Columbia handle works.

Word has been received here of the death in New York of Mrs. Walter Plaster, a former Londoner. She was a sister-in-law of Mr. Henry A. Plaster, of 144 Mill street.

The funeral of the late ex-Adm. F. J. Fitzgerald will be held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock from his residence, 418 Hamilton street, and will be conducted by the members of Protestant Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of which he was a prominent member. It is expected that a large number of the grand officers will be present to do honor to their comrade. A band will be present. The lodge members will march in a body from their hall in the Duffield block at 1:30 p.m.

CALL TO PITTSBURG.
Hamilton, June 24.—Rev. John Young, pastor of St. John's Presbyterian church, this city, has received a unanimous call to one of the largest Presbyterian churches in Pittsburgh.

The uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has made it a favorite remedy. A band will always be depended upon. For sale by all dealers.

STRAIGHT TALK TO BORDEN.
West Must Educate Him, Says Grain Growers' Guide.

Winnipeg, June 23.—The Grain Growers' Guide says: "Mr. R. L. Borden, leader of the 'Conservative' party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the reports of his address in another column, Mr. Borden stands right with the party of Canada, and the man who will be Premier in the event of a change of government, has begun his tour of the west. His address at Winnipeg on the evening of June 23 was the opening speech of his campaign. In that address Mr. Borden dealt with the questions that are present agitating the west. As will be seen by the