MANY SPORTS"It Ain't Me," Says Dooon
Denies He Wants Cub Jobs Satisfied to Manage the Phillies and Is Not Seeking
Frank Chance's Position

Philadelphia, Oct. 21.—Charles Dooon, manager of the Philadelphia Nationals, wants none of the game of Charles Webb Murphy, of the Cubs. Dooon today said so, when his attention was called to the fact that the description Murphy gives of the man who is to succeed Chance as manager of the Cubs fits three men—Dooon, Tinker and Evers.

"It ain't me," said Dooon. "I don't want to go to the Cubs. I am satisfied right where I am, and here is where I am going to be in 1913. No, sir, I won't go to the Cubs."

It was recalled to Dooon that in days gone by he and Charles Webb Murphy have not been on the best of terms because Dooon blocked some Fogel trades through which some top-notch Phillies players would have gone to the Cubs in exchange for mediocre players.

"Well," remarked Dooon, "that may have something to do with it, but anyway I'm not going, and that's all there is to it."

"I'm not in baseball for my health, and I know which side of the bread my butter is on, and that's the side I am turning to the sun. The sun rises in the east—not at Chicago."

Dooon didn't seem a bit worried over the fact that the Phillies are about to change hands, and that Horace Fogel is about to make his exit as a major league manager.

"That doesn't make any difference in my contract," said the little red-topped manager. "Baseball owners come and baseball owners go, but a player stays just as long as he can play and he behaves himself. I am still able to play, and I mean to behave myself."

"I wonder who the next owner will be," remarked Charles, with a chuckle, as he remembered some of the fuses he has had with Fogel.

Kid McCoy Says He's Going to Become an Evangelist and the Devil Had Better Look to His Laurels

"Rev. Norman Selby, formerly Kid McCoy."

That is what you will see one of these days if Kid McCoy, the clever "pug," lives up to his present intentions of renouncing the ring for the pulpit.

McCoy, the trickiest of all boxers of all time, declares that his 29 years of life have been misspent, and that the rest of his days will be spent in ministering to mankind, to helping others.

In short, Kid McCoy proposes to become an evangelist, a rival of Billy Sunday, if you please.

In his new work McCoy will have an enthusiastic second in his wife, the sixth woman, by the way, to be known as Mrs. Kid McCoy.

McCoy's ring battles have been surpassed in interest only by his matrimonial ventures. Eight times he has gone to the altar and seven times he has appeared in the divorce court. One of his wives, Mrs. Julia Crossman, he wed and divorced three times. From the others he likewise obtained a legal separation with the exception, of course, of his present wife, who, before her marriage to him was Mrs. Edna Valentine Hein.

McCoy's decision should occasion no surprise. In the score of years he has been before the public he has shown himself a most versatile fellow. Between fighting, marrying and divorcing, he has found time to open and go broke in a cafe, in a jewelry store, in a hospital for broken-down men, and finally on the lecture platform.

His confinement in a London prison was the direct cause of his latest decision.

He was in jail only a few days, while his wife was proving to the authorities that charges made to the Belgian Government that he had stolen $8,000 worth of jewels from the Princess of Thurn and Taxis were untrue. But those few days gave McCoy time to read and think. His reading, so he says, included the philosophies of Epicurus, Aristotle, Plato and Christ.

"I do not intend to go back to boxing," he said, after his release. "I am going to the country I love—America—and my life will be for the betterment of mankind, to which I intend to devote the balance of my days. I cannot express the gratitude I bear my wife for her goodness while this thing has been pending, but I hope to prove my worth later."

AUSTRALIA AND KANSAS CITY
WANT NONE OF JACK JOHNSON

Hugh McIntosh Cancels His $50,000 Offer and Kansas City Bars Smudge.

Sydney, Australia, Oct. 21.—Jack Johnson will not fight in Australia. Hugh McIntosh, who had offered Johnson $50,000 for fights with Sam Langford and Sam McVey, or Joe Jeannette, cabled today to W. Kelly, his representative, in Chicago, to cancel all negotiations.

McIntosh explained that Johnson's part in the alleged abduction has so angered the sporting men and public of Australia that the matches were no longer desirable.

Joe Wood Was Once
a Bloomer Girl

Joe Wood's start in professional baseball really dates from the time the Bloomer girls, an itinerant aggregation made up mostly of women, visited Ness City, Kansas. Joe pitched that game for Ness City and the girls said: "How can we hit the ball when we can't see it?" The score was 19 to 1 in favor of Ness City, and when the Bloomer girls played the next town Joe was with them, a fine-looking 17-year-old "girl," and remained with them during the season.

He next pitched for the Hutchinson, Kan. nine, and from there he went to Kansas City. He astonished both the professionals and fans, for he was still but a boy of 18 years. From there he went to the Boston Red Sox, and this year he has been astonishing the baseball world. The enthusiasm of Joe's boyhood friends at Ness City verges on the sentimental. They are all Red Sox fans, and are planning a great reception for their hero.

What's in a name? If you were to go up to a rugby football player and refer to the ball as the pork-cudicle, he would look at you with an air of "What-do-you-know-about-it?" And yet, why the pigskin?

Matt Hynes has been reading up the box scores of the Pacific Coast League in order to become acquainted with the names of some of the men that will be his teammates next season. Matt is thinking of sending them all a postcard with "Greetings from Palmerston" on it.

Halley's comet will appear again in 1955. This past season's Canadian League averages will be along about that time also.

STILL IN THE GAME. Far, far away from Tecumseh Park, and far from the knackers' drawl, we see in the papers, day by day, Frank Boverman is still playing ball.

Hughie Jennings has been engaged to defend Horace Fogel against President Lynch and other members of the National League. Imagine Hughie pulling grass and yelling "We-Ah" in a courtroom.

The height of a ball player's ambition nowadays seems to be, not to swat the pill over the fence during a critical stage in a world's series game, but to be presented with a motor car by the folks back home.

After that 15 to 0 defeat last Friday, we do not wonder that Frank Chance has no hankerin' to manage the Chicago Cubs next year.

RUGBY FOOTBALL. Rugby football is a nice, gentle pastime, which is heartily indorsed by the doctors and undertakers. Its great advantage is the development of the human body; that is, it develops a fine, hardy specimen of manhood into a walking advertisement for the crutch manufacturers.

Rugby is played with an egg-shaped affair called a pigskin, and followers of the game are called rooters; another slander on the fair name of the pig. It is a simple game when one gets to understand it; yes, indeed, very simple. But the main trouble is that it takes about an ordinary lifetime to become an speaking terms with the

RECENTLY DECIDED

3. Devore's remarkable catch in the eighth when Cady drove a wallop over his head, with two men coming over with the victory in the third game.

4. Remarkable play by Wagner and Yerkes which saved Wood in his second stand-four-one-inning play back of second base within two counts in the fourth game.

5. Hooper's miraculous catch of Doyle's mighty drive which otherwise would have cleared the wall for a home run, winning the eighth game.

A GOOD WORD FOR BILL

The Winnipeg Free Press, in its sporting columns of Saturday, Oct. 19, has the following boost for "Bill" Borland, who is captain of the Western University football team: "Bill Borland, last year's captain of the Conservative-Tiger football team, who left for London (Ontario) last spring, has been appointed captain of the Rugby squad of the same city. Billy proved himself a crack half-back last year, and his sterling kicking should be a great source of strength to the London team."

NEW YORK SHERIFF
JUMPS INTO RING

Stopped a Bout Between Gunboat Smith and Jim Stewart.

New York, Oct. 21.—Sheriff Harbinger stopped the bout between Gunboat Smith, of California, and Jim Stewart, of Brooklyn, at the end of the seventh round at Madison Square Gardens tonight. Stewart had been punished severely from the start, but his ring generalship enabled him to avoid a knockout blow.

Smith, who weighed in at 150 pounds, 15 pounds lighter than Stewart, floored the heavier man twice in the opening round with a left hook and a right swing. In the third round Stewart was saved by the bell. It is the first time that the sheriff has entered the ring to stop a bout of any importance.

Joe Sieger, the Denver welter, was defeated by Eddie Shelton, of Boston, the referee interfering in the third round when Sieger was in a groggy condition.

Joe Thomas, the New Orleans lightweight, gave a clever exhibition of boxing and completely outpointed William Beecher, of New York.

Horses at Petrosia Were Frightened by M. C. R. Locomotive.

Petrosia, Oct. 21.—When a horse got frightened at the M. C. R. engine last evening and made a lively run down Main street. They crossed the bridge, ran over the bank on the flats, the team and wagon went down a six-foot slope and landed against a fence. The wagon was considerably damaged, but the team was little the worse for the tumble.

NARROW ESCAPE FOR BILL JAMES, OF NAPS.
WHEN AUTO TURNS

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 21.—Bill James, a pitcher on the staff of the Cleveland American League Club, and Alfred Gray narrowly escaped serious injury when the automobile in which they were driving ran into a ditch and turned turtle on the Tower H.H. just north of this city.

The machine was badly smashed, but both occupants escaped unhurt. Gray was driving, and as the machine approached a turn in the road he attempted to light a cigarette and James took the wheel. He was unable to keep the machine in the road and the result was a somersault into the ditch. The top of the car was smashed, the mud-guards broken and the machine otherwise badly injured.

Winnipeg, Oct. 21.—Playing in weather which was more suited to rugby than cricket, the Australian cricketers made their appearance here today in a two days' match against an all-star Winnipeg team, and though playing under conditions which were a great handicap to them, the visitors showed rare form in the first inning of play. The locals went to bat first, and succeeded in running up a total of 106 runs against the strong bowling, and fast fielding of the "Down Under."

The nature of the play was the wicket keeping of Carkeet for the Australians, he being responsible for the dismissal of three men by some fast stumpings. The Australians scored 156 in their first inning.

Was Welcomed By His Fellow Townsmen on Arrival Home.

Lewistown, Me., Oct. 22.—"Bill" Carrigan, veteran catcher for the Boston Red Sox, the new world's baseball champion, was given an automobile by his fellow townsmen last night as the climax to a welcome home.

A parade met Carrigan and Capt. Heinle Wagner at the railroad station and escorted the players to the city hall, where the mayor and other prominent citizens congratulated the players and presented the automobile to Carrigan.

With Wagner and other members of the Red Sox, Carrigan plans a hunting trip in the Maine woods in a few days.

MURPHY SAYS CUBS ARE WORTH MILLION

Says Rumor That He Intends Selling His Stock Is Absurd.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Charles Webb Murphy, chief owner of the Cubs, denies that he intended selling the club to Max Fleischman, of Cincinnati.

"Absurd," was the only comment the usually talkative president would make. Then getting down to his present unpopularity with the Chicago fans, he added:

"I am running this club, and will run it to suit myself. I am giving the public a good article of baseball, and that ought to satisfy them. I hold the club to be worth $1,000,000, for we have made that much profit out of it in the past seven years."

LARRY DOYLE FINED

Five Dollars of World's Series Money Paid Into Court.

New York, Oct. 21.—Capt. Larry Doyle, of the New York Giants, Arlie Latham and Ted Thompson, members of the club "stars," were fined $5 each today for playing ball here on Sunday. The arrest of Doyle and his players followed a game yesterday at Lenox oval, in the upper part of the city. It is against the law to charge admission to a Sunday ball game in New York.
