OUR POETS OF WESTERN ONTARIO

WE'LL GO A-MAYING.

Sweet, 'tis the time of year when hopes new-born

And human hearts again build without limit

Castles in Spain, in cloud charlots ride.

Glad, joyous Spring of Life, welcome again;

Out of sheer nothingness fashion we fondly,

Dreams, we unheeding know'll end but in pain

'Eternal recurrence', old Nature's Law is-

No matter, sweetheart, we'll go a-Maving:

Lloyd George's Great Speech

Warning the English Peop'e

Leave to December her harvest of rue.

Spring up, unfettered, fling old griefs aside.

Straight, we've forgotten dear old winter's reign

Sad sage of Weimar held bound humans, too;

London Advertiser

$5.00 per year. $2.00 Noon Edition. $2.00 per year. Evening Edition. Outside City. By Mail.

$2.00 per year, TELEPHONE NUMBERS. Private Branch Exchange, From 10 p.m. to 8:30 a.m., and holidays, call

3670—Business Department

TORONTO REPRESENTATIVE. U. S. REPRESENTATIVES.

as. H. Eddy Co., Fifth Ave. Bldg. Chicago— has, E. Eddy Co., People's Gas Bldg. Boston-Chas. H. Eddy Co., Old South Bldg.

The London Advertiser Company, LONDON, TUESDAY, MARCH 30.

BIRDS IN THE WAR.

for submarines, or the merchantmen allied nations are concerned.

Our feathered friends have figured in wars in many ways since the memorable occasion when the geese, by their cackling, awakened and saved Rome. Many of these tales are pure fiction, of course, but there is at least one ecorded instance where birds pro- '1HE MIGHTY FALLEN. ided a commander with information o the large number of birds flitting descendants of an imperial race. by in the moonlight, and all coming from the one direction. From his

LOW GRADE PATRIOTISM.

favoritism shown in that country to were as follows: either party; that they should be neither pro-British, nor pro-German, but solely pro-American. That, of course, sounds all right. That the people of any counmy should view international affairs solely in the light of their own best interests, is not only natural, but patriotic. But a patriotism that tries to papers, a class of periodicals whose patriotism is more blatant than dignidied. It starts out by saying that United States super-Dreadnought PennThe Process countries have the process of questions and the process of questions are process.

or defending themselves with all the type that will be much faster than the type that will be much faster than the latest and best ship of Uncle Sam's have never heard, sire," she said, proudly, "that our black troops mas-Germany began the war, in order to get navy. The Pennsylvania as a fighting sacre children, shoot down old men, out into the sunshine of prosperity, to craft is one of the most formidable burn churches and desecrate sepulcrush any of its neighbors, to aggrandize things in existence, but because of chres. tself, then surely the allied nations who were either directly or indirectly the ob- called the greatest fighter afloat, ects of attack, are not deserving of ! condemnation if they try to defend hemselves. Somebody is to blame for like a lion. starting the war. An intelligent and inst-minded person would try to decide blame on the right shoulders instead of and now will he kindly ouncing them all.

And the patriot in a neutral state ould follow that course in the interests of his own people. Are the German ideals of military autocracy consistent with American ideals of democracy, and public treasury by means of the war national honor, and the protection of supply contracts could give pointers to the weak? If that is true the other the Kaiser and his Huns in the gentle nations must be at fault, according to art of plundering. the Hearst idea, in fighting against Germany; and the people of the United States would be true to their own interests in being not only passively, but actively pro-German. But, if that is not true, if a victorious Germany would be a menace to democracy, then this not with the Allies. It is possible our contemporary has a glimpse of its own inconsistency, for it goes on to throw the blame of the war, not on any of the nations, but on war," it says, "is just like every other European war-a slaughter of the peoples for the benefit and gains of the autocratic and aristocratic classes." NE of the interesting minor out- That is untrue; and every intelligent Of days when shadows mock the omes of the war is the part citizen of the United States knows it. that birds are playing, by accident or France, Britain, and even Belgium, are Here there is life, still-eyed and intent of man. Carrier pigeons as certainly democratic in their governand swallows have long been a part of ment as the United States; some of us Of urging hours that clamor to be paid, the equipment of the German and think Great Britain and her Dominions French armies, although as dispatch have the most democratic governments To slow perfection; and on all is laid Chancellor delivered a magnificent free so apparently did the audience. carriers they have been largely dis- in the world. And this war, in so far, placed by the aeroplane and the wire- at least, as France, Britain and Beless, but as scouts or lookouts the gium are concerned, is a people's war.

French are using parrots daily, and When German armies commenced to finding them of great use. A number march westward. Britain would seem So shall the heart forget the weary was as much heartiness in the greeting time to address a meeting at Bangor. of these birds are kept on top of the at first sight, to have less interest in Eiffel Tower at Paris, and, according to the movement than either France or their attendants, they are enabled to tell Belgium. But any British government Be strong once more and trustful as of the approach of Zeppelin or aero- that had remained supine, and hesitated plane long before they come within the to march its soldiers to the front would range of man's vision, Polly giving the have been buried "fathoms deep" under an overwhelming wave of popular in-Still another instance of the service dignation. Aristocratic and autocratic of birds in the war is that of the sea- classes may have had considerable to do gulls, as it is declared that the Brit- with starting the war, but it is the Take on a golden, gleaming guise; ish and French destroyers, searching people's war, so far as the western Clorinda frowns-and e'en the sun seeking to avoid them, are able to dis- We can respect an American who cover them through the gulls, which, honestly believes Germany is in the Is sickly, nasty altogether; sweeping the waters for food, circle right, and should conquer, though we Forego, then, every other wile about and follow the craft in large may not approve his judgment. But But, please, oh, please, don't doff your the one who, under the guise of patriotism, condemns all alike, and misstand very high in the estimation of any one, for his patriotism is of a by which he was enabled to score a like massacre of the wretched As-victory. This case was in the war beween Russia and Prussia in 1866. The the whirliging of time. Once the custrian Archduke John was leading mightiest of peoples, ruling a great n army against the Russians in Bo- empire, the Assyrians have sunk among nria, and one night, when camped, the lowliest. They are a remnant, the he supposed, far from the enemy, he shadow of a former name. In Bible an old home week in our pantry." as astonished to have a gypsy bring times, Nineven was a power already in im the information that in the dark decline, and there were only confused he Russians were moving against him. memories of the presumption which had eeing that his outposts had brought failed to complete the tower of Babel. be as popular as automobiles." was inclined to disbelieve the monuments and brickyard libraries of put on airs for the benefit of your ing on a righteous war, and again came necessity? Do we realize it? in no word of the marching Rus- Three thousand years later, the ruined him to Assyria have to be dug out of sand, the door of his tent, drew his attention while Kurds stick knives in the latest ircumstances, must be the Russians, error of using the possessive when re-The archduke, while still doubtful, took ferring to their constituency. They feel to the birds and the gypsy, who knew include the humble electorate. For in-

THE GRAND SEIGNEUR.

"I have not in the whole constituency (East Middlesex) even an incorporated village of any kind. constituents are a very intelligent and progressive people. "A patriotism and production ampaign was held in my district." "In my own district in the county

European countries have no sylvania is being hailed as the greatthe European countries have its sylvania is only love for the United States; that "they est of all battleships. Magnificent fight-tory."

The European countries have its sylvania is only by the United States; that "they est of all battleships. Magnificent fight-tory."

The European countries have its sylvania is only by the United States; that "they est of all battleships. Magnificent fight-tory."

The European countries have its sylvania is only by the United States; that "they est of all battleships. Magnificent fight-tory." would direct their armies and navies ing machine that she is, however, she against us without the least hesitation is lacking in one vital factor, that of his could be as the state of they thought they could make gain speed. The Pennsylvania is a 21-knot y doing so." And after describing what by doing so." And after describing what vessel, which is several knots slower that France was the first to mo t considers the selfish interests of those than half a dozen battleships of dif- Half-swamped beneath the torrent untries now engaged in war, it strikes ferent nations that have been placed of royal words the nurse murmured at Britain by saying that she is at war in commission during the last year or gium. The Kaiser caught at Belgium. ecause Germany was taking away her so. In point of armament and derade, and she saw a chance to destroy fensive features, the Pennsylvania is with that," he said. "Just listen to me German commerce by a war in which the very latest thing in naval fighting that a treaty existed between Belgium, she would be likely to suffer less than monsters. Only the Queen Elizabeth is France and England, enabling the Types, which had been in progress altook place at Givenchy. A heavy artilthe other nations engaged. We are told her equal in these respects, but the French and English to attack Germany most continuously for four days, ended lery fire was directed on the German that the pretence that either Great British vessel has the advantage of the through Belgium." Britain or any other of the combatants American in speed by four or five woman, trying to stem the stream of under the German trenches on the ing suffered very few casualties in the leals, or the protection of little peoples, in a sensational manner the prime against a charge of espionage. the sanctity of treaties or any other necessity of speed in naval operations. Sut the igh moral issue, is sheer hypocrisy that Other powers have grasped this fact, ught not to decleve the intelligence of and even Russia, a land power, is fine England," he said, with growing rushing to completion a half-dozen fury. Indiscriminate censure of all the na- battleships that will carry the hitting of all. If ions now fighting is neither intelligent power of the Pennsylvania, but will France tomorrow. How can France or just. Who brought on the war? If be speedier by at least six knots, have made common cause with our nor just. Who brought on the war? If the specifier by at least six knots, and have had been made in the course of the labout 6 a.m., 3 the Allies made war on Germany to destroy its commerce, or to seize on any nought that will have a speed of 22 proving yourselves unworthy of your of its territory, or to weaken its power, knots, and Great Britain, before the ancient fame, for you have summoned then there should be no blame attached year is out, will have launched a half- savages to your assistance. Just think, o the German people and Government dozen more of the Queen Elizabeth

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A grateful world sends thanks to the at liberty, but do not fail to repeat all lant men reached the defenders' trenches and hurrying the was the aggressor, and put the Czar for changing Przemysl to Permysl, that we have said to you.

be hot enough for a Turkish bath. Some of the men who are looting the

A Michigan man offers to seli his two infant children in order to get cash to buy an automobile, which - once more illustrates how unfortunate some children are in their choice of parents.

The Bismarck centenary will not be continent, on which democracy is sup- celebrated this year, because of the posed to have its pioneer home, is war. Anyway it would be painful for gravely at fault if its sympathies are the Kaiser, who has made such a mess of things since "dropping the pilot."

[Springfield Republican.]

The woods hold peace. Their unworn ways have lain certain classes in all nations. "This A quiet hand on those who know the strain

Of toil that strives but cannot reach And ends in weary nights and restless hunger of the soul. unafraid

Working in quiet power as nature The touch of beauty and the peace trade speech. The audience today was that fills.

alarms. a child's

FAIR WEATHER VERSES.

[Judge.] Clorinda smiles-and darkened skies Its gay, resplendent course has run,

Clorinda, dear, the present weathe

[Washington Star.] "Latin is a dead language is it not?" "Well," said the pharmacist, as he cration" of the Sabbath. looked at a long prescription, "some-

COMING IN THRONGS. [Kansas City Journal.] "My wife is greatly disturbed." "What's the trouble?." "She says that red ants are holding

CHIEF PLEASURE "Do you think aeroplanes

THE KAISER AND THE

companied by a strong escort. The lady was introduced into the these disputes. staff, Major Von Plessen. When she en- declaration. tered the reception-room she saw sit-

It was the Kaiser, though she had was mostly the lure of drink that was islands is now being determined, not preciating, or injuring other nationalities, can scarcely be considered patrioties, can scarcely be considered patrioties of the highest grade.

It was the Kaiser, though she had some difficulty in recognizing him. He some difficulty in recognizing him. He some difficulty in recognizing him. He said, was doing the fate of the British Empire, shirkers. Drink, he said, was doing the fate of the British Empire, shirkers. Drink, he said, was doing the fate of the British Empire, shirkers. Drink, he said, was doing the fate of the British Empire, shirkers. Drink, he said, was doing the fate of the British Empire, shirkers. Drink, he said, was doing the fate of the British Empire, shirkers. Drink, he said, was doing the fate of the British Empire, shirkers. Drink, he said, was doing the fate of the British Empire, shirkers. Drink, he said, was doing the fate of the British Empire, shirkers. Drink, he said, was doing the fate of the British Empire, shirkers. Drink, he said, was doing the fate of the British Empire, shirkers. Drink, he said, was doing the fate of the British Empire, shirkers. Drink that was mostly the fate of the British Empire, shirkers. Drink that was mostly the fate of the British Empire, shirkers. Drink that was mostly the fate of the British Empire, shirkers. Drink that was mostly the fate of the British Empire, shirkers. Drink that was mostly the fate of the British Empire, shirkers are conducting as was a sign of the shirkers. Drink that was mostly the fate of the British Empire, shirkers are conducting as was a sign of the shirkers. Drink that was mostly the fate of the British Empire, shirkers are conducting as was a sign of the shirkers. ladies of France.' a specimen appropriate to this subject is an editorial in one of the Hearst papers, a class of periodicals whose it very close. There were heavy pouches under his eyes, and his skin BY A LARGE section of the American press the newly-launched can press the newly-launched by the cattern and with a strength process that the photographs, but like the carical mass russia done: Everybody approved, for and I will give you my reasons by and the question was followed by great the process that the photographs, but like the carical mass russia done: Everybody approved, for and I will give you my reasons by and the question was followed by great cheering.

"They are propobly reproaching

But the Kaiser swept her interrup-

"I'll tell you what I think of your in that locality. "She is treachery incarnate. She has betrayed everybody, and me first bloodthirsty negroes form the flower of whether he even heard it. At that moment the politic Von Plessen half-The Kaiser had not the time to anopened the door of the audience cham- a terrific hail of shells on to the area of work. The trenches

the seriousness of the circumstances. are Welshmen in the trenches piece of brigandage in history."

ment ought to have power to settle all the face of every man there and of The lady was introduced into the Kaiser's presence by an officer of his afternoon greeted and emphasized this They are resolved to overcome it, con-He referred to the restriction of out- only through a long agony. No visitor ting at a table covered with maps and put, and, without scorn, but with sor- to our shores would realize that we are plans an officer in a greenish-grey row, he proceeded to say that though engaged in exactly the same conflict, uniform. At her entrance the officer rose, clicked his heels together in the German way, and said, "I salute the

And then the Chancellor went on to nations are apt to minimise their danrather a monologue than an interrogasignificant words in his speech. "The see the power of their own country; making Government have great powers to deal they cannot visualize the power of the larger by some hundreds, the accommodation having been increased, and it Mr. Lloyd George, whose cumstances were graver. Yet there ing, said-I have promised for some accorded to the Chancellor as at the I have been unable to do so because It trod, encompassed by its own first meeting. The outbursts were less ministers of the crown have been work-

THE SPEECH.

VERNE DeWITT ROWELL

The air that breathes along the dim-lit was less homogeneous. Also the cir- evoked a great demonstration of cheer- very ground itself looks as if it has been shaken by a violent convulsion frequent, but on the whole meant much ing time and overtime, and I am sorry more, for today's cheers were not accla- to say that we are not even able to vital points seriously and solemnly severe. I have something to say today, as ever to fight to the last. It is and noble justification of the new de- fault of mine, because we are entirely supply of sound Ersatz reservists parture he was making in delivering a absorbed in the terrible task which has exhausted in some districts. with passion, "When I cosidered these divines, a great and old friend of mine ers' letters are eloquent of de my soul by refusing to speak on the discussing what I had got to say today. The loud approving I remarked to him, "I have only one cheers of the mixed English and Welsh day on which to say it, and as that is Tory and Radical audience indorsed Sunday afternoon, I am very much As we expected, they were dull and sact tion by some local purist of this "dese- me." He replied "If they won't have you, come to Scotland, and we will give you the best Sunday afternoon think of the end. Enough sacrific usness and solemnity charac- meeting you ever had." But I thought have already been made. times I think it's a dead language, and Seriousness and solemnity characterized the whole speech, though at I would try Wales first. (Cheers.) He then again I get an idea that it's pretty terized the whole speech, though at I would try Wales first. (Cheers.) He "We also feel the war at home. Food lively, killing people on its own ac- times the gravity was lightened by told me that in the shorter catechism flashes of witty epigram. He had a you are allowed to do works of charity stuffs have disappeared. Flour is rare complaint against the British navy and necessity, and those who tell me and one may not bake at night. Cake because its vigilant watch and ward that this is not a work of necessity do my own delight, may not be made. We vented a full and clear realization of at this hour. At this moment there made England inviolate, and so pre- not know the dire need of their country But there was no pessimism in the France facing cannon and death; the Chancellor's grave view of things. "I hammering of forges today is ringing have never been doubtful as to the down the church bells from one end of gade writes: result of the war," he said, amid Europe to the other. When I know We have just finished three days in "Neither have I ever been these things are going on now, on the reserve, when we had a very nic doubtful as to its length and its seri- Sunday, as well as weekday, I am not time. Nine of us were put into an old ousness," he added. Then he cheered the hypocrite to say I will save my e as popular as automobiles.

"Never. You can't fly low enough to Empire's enormous resources for carry- day. (Cheers.) Do we understand the shells, as a garrison, We had three A Complaint Against the Navy. end that has on its soul the crime of against the British navy. What is it? we had a huge log fire going in an Belgium." Germany's conduct in this Belgium, once comfortably well-to-do, fireplace for the whole time, and connection he described as the "purest rich, is now in waste, and is weeping, course we cooked all our own grul and her children are living on the bread Round the fire we built up a huge After a characteristic synopsis of the of charity sent them by neighbors far settee of sandbags. motives leading to our action in the and near. And France-the German We fed very well the whole time. The rather doubtful privilege of an war, the Chancellor remarked that it army, lke a wild beast, has fastened Fried eggs and bacon, toast, etc., for knowledge of bird life he stated this was proof of the advance of a large of the House of the Ho lot of a French nurse, who was taken lot be bold that our poorle the light and the lot of a French nurse, who was taken lot be bold that our poorle the light and the lot be locally be bold that our poorle the light and the locally be locally by the local that our poorle the light and the local that our poorle the light and the local that our poorle the light and the local that t not know, but he held that our people the living flesh of that beautiful land, and fruit, for dinner; and for supp prisoner with her ambulance near Se- ought to have facts put plainly before Here, the beast of prey has not leapt we usually have Welsh rarebit and ho o chances, but at once got his men that they own that particular section dan. Threatened with execution as a them in order to secure their co- to our shore; not a hair of Britain's of the country which they are chosen spy, she wrote to the Emperor, and operation. The plain gist of the Chan-head has been touched by him. Why? Russians were upon him, but, thanks to represent, and they do not even was received into the august presence cellor's message was that they must because of the vigilant watchdog that have the co-operation of employers, patrols the deep for us. And that is workers, and the general public, failing my complaint against the British navy. of their ways, the archduke had time stance, after perusing a recent speech In the France de Demain, M. Hin- which victory might be delayed or even It does not enable us to realize that to so place his troops that he came off by S. Francis Glass, M. P., one can zelin tells the story of the interview imperilled. But the Government was see that Mr. Glass has that sense of possession to a marked degree, He does not happen to be "one of us" in does not happen to be "one of us" in near the station of Charleville. His the leisurely methods of settlement France. We had a conference in Paris his constituency, but none the less he bedroom was protected against possible adopted in peace time could not be of the ministers of finance of Russia, ANY of the papers of the United claims not only full kinship with the hostile aeroplane attacks by guns adopted now. "Time is victory," came France, Great Britain and Beigium. States, in discussing conditions farmer, but he claims him as "my out of the European war are farmer." Same of the personal applicaarising out of the European war, are farmer." Some of the personal applica- went abroad for a constitutional on perilled "for the sake of a farthing an not depressed, not dejected, determined, very insistent that there should be no tions Mr. Glass made in his speech horseback or in motor car he was ac- hour," and during the war the Govern-

every woman that they know their fident that they will overcome it, but

Tales From Fighting Lines

February 23, 1915.

"Excuse me, sir," said the French- on the night of the 17th-18th. In the trenches northeast of the place, high ground north of the Ypres-Comines course of the operation Railway, and this improved our position

> On the 17th the French north of Ar- hood of two lines of German trenches and caus- been abando ing great losses to the enemy.

The extensive captures of German hind them. ombs and hand grenades which have true that you are fighting near Cuinchy have proved most ploded in one useful, and the enemy's missiles were Ypres), and during the night of the 18th turned yards of it. against himself with great effect On the 19th, about 7 a.m., the French | boring trenches lines east of Ypres were attacked in now runs ro Our men, listening to been blown in, the sound of battle to the north, could taken to render almost tell from this the course of the engagement. Early in the morning the our bombs, many German batteries opened, and shortly blown bodily afterwards their infantry were launched between the lines. The Germans' sup- enemy had been sul "Good," said the monarch hastily, ports would not face it, and left the at- fire that they wou "It appears to us that you have been tacking line to be mowed down by the As our men charged wrongly accused, and you shall be set rifles of the French infantry. A few gal- the Germans were Losses In German Trenches. The severe fighting southeast of In the evening a successful little affair leaving the ground littered with their

In the course of the night of the 20thevidence of the effect of Chapelle. One of our red a trench which had by the enemy. They had left some rifles and many dead bemorning of the 21st, of our trenches (near Germans occupied a fer itaneously on the neighattempted si the portion that has measures have bee untenable to the Germans, who have suffered heavily from of them having been occupied by the rved leaving the trenches, but were at once driven out, isolated, 40 of our men continued to idea of soaking some bread and corribold firm until every one of them was of them was in rum and putting it out where the Eventually pigeons came to feed. either killed or wounded. We carefully watched them feeding round this stuff, and when we though here were only three left who were capable of firing, and these three conthat they had had enough of the bait to prevent them escaping, we rushed up the course of the fighting more or less nued to hold the enemy at bay. In the meantime word had been brought to those in the rear that their ammunition was nearly exhausted, and seven men, the strongest available, were selected to bring up as much ammunition as they could carry. These latter found the three wounded survivors still standing amid the bodies of their dead and disabled comrades and still firing steadily. The support, slender as t was, came in the nick of time, for at that moment the Germans launched another assault, which like the previous one was beaten off, and the position was saved. Our howitzers did especially good work on the trenches captured by the Germans. At one point our observers uld see one lyddite shell after other bursting in the trenches and hurling the defenders into the air.

A Band of Brave Germans. At one part of the brickfields (ne divenchy) recently some thirty men tried to rush our line. At their head was a young German officer, who came on gallantly waving his sword. He al most reached the barbed wire and then fell dead, and he lies there still with his sword in his hand and all his thirty

It is the same all along the front in this quarter. Everywhere the still grey years since Mr. Lloyd George last spoke at the place where he spoke this view." The Chancellor added, "That figures can be seen, lying sometimes several close together, sometimes singly in twos and threes. Along our front afternoon. It was then a Welsh Cal- is mainly what I wanted to say this where fighting has centred round some vinistic Methodist Chapel, It is now a afternoon, and I think it is a very wood or village or line of trenches, it is theatre. On the former occasion the good Sabbath afternoon's text." And as if each had been swept by a withe ing blast before which every whether the work of nature of has crumbled into ruins or become twisted and deformed, and even the

There can be no doubt, judging from private correspondence, that the feeling mations of happy epigrammatic make the best of the day of rest-the in Germany towards the war is chang beneath the Everlasting phrases, but the emphatic approval of urgency is so great, the pressure is so ing. They are probably as determined otherwise I should not have been ported that even Ersatz reservists who The Chancellor's demeanour when he here, and I have something to say that are suffering from aliments whi rose to speak was grave, and his speech requires stating at once. This is the should render them unfit for military He opened with a lofty only day I have to spare. It is no service are being called up, and the political speech in a theatre on a Sun- beer cast upon our shoulders. I just letters speak of the calling up of un day. After a vivid word-picture of the happen to have met on Friday morning, trained Landsturm, which represents horrors arising from the German attack before I decided to come down here, large reserve still available to mak on Belgium and France, he exclaimed one of the most eminent Scottish good the wastage of war. Many prisor things I said to myself, I will not save -Dr. Whyte, of Edinburgh. We were Witness the tone of the following ex tract:

"We are glad the holidays are ov this magnificent reply to the condemna- afraid my constituents won't listen to In our everyday work we can forget t his hearers by a bright picture of the soul by not talking about them on Sunrooms on the "ground floor," one as a living-room and the other two as been > behind the trenches. On day we noticed some pigeons that no one was allowed to keep them pigeon pie, we decided to try and cate snare and we are not allowed to shoo CANADA.

WELL FED.

The Grand Trunk Railway Syster issue round trip homeseekers' tickets at very low fares from stations in Can ada to points in Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan, and are in effect each Tuesday until Oct. 26, 1915, inclusive, via Chicago, St. Paul or Duluth, and via Sarnia and Northern Navigation Company. Homeseekers' tickets are valid returning two months from date of issue.

are on sale each Tuesday during March and April from stations in Ontaric, Kingston, Renfrew and west, to points in Alberta and Saskatchewan, at low

The Grand Trunk Pacific Railway is the shortest and quickest route beween Winnipeg, Saskatoon and Ednonton, with smooth roadbed, through rapidly developing section of Wester servations made by all Grand Trunk

Before deciding on your trip ask G E. Horning, District Passen-

The Pink of Health is every woman's right; but many are troubled with sallow complexions. headaches, backaches, low spirits-until they learn that sure relief may be found in but lo and behold, they simply flev

they must have had enough rum t

have proved of remarkable value

in the Great War

They are equally valuable in the home. They yield warmth and sustenance in

QUANTITY

Screened

Scranton Coal

Webster-Harvey

Limited

PHONE 1383.

Says: "I should have told you the other day

when we were speaking

EDDY'S WASHBOARDS

that it is quite as necessary to have an indurated

Fibreware Tub in which to wash the clothes if you want to make a success of

Says: "I've often heard

of EDDY'S FIBREWARE

PAILS and TUBS. What's the difference between

Fibre and Woodenware?

EDDY'S PAILS

AND TUBS

Are made from Compressed Fibre. baked at extreme heat, all in one solid piece. Cannot warp or fall apart. No chance of splinters. Wears longer.

Looks better, and are very light to handle. The latter point should always be a matter of consideration

when buying kitchen utensils," concludes

Wiseneighbor.

washday."

MRS. NEWLYWED

MRS. WISENEIGHBOR

An OXO CUBE to a cup

IN 10c. AND 25c. TINS

SERVICE

a moment,

OUALITY

make two good old topers drunk

away as calmly as you like, and I swear steamer, landing passengers without Sails from New York every Wednes-

> WEST INDIES. Delightful 28-day cruises to the An-For tickets, apply to Canada Steamship Lines, Limited. Montreal, or any ticket agent,

CRAND TRUNK RAILWAY

SINGLE FARE Good going and returning April 2 only

FARE AND ONE-THIRD

Good going April 1, 2, 3 and 4, Return limit April 6, 1915. Return tickets will be issued between' all stations in Canada, east of Port Arthur, and to Detroit and Port Huron, Mich., Buffalo, Black Rock, Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge, N. Y.

rand Trunk ticket office R E RUSE, corner Dundas and Rich-

Easter Holiday Fares MICHIGAN CENTRAL

RAILROAD NIAGARA FALLS ROUTE

Vill sell excursion tickets between all

ONE FIRST-CLASS LIMITED ONE-WAY FARE

for the round trip, good going and returning Friday, April 2nd only. ONE FIRST-CLASS FARE AND ONE-THIRD

4, good for return up to and including pril 6th, 1915. For further information

:15 p.m. Cars marked * run through service through to Port 9:00 a.m., 11:00 a.m., 1:00 p.m., 7:00 p.m. Stanley, 9:00 a.m., 13 p.m., 3:00 p.m., 5:00 St. Thomas, 9:00 p.m.

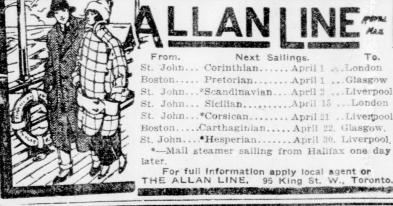

Mar. 26. Metagama Apr. 2. Grampian Apr. 9. Misasnabie

CANADIAN

April 1, 2, 3 and 4 1915, return limit, 161 Dundas street; F. April 6. (Minimum charge 25 cents.)

ORDUNA (15,500 tons)

HOTEL MARLBOROUGH BROADWAY, BETWEEN 36th AND 37th STREETS

In the Very Centre of New York.

This famous hotel is known the world over, has all modern ap-pointments, and is complete and up-to-date in all details. The most convenient location in New York, being but a few min-utes to the leading theatres and n the Pennsylvania and Grand Whether your visit is one o business or pleasure, you will find the Marlborough the ideal

Rooms, $1.00 Per Day Upwards. Rooms with Bath, $1.50 Per Day Upwards. $1.00 Extra Each Additional Person.