Tribesmen Gain On Hams Winning Double-Header From Lee's Luckless Colts

Coogan Allows But Five Hits in First-Alton Hit Three in Second.

KNOTTY BANISHED

The Bakermen swept the series with Kitchener by taking both ends of a win bill yesterday afternoon, 8 to 1 and 2 to 0. Probably the second largest and 2 to 0. Probably the second larkest crowd of the season saw two sparkling games, and over half of it was pulling for Knotty Lee's team to win. It was a tribute to the team which has received a succession of lacings, and which trois out every day almost certain of defeat, but far from admitting it until the ninth inning.

but far from admitting it until the ninth inning.
Knotty himself gave the crowd the big guffaw of the season, but he had to laugh it off from the bleachers after the incident. In the second inning, when Cross was batting his second time around, he made a half-hearted swipe at the ball for what was the third strike. He drooped his bat, and was preparing to go to the dugout when tumpire Murphy called the bitch a ball. The whole Kitchener team made an island of Murphy, and Knotty capped the riot by giving the umpire a bun's rush almost to the north fence, using a nape-of-the-neck and seat-of-therants hold. He took a fall out of Murphy, but Murphy got the next fall by putting Knotty over the fence and out of the game.

As a Spectator.

As a Spectator.

Knotty therefore was a spectator of his charkes' first defeat of the afternoon. Bill Coogan was in wonderful form yesterday, allowing but five hits. Thre of these were grouped for the Colts' lone tally of the day in the fourth frame. They were sided by Knothe, Knapp and Inman. In the last five innings Coogan set the Colts down in one, two three order.

Cross opened a tearful second frame for the Colts by banging a home run out among the lilles of the valley in left field. The Teos achieved four runs altogether here, but Earl Brown held them scoreless for the next four rounds, and pitched excellent ball.

Brower singled where Cross left off, and Sandquist bunted and Kernan drew a walk. Inman messed up Klein's smash. Brower counting. Sandquist was erased at the plate on Coogan's choice to Brown, but Baker's single pushed two more runs off the paths.

Brown held the Teos in leash, but his mates got nowhere against Coogans witching and against the four-run lead.

srown neid the Tecs in leash, but his mates got nowhere against Coogans pitching and against the four-run lead, and Stimpson and Cross both doubled in quick succession to tally another run in the seventh.

In the eighth two permissible errors and a brace of hits counted in three more runs. Sandy singled, and on their tandem stunt, Kernan singled, Sandy making third when Loepi's throw to third was deflected to the fence by Knothe. He scored on Klein's single. Coogan forced Klein, and then Brown took Baker's slice toward first for a nice play the plate. Kernan being cut off there and run down on the paths, as Mike tore for second. He made third on Knapp's error, a hurried throw of a hard chance which dug out of the dirt and then dropped and made home on a steal attempt, Vermilyea playing tag long enough for the run to score.

Lefty Alton, chalking up his sixth rin since he joined the club allowed he Colts but three hits in the second xture. Chack Nossett chucked good Baker out and forced Vermilyea to ny out to get out of the Jam.

A walk a sacrifice and Sandquist's single to right counted Stimpson in in the next frame, and that ended the London scoring.

In the first five innings only three men per frame faced Alton. Knapp wasted a double, with which he started the sixth, as the ball didn't go out of the infield on the next three outs.

An error by Sandquist, Beatty's single to centre and Knothe's sacrifice in the gathering darkness of the seventh and a fine drizzle of rain, threatened to wash out London's slender lead but Keating popped up and Loepp flied out to Stimpson to send the athletes to sover.

With a couple of good pitchers added. Knotty Lee has a team that will battle any one of the other five clubs, and a thin piece of paper doesn't separate any of these in the dope. Inman who filled Bud Connolly's shoes at third for the Bay City Wolves, has given Knotty a good infield to add to his outfield. He has pitchers, but the hurlers have all been overworked.

If young Eddie Droege gets pushed off the ball club with Achenbach's return, he'd be a great help to Knotty. But whether Droege will get pushed off remains to be seen. The youngster has a world of stuff, more than Englishman had when he broke in here, according to Jim Kernan. He has had very little chance so far to do his stuff, as Baker, with almost certain pitching quantities, has had little chance to gamble. Droege needs control, and the corners to get in and win his share of games right in present company.

Bill O'Hara, one of the most popular ball players Toronto ever had, and who as Lieut. Bill O'Hara used his throwing arm to toss bombs at Fritzies in France, has been ordered to have a look at Lefty Alton by Manager Howley of the Toronto Leafs. He will also have a peek at Ryan and Wernke of Hamilton.

Min Pigeon Race

Also Steal Time On Day To Take Wenige Shield.

The Forest City Pigeon club held its weekly race on Saturday from Danville, and faced a strong northwest wind, making it a hard journey. J. Lightfoot took first and second places with No. 1 loft. Hardy of Lucan was third. The time for Lightfoot's bird was 385 miles 252 yards, 10 hours 6 minutes 15 seconds; second bird, 10 hours 33 minutes 4 seconds. Hardy covered 384 miles 473 yards in 10 hours 38 minutes 36 seconds.

The result in yards per minute: J. Lightfoot, 1,070; F. Hardy, 1,027; Rawson Bros. 1,006; Twin Lofts, 907; J. Angles, 623.

Lightfoot also upset the cards on the day, stealing enough time over Hardy and Rawson Bros. to win the Wenige shield, making it twice in succession. Saturday next is the date for the open race from Danville and a number of outside entries are expected.

Hams Go Into 11th Frame To Break Losing Streak

How should one conquer a nervou ness on the putting green? By BOB CRUICKSHANK,
One of America's Greatest Players.

Nervousness on the putting green is something that only the pupil himself can conquer. It seems that when a player of nervous disposition starts to putt, he reaches the verge of a collapse. The best method of ef-fecting a cure is to turn away from the ball when you feel this condition approaching and take a few practic swings. Develop a slow putting stroke and this will aid materially in controlling the nerves. Keep the thought in mind that nothing will happen to you if you DO take four or five putts on each green. But you alone can cure this nervousness-no

Sarnia, June 4.—Sarnia seniors to day tied Chatham for the top rung of the Ment county league ladded by a 5-2 win over Blenheim. Smok Joe Allen pitched for the locals and held the Blenheim swatters to five hits. He was not too well supported in the field, however, and errors helped Blenheim largely to tie the score two all in the fifth. In the next, however, Sarnia again got two men over the plate through a combination of hits and errors. On the whole the game was listless.

Bay City, June 24.—Hard hitting enabled the Flint Vehics to triumph over the Wolves here today, 7 to 2

The victory gave the visitors an even break in the four-game series. Bill Rose was effective part way, but errors by his mates broke his composure. On the other hand, Sam Hendee, former Wolf, kept the local's hits fairly well scattered and this, coupled with airtight defence by the Flint players gave them a wide margin over the Breenmen.
