Ellis and Mrs. Davie and a number of directors then went all through the buildings, admired the exhibits and saw everything, returning after a complete inspection, to the band stand, where the President, after briefly refarring to the occasion which gave rise to the summer fair of 1893, in stead of a fall exhibition such as had been held in the previous sitteen years, intro duced Hon. Mr. Davie, The Premier war received with aphanese, and in a speech of in fordible language, on the value of the in-dustries of the Province such as were here represented. His policy, he said, had at ways been to encourage home industry, and to endesvor to make a market for the good which were manufactured right at home and which would always be found to be the equal of anything to be had abroad ; while, in course of their manufacture, they were the meams of providing employment for habor such as was nuch needed. Articles us has he referred to were, for instance, try ynedray's Soep Factory, Falconer's Vinegar and Pickling Works, the Albion Iron Works, the Okell & Morris Fruit Pre-serving Co, the Ters Cotta Works, and others which might be seen in the various departments of the building Another industry which should be emoors seeking to enter commercial life might be trained, and he hope the time would come when the Legialature, in its wisdom, would see, fit to establish a Provincial greinlary onlege such as the Ontarie Government had at Guelph. Having steended about all of the boys of the Province who were now weether leagelature, in its wisdom, would see fue outshilts or Province who were now weether bacellation of cance made from the sock or ding bene made.
