REVOLUTIONARY WHEEL GRIPPING SPAIN TO FEAR

clared to Be in Great

THREE THOUSAND

Disastrous Battle — Government Takes Drastic Steps in Effort to Check General Insurrection

Madrid, July 29.—The official despatches received here today admit that the battle between Moorish tribesmen and the Spanish forces outside Melilla on July 27 was a disastrous defeat for the Moors cut off the communications with the Spanish outposts and the main force of the Spaniards were back under the walls of the city where fighting continued desperately for several days. The Spanish forces killed and wounded numbered almost 3,000, which takes no account of the advance units who evidently were cut off and abandoned to their fate. Melilla is full of wounded men.

Paris, July 29.—The internal situation in Spain now completely shows the war in Africa in the eyes of Europe. Although official despatches are still silent upon the details of Catalonia, grave concerns are entertained that expectations will be disappointed.

The declaration of Premier Maura's cabinet yesterday to place the country under martial law and to send the army to suppress the insurrection, as an alternative of convoking parliament, may prove an extension of the insurrection which will endanger the dynasty.

Preparations now being made in Madrid to quell the disturbances include the despatch to Catalonia of the entire Third and Fourth army corps and the Madrid cavalry brigade under command of Prince Charles of Bourbon, who was about to leave for Melilla. Prince Ferdinand of Bavaria, one of the squadron commanders of the brigade.

The scale upon which the military intervention is planned proves that the government entertains no illusion about half way measures and is ready to take the responsibility of putting down the revolution as a war for the future. Both official and frontier reports leave little doubt that the workmen's organizations and voluntaries and anarchists have made common cause in old Catalonia, and that this far they had the withdrawal of troops for the campaign in Africa, left less than 5,000 men in the garrisons at Barcelona, and the insurrection mob after committing all sorts of excesses, including the burning and sacking of church property erected barricades in order to hold their position.

Entire Army Mobilized Madrid, July 29.—In view of the grave situation in Barcelona which is steadily growing more serious, the naval infantry has been ordered to that city. Senor Laclera, the Minister of the Interior, now termed the Spanish Trebuchet, today announced that any newspaper printing reports disagreeing with official information supplied, since the declaration of martial law, Spain yesterday, the censorship over news has been more severe.

The complete mobilization of the Spanish army has been ordered. All officers on leave have been recalled.
The reserves of all classes have been summoned to the color. The railroad lines in the North of Spain are strictly guarded, and no one is allowed to enter Spain without the permission of the military authorities. The garrisons at Burgos, Logroño, Victoria,

GEORGEN RELEASED ON PROMISE TO DEPART

Domination Authorities Decide They Cannot Proceed—Unhappy Prisoner Was Fast Losing His Reason

Stephen Georgen, the alleged Syrian priest, no longer languishes in durance vile.

Yesterday afternoon Detective Captain Palmer gave orders with Rev. A. J. Brace, on the charge of being a fraudulent impostor. He was going about collecting money for an alleged orphanage at Adana, the scene of the recent Turkish massacres, and had obtained several small sums of money from various citizens. The Mayor gave him $2. Postmaster Noah Shakespeare contributed a similar amount, as did a number of other charitable-disposed citizens. He had received a permit from the Mayor of Vancouver, whence he came to solicit subscriptions, and on the strength of that Mayor Hall gave him a similar document.

It is not so very long since the notorious Dr. Day, now a Turkish consul in Persia, victimized the charitable in wholesale fashion, and the suspicion of Mr. Brace was aroused. Georgen was questioned and gave very unsatisfactory and conflicting answers as to what he was doing and when he came. His credentials were examined, and the only man in town capable of translating them was quite certain that they were impostor's forgeries. The Oriental was charged with obtaining money under false pretences, but when the matter was referred to the city prosecutor he found serious difficulties in the way of securing the required legal proof, difficulties which were increased by the fact that the only man who could interpret the documents was unwilling to testify.

The matter was then laid before the immigration authorities, and Dr. Milne agreed to deport the undesirable.
The criminal charge was accordingly withdrawn and Georgen held in the police station at the disposal of the immigration authorities. He came here via Vancouver, and the Daily News, contemporary and comrade of the famous Archibald Forbes, of the same journal.

Later, when the motor came along, the distinguished traveler toured the Balkans and India in his car, and seems to have had many hair-breadth escapes, and pedals, but, like his great peripatetic peer, Forbes, the organization of his journeys was always exceedingly well done, and the carry-through part vigorous, determined, and inevitable. In no single one of his many travels has his program been shortened or altered. To give some idea of how readily he follows his plan, it is mentioned that in his Moscow journey something happened to his bicycle, when more than a hundred miles from that city, which precluded him for a time from riding. He could not get it repaired, so he whipped the machine about the train, went to Moscow, got the bicycle put right, returned, and finished the ride on his wheel.

As a motorist he has driven from London to Constantinople, taking the first motor car into Turkey after obtaining the Sultan's special permission (which that potentate may now re-

Woman's Council Will Hold Special Session to Consider Matters of Morality

The unpalatable and hitherto little known fact that here in Victoria a considerable number of young white girls, several of them high school students themselves, whose ages range from sixteen to twenty-one, make it a business to visit Chinese men in their business establishments and their living rooms, and to teach English and allied subjects, is to be given immediate attention by the ladies' societies interested in progressive work for the protection of the sex and its moral, as well as material interests. The majority of the officers of the local Women's Council had no intimation of this dangerous element of Chinatown's educational methods until the disclosure of the system appeared in the Evening Post a week or so ago, and the statements were promptly confirmed by the city detective department. It is now contemplated that the entire matter shall be presented for consideration at a special meeting of the Local Council of Women, when it is expected that the city authorities will be petitioned to adopt similar protective measures to those approved by the Vancouver authorities.

The startling statement that upwards of twenty white women were held in slavery to Chinese of the quarter, and sunk in the very drugs, opium and debauchery, is also given attention, and action taken if such be necessary, it being announced that a general crusade against these women and their masters has been ordered by Acting Chief Palmer.

WAR MINISTER HALDANE IN SPEECH AT BRITISH CLUB STATES NEED OF LAND FORCE OF NAVY PROPORTIONS

DECLARES EMPIRE
IS INDIVISIBLE

Borden Says Canada Will Spend Last Dollar to Maintain Integrity of Empire—
"Times" Remarks

London, July 29.—In proposing the best of the "Imperial Defence Conference," at the British Club banquet, held in Guild Hall last night, the Right Hon. Mr. Haldane declared, "There is only one maxim which we can lay down—that the British Empire is one and indivisible on this question of defence (cheers). I believe it to be on that maxim that this conference truly concentrates the highest degree of opinion as to the command of the sea must come in first place, that the army which is to protect the empire must be an army of long range, suited to deal with problems of long range."

Sir Frederick Borden in reply said that while Canada stood upon her rights, she insisted upon her freedom. It was untrue and unfair to Canada for any man to say as had been said that Canada's patriotism and loyalty depended upon the highest degree of opinion upon the fiscal policy of Great Britain. He thought true imperialism was not a matter of British nations along the lines of development of their own resources, but they realized their imperial responsibility. The people of Canada were prepared to pay their part of the cost. In thoroughly preparing themselves for local defence, Mr. Haldane's plan, with guidance, in Canada and he believed that local measures of defence would be carried out that should any one of the Dominion wish to send a division or force to assist the country it would be easy to carry out that end. Why could not the same thing be done in regard to a navy? Canada would be prepared to spend its last dollar to assist in maintaining the integrity of the empire (cheers).

The "Times," referring to Imperial defence, lays down three principles: 1. That each country should develop naval resources of its own.
2. Training material for this naval force must be as far as possible, the same.
3. All individual efforts must be coordinated to a common end.

The "Times" adds that the principles mentioned are broadly accepted, ignoring the main issue.

London, Eng., July 29.— Referring to the Berlin Deutsch Taga Zeitung article of Tuesday, the "Standard" in a semi-humorous editorial ventures to think Pan-Germanism must look elsewhere for a "joyful sign" than Vancouver. Vancouver is a Canadian development which is the making of good patriotic Canadians of almost all colonies, concludes the "Standard."

THE REMNANT COUNTER

Today's cablegrams furnish an excellent recipe for a Spanish stew.

That a man can be held prisoner by the police without a charge against him until his reason shows signs of breaking down, is well known as much as we imagined we did about the beauties of our own civilization.

Taking into consideration the fact that virtually the entire population works in the coal mines, can one wonder that they have Black Hinds in New Mexico?

To be a real novelty these days a round-the-world traveler must buy his ticket and pay for his meals at hotels in a normal way.

John O'Loughlin, of San Francisco, aged 26, committed suicide because his parents forbade him to smoke cigarettes. Four children.

It's curious, but true, that there never has been so many encounters reported in British Columbia as during the past few weeks.
Since the declaration of martial law, the sportsmen's tariff.

Skeena River Indians
beat the Scottish-Jew for business instinct. They ask for celtic politeness from the Jew.

President Reyes of Colombia is a quick man to take a hint. After being twice shot at by revolutionists and refused the support of his Congress, he believes he will retire.

Daughter of the Chief of the Puyallup has eloped to Victoria. She had $9,000 in bank, $5,000 in real estate, and a high-bred automobile.
Besides, she is good looking.
Don't all speak at once.

That Hawaiian lady patriotism who adopted the costume of Mother Eve, probably wanted to advertise the film.
